History

- The Navajo Nation is in the process of expanding Public Safety Facilities throughout the Nation. In about 2008, the Nation commissioned a District Judicial / Public Safety Facilities Master Plan that identified the need for Police Stations, Courts, Peacemaking, Detention and Corrections Facilities. That Master Plan identified a need for Large, Medium and Small District Judicial / Public Safety Centers throughout the Nation. A new Master Plan is currently underway.
- The Dilkon District is identified as a Medium District Judicial / Public Safety Center according to the Master Plan.
- In 2008, the Judicial Branch was able to secure funding for the Phase 1-Dilkon District Court Facility, which was designed, constructed and began operations in 2009. The 10-acre site dedicated for the Dilkon Judicial / Public Safety Center is the site of the District Court and was planned so that the Police Station and Corrections Facilities can become the envisioned Medium District Judicial / Public Safety Center.
