TRACKING NO. 0240-22

AN ACT

RELATING TO THE LAW AND ORDER, AND NAA'BIK'ÍYÁTI'
COMMITTEES AND THE NAVAJO NATION COUNCIL; AMENDING TITLE
17 OF THE NAVAJO NATION CODE

BE IT ENACTED:

SECTION ONE. AUTHORITY

- A. The Law and Order Committee was established as a standing committee of the Navajo Nation Council with the delegated responsibilities to “[t]o protect the rights and interests of the Navajo People by improving the quality and effectiveness of the justice system within the Navajo Nation” and to review and make recommendations to the Navajo Nation Council on proposed Navajo Nation Code amendments and enactments. 2 N.N.C. §§ 600(A), 600(C)(2) and 601(B)(14).
- B. The Naa'bik'íyáti' Committee was established as a standing committee of the Navajo Nation Council with the delegated responsibility to hear and act on proposed legislation that requires final action by the Navajo Nation Council shall be assigned to the Naa'bik'íyáti' Committee. 2 N.N.C. §§ 164(A)(9) and 700(A) (2).
- C. The Navajo Nation Council is the governing body of the Navajo Nation and must review and approve enactments or amendments of positive law, i.e., changes to the Navajo Nation Code. 2 N.N.C. § 102(A) and § 164(A).

SECTION TWO. FINDINGS

- A. For years, the Navajo Public and Navajo communities have pleaded with their Naat'áaniis to address the rampant violent crime on the Navajo Nation. Navajo elders are afraid for their own safety. Navajo parents are afraid for their children's safety. Navajo spouses are afraid for their spouse's safety. The list goes on.
- B. Persistent gaps in the Navajo Nation public safety system have created a culture where crime – especially violent crime – is actively increasing on the Navajo Nation. Repeat offenders break laws and reoffend with impunity because they know they are unlikely to be extensively punished.
- C. The most common criminal offenses reported on the Navajo Nation are violent assaults involving weapons and/or serious bodily injury, as well as rape.
- D. It should not be overlooked that alcohol and substance abuse underlie almost all violent crime on the Navajo Nation. Addressing illegal consumption of alcohol on the Navajo Nation is of the utmost importance to ensure our already over-burdened system functions as effectively as possible. It has been reported that approximately 55% of law enforcement's time and resources are expended on responding to public intoxication.
- E. These amendments, as set forth in attached Exhibit A, to the Navajo Nation's criminal statutes were developed during the 24th Navajo Nation Council through Work Groups led by the Law and Order Committee and the Chief Prosecutor. The amendments developed by former President Russell Begay's Executive Branch Work Group were incorporated, fully or in part, into the amendments set forth herein.
- F. The amendments set forth herein extend statutes of limitation for serious offenses, including sexual assault and crimes against children, so that law enforcement has sufficient time to prosecute. In addition, the legislation recommends mandatory minimum sentences and tiered sentencing for certain serious offenses to deter and promote accountability for repeat and violent offenders. It also proposes new offenses for bootlegging and possession or sale of drug paraphernalia, and implements a mandatory safety hold for public-intoxication offenders.

1 G. The Navajo Nation Department of Justice has reviewed the proposed amendments
2 and deemed them to be legally sufficient.

3 H. The Navajo Nation Council determines that the amendments to Title 17 of the Navajo
4 Nation Code, set forth herein at Exhibit A, are necessary and vital to ensure adequate
5 deterrence and punishment for violent and substance abuse-driven acts that threaten
6 Navajo families and Navajo communities. These amendments also prioritize victim's
7 rights and enhance protections for all crime victims and their families as they await 8 justice.

9
10 SECTION THREE. AMENDMENTS TO TITLE 17

11 The Navajo Nation hereby amends Title 17 of the Navajo Nation Code as set forth in 12 Exhibit A and incorporated herein.

13
14 SECTION FOUR. CODIFICATION

15 The provisions of this Act that amend or adopt new sections of the Navajo Nation Code
16 shall be codified by the Office of Legislative Counsel. The Office of Legislative Counsel
17 shall incorporate such amended provisions into the next codification or supplement of the 18 Navajo Nation Code.

19
20 SECTION FIVE. SAVINGS CLAUSE

21 Should any provision of this Act be determined invalid by the Navajo Nation Supreme
22 Court or the District Courts of the Navajo Nation, without appeal to the Navajo Nation
23 Supreme Court, the remainder of the Act shall remain the law of the Navajo Nation.

24
25 SECTION SIX. EFFECTIVE DATE

26 This Act shall become effective in accordance with 2 N.N.C. § 221(B).

B. To give all persons entering into the territorial jurisdiction of the Navajo Nation Courts a fair warning of proscribed conduct and of the sentences authorized upon conviction;

C. To differentiate on reasonable grounds between serious and minor offenses and to prescribe proportionate penalties for each;

D. To protect the public interest of the Navajo Nation by defining the act or omission which constitutes each offense, and to apply the provisions of this title equally and impartially to all persons within the territorial jurisdiction of the Courts of the Navajo Nation.

§ 203. Territorial applicability

A. The Navajo Nation Courts shall have jurisdiction over any person who commits an offense by his or her own conduct if the conduct constituting any element of the offense or a result of such conduct occurs within the territorial jurisdiction of the Navajo Nation Courts as defined in 7 N.N.C. § 254, or such other dependent Indian communities as may hereafter be determined to be under the jurisdiction of the Navajo Nation and the Courts of the Navajo Nation. For purposes of determining jurisdiction for offenses involving electronic communications, an offense is committed within the Navajo Nation if an electronic communication device transmission either originates or is received in the Navajo Nation.

B. The Navajo Nation Courts shall also have jurisdiction over any member of the Navajo Nation who commits an offense against any other member of the Navajo Nation wherever the acts or conduct which constitutes the offense occurs. Under this circumstance, the

2. The value of the person's testimony or information to the investigation or prosecution;
3. The likelihood of prompt and full compliance with a compulsion order and the effectiveness of available sanctions if there is no such compliance;
4. The person's relative culpability in connection with the offense or offenses being investigated or prosecuted and their history with respect to criminal activity;

Upon submission of a federal detainer request, the inmate shall be given written notice of such request. Corrections personnel shall immediately inform the inmate of his or her right to legal counsel in English and Navajo. To Whom it May Concern,

As the Azeé Bee Nahaghá of Diné Nation (ABNDN) Vice President and Peyote Task Force Chairperson, I am writing in concerns to the proposed peyote language within Legislation 0240-22. Will the proposed new language impose burden to Navajo people who use peyote. Let's say a Navajo a person was pulled over for a minor traffic violation when traveling to a ceremony and they are in possession of azeé (peyote), and the officer asks for his/her membership and they inform the officer they do not have their membership card, can they be arrested or charged with a crime simply because they did not have their membership card on them? These are questions and concerns that has yet to be consulted among the azeé bee nahaghá leadership and members. In addition, the word "Native American Church" is being proposed within the legislation. This contradicts the reason why the peyote language was amended in Title 17 back in 2005 where Native American Church language was taken out of the Navajo Code.

Therefore, I respectfully request the added peyote language to not be included in Legislation 0240-22. However, the enforcement of the peyote law by the Navajo Nation is a serious concern and must be addressed. Any additional language or revisions to the peyote language within Title 17 of the Navajo Nation Code should be conducted with prior consent and consultation with traditional healer organizations, peyote leadership, and Navajo members who partake in the azeé bee nahaghá way of life.

In closing, I wholeheartedly support and appreciate the 24th Navajo Nation Council's continuous efforts to protect our Navajo way of life. Please feel free to contact me for any questions or additional information. Ahéhee. Thank you.

Respectfully,

Albur Johnson
