AN ACT

RELATING TO THE LAW AND ORDER, RESOURCES AND DEVELOPMENT, AND NAABIK'ÍYÁTI' COMMITTEES AND THE NAVAJO NATION COUNCIL; AMENDING 2 N.N.C. §104 AND 11 N.N.C. §
8(B) TO PROHIBIT COUNCIL DELEGATES FROM SERVING AS BOARD
MEMBERS AND SHAREHOLDER REPRESENTATIVES FOR NAVAJO

BE IT ENACTED:

SECTION ONE. AUTHORITY

- A. The Law and Order Committee is a standing committee of the Navajo Nation Council with the delegated authority to review and make recommendations to the Navajo Nation Council on proposed amendments to and enactments to the Navajo Nation Code. 2 N.N.C. § 601 (B)(14).
- B. The Resources and Development Committee is a standing committee of the Navajo Nation Council with the delegated authority to periodically receive reports and review the operations of the Navajo Nation enterprises, authorities, and industries. 2 N.N.C. § 501 (B)(4)(e).

- 1 C. Pursuant to 2 N.N.C. § 164 (A)(9), "a proposed resolution that requires final
2 action by the Navajo Nation Council [must] be assigned to standing committee(s)
3 having authority over the subject matter at issue and the Naabik'íyátí Committee."
4 D. The Navajo Nation Council is the governing body of the Navajo Nation and is
5 responsible for the enactment and establishment of Navajo Nation law and policy.
6 2 N.N.C. § 102 (A) and 164 (A).

8 SECTION TWO. FINDINGS

- 9 A. The Navajo Ethics in Government Law, 2 N.N.C. 3741 et seq., includes a general
10 prohibition that "public officials and employees of the Navajo Nation avoid any
11 action, whether or not specifically prohibited by the Standards of Conduct [ERC-
12 08-001], which could result in, or create the appearance of . . . adversely affecting
13 the confidence of the people in the integrity of the government of the Navajo
14 Nation." 2 N.N.C. § 3745 (B)(6).
15 B. The Navajo Ethics in Government Law also includes specific prohibitions that 16 elected officials "shall not ... [h]ave direct or indirect financial or other economic 17 interests nor engage in such other employment or economic activity which ...
18 necessarily involve inherent substantial conflict, or appears to have such 19 substantial conflict, with their responsibilities and duties as public officials ... of 20 the Navajo Nation." 2 N.N.C. § 3747(A), Restrictions Against Incompatible
21 Interests or Employment.
22 B. Due to the potential for conflicts of interest, the Navajo Nation Code specifically
23 prohibits Council Delegates from serving as an elected official of the federal or 24 state government, from being an employee of the federal or state government,
25 from engaging in the private practice of law or from serving simultaneously as a
26 school board member while serving as a delegate. See 2 N.N.C. § 104.
27 C. The Regulations and Standards of Conduct for Elected Officials of the Navajo
28 Nation, ERC-O8-001, further clarify that "[m]ultiple duties arise to create 29 conflicts when elected officials hold other governmental or non-governmental
30 positions that impose duties upon the elected official in their other roles.

1 Members of Boards of Directors have duties to the entity whose board they serve
2 on. A Board Member who is also an elected official should refrain from actions
3 involving that entity while performing functions as an elected official. . . . An 4 elected official shall not participate or vote on any before any entity of which the
5 elected official is a member by virtue of or her status as an elected official. . . .”
6 ERC-O8-001, Section Four (B)(3) and (C).

7 D. Under statutory plans of operations, articles of incorporation, operating
8 agreements, corporate charters, and/or by-laws, Council Delegates may, by virtue
9 of serving as members of the Navajo Nation Council, be appointed to the Boards,
10 Commissions, or Management Committees governing specific Navajo Nation-
11 owned instrumentalities, i.e., enterprises, companies, corporations, authorities,
12 entities, etc. (hereinafter “instrumentalities”).

13 E. Under statutory plans of operations, articles of incorporation, operating 14 agreements, corporate charters, and/or by-laws, Council Delegates, by virtue of 15 serving as members of the Navajo Nation Council, may also be appointed as 16 Shareholder Representatives or Member Representatives to specific Navajo
17 Nation-owned instrumentalities.

18 F. The Ethics in Government Law expressly states that “[i]t is the intention of the 19 Navajo Nation Council that the provisions of this Navajo Nation Ethics in 20 Government Law be construed and applied in each instance, so as to accomplish
21 its purposes of protecting the Navajo People from government decisions and 22 actions resulting from, or affected by, undue influences or conflicts of interest.” 2
23 N.N.C. § 3742 (B).

24 G. The duties and responsibilities of Navajo Nation Council Delegates should be
25 limited to appropriations and establishing the laws and policies for the Navajo
26 Nation. Council Delegates should not serve on the governing boards,
27 management committees or commissions of any Navajo Nation-owned
28 instrumentality. Council Delegates should also not serve as Shareholder
29 Representatives or Member Representatives to any Navajo Nation-owned 30 instrumentality.

I support legislation 0052-23, prohibiting Council Delegates from being board members and/or shareholder representatives of NN-owned instrumentalities.

If not a complete prohibition, may be at least don't allow delegates to get additional compensation if they are board members or shareholder representatives. If an entity's By Laws or some other document says that council delegate(s) are to be board members or representatives, then such membership should be considered as "..other duties assigned.." for delegates. In the "normal" workplace, if an individual is required to do tasks that fall under "other duties assigned," they are not given extra pay. The same should be true for council delegates being board members or shareholder representatives.

Re: Comments of Navajo Nation Oil and Gas Company OPPOSING Legislation No. 0052-23

Dear Sir/Madam:

I am writing on behalf of Navajo Nation Oil and Gas Company ("NNOGC") and its Board of Directors to emphasize NNOGC's adamant opposition to Legislation No. 0052-23, titled "An Act Relating to the Law and Order, Resources and Development, and Naabik'iyati' Committees and the Navajo Nation Council; Amending 2 N.N.C. § 104 and 11 N.N.C. § 8(B) to Prohibit Council Delegates from Serving as Board Members and Shareholder Representatives for Navajo Nation-Owned Instrumentalities" (the "Legislation"). As discussed below, the Legislation is contrary to Navajo Nation and federal law and would have paralyzing effects on NNOGC if passed by the Navajo Nation Council and not vetoed by the President. The Legislation also makes no findings that there is any conflict of interest for a Council delegate in putting on a shareholder representative "hat" in representing the rights and interests of the Navajo Nation, NNOGC's sole shareholder. The Legislation should therefore be rejected in its entirety. However, in the event that the Council does not reject the Legislation outright, NNOGC and its shareholder representatives should be exempted entirely from the Legislation.

NNOGC is a wholly owned instrumentality of the Navajo Nation organized under Section 17 of the Indian Reorganization Act, 25 U.S.C. § 5124 (formerly 25 U.S.C. § 477). NNOGC's Federal Charter of Incorporation was first ratified by the Navajo Nation Council in 1998 pursuant to 25 U.S.C. § 477 after approval by the Secretary of the Interior's designee in December of 1997. See 25 U.S.C. § 5124 (formerly 25 U.S.C. § 477) ("The Secretary of the Interior may, upon petition by any tribe, issue a charter of incorporation to such tribe: Provided, That such charter shall not become operative until ratified by the governing body of such tribe."). NNOGC's Charter was later amended by the Navajo Nation Council pursuant to 25 U.S.C. § 477 by the Council's ratification of NNOGC's Restated Charter of Incorporation ("Restated Charter") on October 5, 2015 by Resolution No. CO-40-15, after approval of the amendments by the Secretary of Interior's Designee in August of 2014. In addition to being a creature of federal law, NNOGC's Charter is also "the law of the Navajo Nation due to Council ratification." Navajo Nation Oil and Gas Co.

v. Window Rock Dist. Ct., No. SC-CV-25-14, slip op. at 10 (Nav. Sup. Ct. June 20, 2014). A copy of the Restated Charter is enclosed.

Pursuant to NNOGC's Restated Charter, the Navajo Nation is the sole shareholder of NNOGC: "All shares in the Corporation shall be owned by the Navajo Nation for the benefit of the Nation and its enrolled members. No individual or legal entity other than the Navajo Nation shall acquire any shares in the Corporation." Restated Charter Art. V(B). The Restated Charter further provides that:

All rights of shareholder of the Corporation shall be exercised by the appointed shareholder representatives, composed of one member of each of the standing committees of the Navajo Nation Council or their successor committees, in accordance with this Charter and the applicable tribal law; provided that the Directors of the Corporation shall be elected as provided in Article XI of the Charter. Each standing committee shall select its own shareholder representative. At the meetings of the shareholder representatives, the shareholder representatives shall, in all instances subordinate their personal interest and political interest as members of the Navajo Nation Council to those of the company in acting in their capacity as the shareholder representatives of the sole shareholder and interest holder and owner, the Navajo Nation.

Restated Charter Art. V(D).

NNOGC's Restated Charter, which is Navajo Nation law, Navajo Nation Oil and Gas Co., supra, No. SC-CV-25-14, slip op. at 10, provides the sole mechanism for amending the foregoing requirement that the Navajo Nation exercise its rights as NNOGC's shareholder through shareholder representatives from the standing committees of the Navajo Nation Council:

The authority to petition for amendments to this Charter is vested in the Navajo Nation Council, and such amendments shall be presented for approval by the Secretary of the Interior and ratified by the Navajo Nation Council in accordance with 25 U.S.C. § 477, as amended, and in accordance with applicable tribal law.

Restated Charter Art. XIX(A). The Legislation, which would purport to amend NNOGC's Charter by amending 2 N.N.C. § 104 and 11 N.N.C. § 8(B), and not by following the strict process required under Article XIX of NNOGC's Restated Charter and 25 U.S.C. § 5124, is therefore contrary to Navajo Nation and federal law and would be invalid if approved by Council. See Restated Charter Art. XIX(A); 25 U.S.C. § 5124; Navajo Nation Oil and Gas Co., supra, No. SC-CV-25-14, slip op. at 10; Judy v. White, 8 Nav. R. 510 (Nav. Sup. Ct. 2004) (requirements for amending Navajo law strictly followed to be valid). The Legislation should be rejected for that reason alone.

However, in addition, under the Restated Charter, NNOGC's shareholder representatives carry out important functions for NNOGC and the Navajo Nation, including the critical function of confirming the nomination of directors to NNOGC's Board of Directors pursuant to Article XI(C) of the Restated Charter. Indeed, the terms of two directors on NNOGC's Board expired on March 31, 2023, and NNOGC's Nominations Committee has been actively recruiting, interviewing, and screening potential candidates for those positions as required by the Restated Charter. See id. Unless shareholder representatives are appointed by the standing committees of the Navajo Nation Council to perform the critical function of considering and confirming Board nominations, members of NNOGC's Board of Directors would hold over in perpetuity, and could never be replaced at all, a fact that the Legislation fails to ever address in its findings.

Moreover, the Legislation fails to make any findings that there is or could be any conflict of interest for a Council delegate to put on his or her shareholder representative "hat" in making decisions in the best interest of NNOGC and its sole shareholder, the Navajo Nation, because there simply is no economic, financial, or other significant interest for such delegates acting as shareholder representatives. See id. Art. V(D) ("At the meetings of the shareholder representatives, the shareholder representatives shall, in all instances subordinate their personal interest and political interest as members of the Navajo Nation Council to those of the company in acting in their capacity as the shareholder representatives of the sole shareholder and interest holder and owner, the Navajo Nation."); compare Legislation (quoting 2 N.N.C. § 3747(A), which states that elected officials "shall not ... [h]ave direct or indirect financial or other economic interests nor engage in such other employment or economic activity which . . . necessarily involve inherent substantial conflict, or appears to have such substantial conflict, with their responsibilities and duties as public officials . . . of the Navajo Nation."). The Legislation's failure to make any such findings or otherwise provide a legitimate explanation for severing the Navajo Nation Council's oversight functions over Navajo Nation instrumentalities should be fatal to the legislation. See Off. of Navajo Nation President & Vice-President v. Navajo Nation Council, 9 Nav. R. 325, 332 (Nav. Sup. Ct. 2010) ("It is the settled expectation of the People that government actions must be explained. Without specific findings, the purpose of any government action will be questioned.").

Finally, pursuant to NNOGC's Restated Charter, Council delegates already cannot serve on NNOGC's Board of Directors, and only the Board exercises direct governance over the Company, not shareholder representatives. See Restated Charter Art. XI(E)(2) ("No Director shall be: (a) a public official of the Navajo Nation as defined in 2 N.N.C. § 3743, as amended (including but not limited to Council delegates, Chapter officials, grazing committee members, commissioners, and members of land, farm, and school boards)"); id. Art. XI(A) ("The Board of Directors shall provide governance and oversight of the Corporation, Corporation, subject to the restrictions of this Charter and applicable law. The Navajo Nation shall have no authority to direct the business affairs of the Corporation, except through its status as the sole shareholder of the Corporation and as provided in this Charter."). The prohibition in the Legislation for Council delegates to serve on boards of instrumentalities is thus superfluous under Navajo law, at least as to NNOGC.<sup>1</sup>

<sup>1</sup>Even if shareholder representatives exercised board like functions, which they do not, the Council's standards of conduct only require recusal in the event of a conflict, and do not require a blanket prohibition from such dual roles as proposed by the Legislation. See Resolution of the Ethics and Rules Committee No. ERC-08-001 (Jan. 4, 2008) (amending the Regulations and Standards of Conduct for Elected Officials of the Navajo Nation).

For the foregoing reasons, Legislation No. 0052-23 should be rejected in its entirety as contrary to Navajo Nation and federal law, as contrary to good governance of NNOGC, and as not based in any competent findings that a conflict of interest exists for Council delegates by their putting on a NNOGC shareholder representative "hat." Nonetheless, in the event that the Legislation is still considered by the Council at all, NNOGC and its shareholder representatives should be exempted entirely from the Legislation.

Thank you for your consideration of NNOGC's comments.

Sincerely,

NAVAJO NATION OIL AND GAS COMPANY
