

RESOLUTION OF THE
RESOURCES AND DEVELOPMENT COMMITTEE OF THE
24th NAVAJO NATION COUNCIL - Fourth Year, 2022

AN ACT

RELATING TO THE RESOURCES AND DEVELOPMENT COMMITTEE; APPROVING AMENDMENTS TO THE PLANS OF OPERATION FOR THE NAVAJO PARKS AND RECREATION DEPARTMENT, THE NAVAJO NATION MUSEUM, AND THE NAVAJO NATION DIVISION OF NATURAL RESOURCES, TO PLACE THE MUSEUM UNDER THE PARKS AND RECREATION DEPARTMENT

BE IT ENACTED:

SECTION ONE. AUTHORITY

- A. The Resources and Development Committee ("RDC") is a standing committee of the Navajo Nation Council with oversight authority over the Navajo Nation Division of Natural Resources ("DNR"). 2 N.N.C. §500(A) and 2 N.N.C. §501(C)(1).
- B. RDC has final approval authority for the Plans of Operation for DNR and its subordinate departments. 2 N.N.C. §501(B)(2)(g).

SECTION TWO. FINDINGS

- A. The Navajo Parks and Recreation Department ("PRD"), the Navajo Nation Museum ("Museum"), and DNR, have all agreed that it is in the best interest of the Navajo Nation for the two departments under DNR, PRD and the Museum, to merge under PRD such that the Museum would no longer be a separate and distinct department under DNR. The Director of the Museum has prepared a memorandum, dated October 27, 2021, explaining the reasons and justification for the proposed merger. EXHIBIT A.
- B. The proposed new Plan of Operation for PRD amends PRD's current Plan of Operation to place the Museum completely under PRD. EXHIBIT B.
- C. PRD's new Plan of Operation would entirely rescind the Plan of Operation for the Museum and eliminate the Museum as a separate and distinct department under DNR. EXHIBIT C.
- D. The proposed amendment to the Plan of Operation for DNR, showing the deletion of the Museum as a separate and distinct department, is attached hereto as EXHIBIT D.

- E. An "Executive Official Review" of the proposed new Plan of Operation for PRD, which includes PRD's responsibility and authority over the Museum, was performed, and the Executive Director of DNR, the Office of Management and Budget, and the Department of Justice, all indicated that the proposed merger is "sufficient." EXHIBIT E.

SECTION THREE.

APPROVING AMENDMENTS TO THE PLANS OF OPERATION FOR THE PARKS AND RECREATION DEPARTMENT, THE MUSEUM, AND THE DIVISION OF NATURAL RESOURCES

- A. The Navajo Nation hereby approves the amended Plan of Operation for the Navajo Nation Parks and Recreation Department, to place responsibility and management of the Museum under PRD, as shown in EXHIBIT B.
- B. The Navajo Nation hereby approves the amended Plan of Operation for the Navajo Nation Museum, to eliminate the Museum as a department under DNR, as shown in EXHIBIT C.
- C. The Navajo Nation hereby approves the amended Plan of Operation for the Navajo Nation Division of Natural Resources, to eliminate the Museum as a department under DNR, as shown in EXHIBIT D.
- D. It is in the Navajo Nation's best interest to merge the Museum under the Navajo Parks and Recreation Department and place responsibility and management for the Museum upon PRD.

SECTION FOUR. EFFECTIVE DATE

This Act shall become effective pursuant to 2 N.N.C. §221(C) and 2 N.N.C. §501(B)(2)(g).

SECTION FIVE. SAVING CLAUSE

If any portion of this Act is determined invalid by the Navajo Nation Supreme Court, or by a District Court of the Navajo Nation without appeal to the Navajo Nation Supreme Court, the remainder of this Act shall be the law of the Navajo Nation.

CURRENTLY UNAVAILABLE FOR SIGNATURE (WILL RE-SUBMIT UPON AVAILABILITY)

Martin Begaye, Department Manager III
Navajo Parks and Recreation Department – Division of Natural Resources

SUBJECT: 164 REVIEW AND LEGISLATIVE EXPLANATION FOR THE MERGER OF (2) DEPARTMENTS INCLUDING THE PLANS OF OPERATION

After much consideration and discussion, a strategy to merge two separate Departments within the Navajo Nation Division of Natural Resources has been devised. The Navajo Parks and Recreation Department and the Navajo Nation Museum have determined that it is in their respective best interests to unite resources, pursuant to the terms provided in the revised and combined Plan of Operation (attached), which was recently assessed for legal sufficiency through a formal 164 Review.

To ensure the continued stability of the Museum and its service to the Diné people well into the future, it would be best to situate it under an organization that not only has the financial means, but also possess the operational force to sustain its many purposes.

In return, the Museum's capabilities of developing and implementing cultural education components through exhibit design and display will positively enhance visitor/tourism experiences at each Tribal Park and Visitor's Center. Additionally, with its formidable finance and technical administrative abilities, the Museum will contribute to the financial management strategies and procedures of both entities, now as one. This conversion will also include all Human Resources, Personnel, Recording Keeping and Property Management components as the intent is to streamline and refine the methods and practices of the combined Departments for better results overall.

Through the merger both entities hope to, among other things: focus their efforts to establish new jobs and to adjust or reinforce current programs to retain existing jobs, foster Diné culture, tradition and language with educational agendas, increase networking opportunities through new culturally relevant marketing and promotion programs, combine the collective power and energy of the professional staff from both sectors to give rise to creative thinking and new substantive events, and exert a more positive impact on their key priorities.

Indeed, there will be some challenges and obstacles, however; both parties are determined and committed to seeing this plan through for the ultimate benefit of all Diné citizens, and the Navajo Nation government.

Concluding Note: The Navajo Nation Museum was initially formed under the Navajo Parks and Recreation Department in 1961, so, essentially it will be returning back to its original home sixty (60) years later.
