Re: Recommendation for permanent appointment as District Court Judge:
Probationary District Court Judge Malcolm Begay

Dear Mr. Yazzie:

I am required by 7 N.N.C. §355(C) to forward a recommendation for or against the permanent appointment of a sitting probationary judge upon completion of his or her two-year probationary period. The recommendation is premised two conditions: 1) whether the judge has successfully completed a course of training accredited for judges and, 2) whether the judge has received a satisfactory performance evaluation from me.

It is my privilege to forward this letter to your office and the Law & Order Committee that I am seeking Judge Malcolm Begay's permanent appointment as a District Court Judge of the Navajo Nation. He has satisfactorily completed a prescribed course of training for probationary judges, which included participation in an intensive course of study at the National Judicial College in Reno, Nevada. I also initiated and completed a probationary performance evaluation of Judge Begay and I found his performance to be more than satisfactory.

In accordance with the above, I am providing this letter informing the Committee that Judge Malcolm Begay has successfully completed all requirements of a sitting probationary judge and is now eligible for permanent appointment.

With respect,
