RE: Appointment to the Navajo Nation Labor Commission

Dear Mr. Watchman,

Thank you for your letter of interest in being appointed to the Navajo Nation Labor Commission. It is my pleasure to appoint you to the Commission and to forward your name to the Navajo Nation Council's standing committees for confirmation.

In accordance with the applicable portions of 15 N.N.C. § 303(B), commissioners must be familiar with the Nation's labor practices, human resources and employment, and be a member of the Navajo Nation Bar Association in good standing. Your prior experience shows your familiarity with the applicable Navajo laws which will benefit the Commission's work and you are a member in good standing with the Navajo Nation Bar Association. You meet the qualifications.

Your service with the Navajo Nation Labor Commission will begin on the Naabik'íyáti' Committee's concurrence with this appointment.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in blue ink that reads "Jonathan Nez".

Re: The Navajo Nation Labor Commission
Presidential Appointee

Ya' a t'e Honorable President Jonathan Nez:

I am seeking to be re-appointed to the renovated Navajo Nation Labor Commission, a body on which I sat on since I was first appointed in October, 1997. I was first appointed by President Albert Hale, and have been reappointed by all successor Navajo Nation presidents, with the exception of President Russell Begaye. My appointment officially expired this past September 31, 2018 after the Navajo Nation Council amended the plan of operation of the Commission, by requiring that all members be members in good standing with the Navajo Nation Bar Association. I am attaching my most current resume.

I have been in the legal field that spans some 38 years, first taking and passing the NNBA bar in November, 1980, and remain a member in good standing to date. Much of my career has been in engagement of a private law practice. Over these ensuing decades of practice, I have represented literally hundreds of Navajo citizens in all fields of practice: Civil, Criminal, Administrative, and a few personal injury cases.

I am very much interested in continuing my service with the Navajo Nation Labor Commission. In that regard, I respectfully seek your blessing, and ask that my letter of interest to return to the Navajo Nation Labor Commission be accepted.

My service to the Commission has been eventful to say the least. We have seen Navajo law on employment evolve like never before, and it faces great challenges on jurisdiction from internal entities. The Navajo Nation preference law is what it is, because it was passed by the Navajo Nation Council during a time of immense employment strife back in the early 1980's. I am very much aware that the Navajo Preference Act is being revised and amended piece by piece by the Navajo Council.

Thank you now for your careful consideration on your appointments to the Navajo Nation Labor Commission. I look forward to continuing on in this endeavor.

I am available at ( ) or (505) , or through email at ahoo.com.

Ahe' he.

Good Afternoon:

I have known Casey Watchman since the 1980's and he is a dedicated and highly competent Navajo lawyer. He has great expertise in Navajo Labor Law and has used that expertise in the past to assist the Navajo Nation Labor Commission and, if confirmed as a member of the Commission, will greatly assist the Commission in its current work.

Casey is fair to both employees and employers and enjoys the respect of both.

As a long-time certified Navajo interpreter, he is able to understand Navajo people speaking their own language, which is certainly a plus.

Respectfully,

Larry
