OF THE NAVAJO NATION CODE

BE IT ENACTED:

4

5 SECTION TWO. PURPOSE

6 The Navajo Nation Victim's Rights Act of 2023 ("2023 Act") is established to provide 7 awareness to victims of crimes of their rights and the protections and support available to 8 them. The rights and protections set forth in the 2023 Act extend beyond basic emergency
9 needs by providing victims safety and support through statutory requirements and awareness.
10 Through advocacy and awareness, victims are provided healing throughout the legal process
11 as they move towards restoring Ké.
12

13 SECTION THREE. FINDINGS

- 14 A. The most common criminal offenses reported on the Navajo Nation are violent assaults 15 involving weapons and/or serious bodily injury, including sexual assault and rape.
- 16 B. While the Navajo Nation's criminal statutes reference "victim" within the description
17 of offenses, the Navajo Nation Code does not include supporting victim's rights. The 18 2023 Act set forth herein adopt specific provisions directly supporting and expanding 19 victim's rights.
- 20 C. The 2023 Act's amendments, to the Navajo Nation's criminal statutes were developed
21 during the 24th Navajo Nation Council through Work Groups led by the Law and Order
22 Committee and the Chief Prosecutor. The amendments developed by former President
23 Russell Begay's Executive Branch Work Group during the 23rd Navajo Nation Council
24 were incorporated, fully or in part, into the 2023 Act. .
- 25 D. In addition, the Naa'bik'íyáti' Committee Sexual Assault and Prevention Workgroup
26 took a holistic approach by including concerns and suggestions from advocates,
27 officers, and the community in their recommendations to the 2023 Act's Victim's
28 Rights and Advocacy Services section.
29
30

1 G. The Navajo Nation Department of Justice reviewed the proposed amendments
2 developed during the 24th Navajo Nation Council that are included in the 2023 Act and 3 deemed them to be legally sufficient.

4 H. The 25th Navajo Nation Council determines that the Navajo Nation Victim's Rights
5 Act of 2023's amendments to Title 17 of the Navajo Nation Code are necessary and 6 vital to prioritize victim's rights and enhance protections for all crime victims and their
7 families as they await justice, as well as to ensure adequate deterrence and punishment
8 for violent acts that threaten Navajo families and Navajo communities. These 9 amendments also
