RE: LETTER OF INTEREST FOR NHA BOARD OF COMMISSIONERS

Dear Mr. President:

I am writing to express my interest to serve the Navajo Nation as a member of the Navajo Housing Authority Board of Commissioners. My resume is attached.

I am a full-blood member of the Navajo Nation and I have been a Professional Engineer for 13 years. My clans are Tábaqhá and Táchii'nii. My parents are originally from Sawmill, Arizona. I have three brothers and two sisters; I am the oldest. I graduated from Window Rock High School in Fort Defiance, Arizona in 1994, and I received a degree in Civil Engineering from Northern Arizona University in 2004.

Upon graduation, I have been working as an Engineer for Sefton Engineering Consultants in Sedona, Arizona. In my career I have worked on several HUD Indian housing development projects such as the Yavapai-Apache Nation Tunlii Housing Development, a tax credit housing program funded project as well as the Indian Health Service. I was part of the team that won the 2016 Brian Mickelsen Housing Hero Award along with Yavapai-Apache Nation Housing Department. I am very familiar with the requirements for Indian housing development. As a member of the Navajo Nation, I am familiar with the challenges in rural development across the Navajo reservation.

I am confident I will be a great asset to the Navajo Housing Authority as I am a Project Engineer and familiar with HUD Indian housing development. I have also served my community as a member of the Northland Christian Assembly Board and am a graduate of the Flagstaff (Arizona) Leadership Program.

If you have any questions, I can be reached on my cell phone at _____, or at my office
Thank you for this opportunity.

Sincerely,

Timothy Huskett
Timothy Huskett, P.E., CFM.
