RESOURCES AND DEVELOPMENT COMMITTEE
Of the 23rd Navajo Nation Council---First Year 2015

AN ACTION
RELATING TO RESOURCES AND DEVELOPMENT COMMITTEE; STRONGLY URGING THE NAVAJO HOUSING AUTHORITY TO ISSUE TENANT-BASED RENTAL ASSISTANCE VOUCHERS TO ELDERLY LIVING IN ELDER CARE FACILITIES ON THE NAVAJO NATION

BE IT ENACTED:

SECTION ONE. FINDINGS

A. The Resources and Development Committee ("RDC") is established as a standing committee of the Navajo Nation Council with oversight over housing for the purposes of establishing policies and legislation appropriate to the housing needs of the Navajo Nation and its People. 2 N.N.C. §§ 500(A); 500(C)(3); see also CJA-03-13.

B. On July 7, 2015, RDC approved the Fiscal Year 2016 Navajo Nation Housing Plan ("Indian Housing Plan") for the Native American Housing Assistance and Self-Determination Act of 1996 ("NAHASDA") Indian Housing Block Grant Funding. See RDCJY-39-15 attached as Exhibit A.

C. As part of the Indian Housing Plan, the Navajo Housing Authority ("NHA") describes the Tenant-Based Rental Assistance Program ("TBRA") as a voucher program available to low-income and eligible families. See RDCJY-39-15's Exhibit A at page fifteen (15).

D. According to the Indian Housing Plan, the TBRA voucher program will allow eligible applicants to apply for rental subsidies that are then paid directly to property owners on behalf of low-income tenants assisted by NHA based on the family's ability to pay a portion of the rent. See RDCJY-39-15's Exhibit A at page fifteen (15).

E. The vouchers will be available to eligible families living on or off the Navajo Nation who are in need of rental subsidies. See RDCJY-39-15's Exhibit A at page fifteen (15).

F. NHA defines eligible applicants for the TBRA voucher program in their Public Rental Admissions, Occupancy, Collection, Grievance and Termination Policies and their Mutual Help Homeownership Opportunity Admission and Occupancy, Collection and Termination Policy, and states that eligible applicants who qualify for preference under the below categories shall receive priority over other applicants: a) Applicants who are displaced; b) Applicants who are living in substandard housing; and c) Applicants who are claiming local preferences. See Public Rental Admissions, Occupancy, Collection, Grievance and Termination Policies Section III attached as Exhibit B.

G. Applicants who claim local preference may claim preference for elderly family and receive twenty (20) points. See NHA Preference Rating System and Public Rental Admissions, Occupancy, Collection, Grievance and Termination Policies Section XI attached as Exhibit C.

H. In order for these TBRA vouchers to be accessible to seniors, such as the seniors who will be moving into the newly developed K'ai'bii'To' Elder Senior Housing Project, the Navajo Nation strongly urges NHA to issue rental vouchers to the elder applicants eligible under NHA's policies. See Resolution of Tuba City Regional Health Care Corporation attached as Exhibit D; see also Exhibit A at the attached Public Comments from Tuba City Regional Health Care Corporation.

I. It is imperative that vouchers are issued to elderly applicants, such as those applying to live in the K'ai'bii'To' Elder Senior Housing Project, and other elder care facilities like it that are currently developed or developed in the future, to ensure that the housing is affordable for seniors and that the vacant units will be immediately occupied by seniors who otherwise would not be able to afford the rent.

SECTION TWO. STRONGLY URGING THE NAVAJO HOUSING AUTHORITY TO ISSUE TENANT-BASED RENTAL ASSISTANCE VOUCHERS TO ELDERLY LIVING IN ELDER CARE FACILITIES ON THE NAVAJO NATION

The Navajo Nation hereby strongly urges the Navajo Housing Authority to issue tenant-based rental assistance vouchers to the elderly applicants living in elder care facilities on the Navajo Nation, such as the elderly applicants attempting to live in the K'ai'bii'To' Elder Senior Housing Project.

SECTION THREE. DIRECTIVES AND RECOMMENDATIONS TO NAVAJO HOUSING AUTHORITY

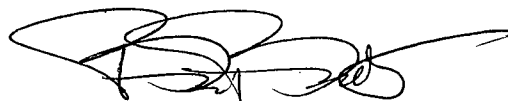

A. The Navajo Nation hereby directs the Navajo Housing Authority to attempt to serve as many elderly applicants as possible given internal and external guidelines with respect to the tenant-based rental assistance program and attempt to make that program as accessible as possible to seniors.

B. The Navajo Nation hereby recommends that the Navajo Housing Authority develop a new Preference Rating System specifically for the Tenant-Based Rental Assistance voucher program, giving additional preference points to elderly applicants, and/or an Elder Housing Program.

C. To further enhance the availability for adequate housing for our elderly Navajo people and others, the Navajo Nation hereby directs the Navajo Housing Authority to develop a plan of action to establish "Project Based Rental Assistance" (PBRA) for the K'ai'bii'To' Elder Senior Housing Project and other interested stakeholders.

CERTIFICATION

I, hereby, certify that the foregoing resolution was duly considered by the Resources and Development Committee of the 23rd Navajo Nation Council at a duly called meeting at Navajo Nation Council Chambers, Window Rock, (Navajo Nation) Arizona, at which quorum was present and that same was passed by a vote 4 in favor, 0 opposed, 0 abstained this 23rd day of November, 2015.

For Recipient's Use: FY-2016 INDIAN HOUSING PLAN

INDIAN HOUSING PLAN/ANNUAL PERFORMANCE REPORT

(NAHASDA §§ 102(b)(1)(A) and 404(a)(2))

This form meets the requirements for an Indian Housing Plan (IHP) and Annual Performance Report (APR) required by the United States Department of Housing and Urban Development. In addition to these requirements, a tribe or tribally designated housing entity (TDHE) may elect to prepare a more comprehensive IHP. If a tribe or TDHE elects to prepare a more comprehensive IHP, the required elements of this IHP must still be submitted on the prescribed HUD form. The information requested does not lend itself to confidentiality. HUD may not collect this information, and you are not required to complete this form, unless it displays a currently valid Office of Management and Budget (OMB) control number.

Regulatory and statutory citations are provided throughout this form as applicable. Recipients are encouraged to review these citations when completing the IHP and APR sections of the form.

Under the Native American Housing Assistance and Self-Determination Act of 1996 (NAHASDA) (25 U.S.C. 4101 et seq.), HUD will provide grants, loan guarantees, and technical assistance to Indian tribes and Alaska Native villages for the development and operation of low-income housing in Indian areas. Grants will be made to eligible recipients under the Indian Housing Block Grant (IHBG) program. To be eligible for the grants, recipients must submit an IHP that meets the requirements of the Act.

The recipient is required to submit the IHP to HUD at least 75 days prior to the start of its 12-month program year (NAHASDA § 102(a)(1)). The APR is due no later than 90 days after the end of the recipient's program year (24 CFR § 1000.514).

The IHP and the APR (previously two separate forms) are now combined into one form. The sections pertaining to the IHP are submitted before the beginning of the 12-month program year, leaving the APR (shaded) sections blank. If the IHP has been updated or amended, use the most recent version when preparing the APR. After the 12-month program year, enter the results from the 12-month program year in the shaded sections of the form to complete the APR. More details on how to complete the IHP and APR sections of the form can be found in the body of this form. In addition, a separate IHP and APR report form guidance is available.

NOTE: Grants awarded under the American Recovery and Reinvestment Act (Recovery Act) are excluded from this process. Grants under the Recovery Act continue to use the stand alone APR (HUD-52735-AS).

FORM COMPLETION OPTIONS: The IHP/APR form may be completed either in hard copy or electronically. Hard copy versions may be completed either by hand or typewriter. Alternatively, the form may be completed electronically as it is a Word document. It is recommended that the form be completed electronically because it is more efficient to complete, submit, and review the form. Furthermore, electronic versions of the form may be submitted to HUD as an email attachment. To document official signatures on the electronic version, you should sign a hard copy of the pages and either fax that signed page or email it as an attachment to your Area Office of Native American Programs. The sections of the IHP that require an official signature are Sections 1 and 8, and Sections 15 and 16, if applicable. For the APR, Section 1 requires an official signature.

(3) Planned Program Benefits. (Describe below how your planned programs and activities will address the needs of low income families identified above. Also describe how your planned programs will address the various types of housing assistance needs. NAHASDA § 102(b)(2)(B)):

The Fiscal Year 2016 Indian Housing Plan will continue to focus on the maintenance, improvement and repair of the current assisted housing stock maintained by the Navajo Housing Authority (NHA), the primary planning effort of which was initiated in FY 2011 with the final plans completed in FY2012. A number of the planned projects have been completed in FY2014 and FY2015 with new projects initiated in FY2015 and will be carried over into FY2016 to complete. In addition, new projects are expected to be initiated in FY2016 and some will carry over into FY2017. The maintenance and improvement work plan will continue to be carried out by the Housing Maintenance Departments. The benefits of completing the maintenance plan are correction of structural defects and inadequate workmanship bringing all substandard housing units up to standards, get current on backlog of housing repair work orders, resolution of tenant concerns and achieve a higher rate of occupancy to house additional low income families on the wait list. In addition, NHA will continue to retrofit a number of housing units to meet Section 504 requirements in accordance with the Voluntary Compliance Agreement entered into with the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) Office of Fair Housing and Equal Opportunity to provide housing which are accessible for families/persons with disabilities. The NHA will continue to provide affordable housing opportunities for eligible families for conventional housing of moderate design on available NHA subdivision lots and scattered sites on Tribal Trust Land throughout the Navajo Nation. This will require coordination with multiple agencies, other service providers and impacted communities. The NHA will assist sub-recipients which currently serve or will serve clients who are elderly in need of assisted living, which will help preserve the quality of life of aging Navajo elders. Other benefits include serving the general public with various affordable housing activities and services including referrals for homebuyer education, credit counseling, crime prevention programs, after-school programs, tenant subsidies, college student housing and coordination with other public service programs. Other affordable housing initiatives undertaken in FY2014 and FY2015 will continue into FY2016 including master planning in various communities; leveraged funding of multi-family housing; utility and infrastructure assessments and funding of projects; and other housing related services and activities.

NHA will continue flood plain mapping and mitigation plans which will significantly assist in identification of suitable land for development of affordable housing for the Navajo Nation. It is NHA's intention to provide professional support for floodplain delineations throughout the five (5) housing management districts and to provide technical assistance/support to master community planning efforts. NHA will continue to gather data, develop and implement a modern land and geographic information management system (LIMS). LIMS will be used by NHA in its master planning efforts including a utility system overlay function. Use of this system will streamline the site feasibility determination and shorten the planning process for new housing developments and will allow NHA to quickly and easily determine the most cost effective location to build new units based on the proximity of required infrastructure.

NHA will work closely and directly with communities in their pre-development activities for new housing build out in accordance with their Community Master Plans and further provide technical assistance in the development of viable financing plans using multiple funding sources. NHA will purchase fee simple lands to develop multi-funded mixed income, mixed use land within and adjacent to the Navajo Nation reservation boundaries to help meet the high housing demands. Unless otherwise indicated, funds expended for the benefit of non-low-income families will come from other leveraged resources, and not solely the IHBG. Some of the future activities that are under consideration as a result of the Sustainable Community Action Plans include: 1.) Additional rental and homebuyer units in the Canyon Side Multi-Family Housing Complex Development Project and the SkyTrail Multi-Family Housing Complex Project; 2.) A nursing home for elders; and 3.) Housing for college students that are attending school in close proximity to or on the Navajo Nation. It is anticipated that a development plan will be created for each Navajo Nation regional agency incorporating housing and infrastructure needs by community with associated cost estimates.

- (4) Geographic Distribution. (Describe below how the assistance will be distributed throughout the geographic area and how this geographic distribution is consistent with the needs of low income families. NAHASDA § 102(b)(2)(B)(i)): The NHA has housing maintenance programs at each of its 15 Housing Management Offices which covers all land areas of the Navajo Nation's five designated Agencies across Navajo Tribal Trust lands. The NHA Development and Construction Services Division (DCSD) is segmented into the five regional areas. Each respective maintenance and construction department formulated maintenance and development plans covering the designated regional areas. All housing maintenance and regional program plans are covered in this IHP so assistance is fairly distributed throughout all areas of the NHA service area including the satellite communities and border towns with high population of Navajo residents. Further, housing services and management services will be conducted primarily by the NHA Housing Management Division (HMD) through designated personnel at each of fifteen (15) Housing Management Offices located throughout the service area to serve low income families. The services to be provided include but are not limited to eligibility and admissions, intake, counselling, housing services activities, referrals to other housing or social service programs, re-certifications, rent collections, tenant and community relations, enforcement of housing policies, and capacity building of tenants and existing homebuyers. In addition, the NHA procured the services of professional planners in 2012 and provided NHA with planning models, and currently the DCSD is assisting Navajo Nation Chapters in the development of sustainable community master plans using these model planning. The plans have given guidance to NHA in initiating pre-development activities for five communities (or one community in each regional area) which have land withdrawn for clustered housing or individual home sites determined feasible for development in FY2015; these activities will continue in FY2016. It is expected that additional communities will be slated for pre-development activities in FY2016.

IHP: PLANNED PROGRAM YEAR ACTIVITIES (NAHASDA § 102(b)(2)(A))

For each planned activity, complete all the non-shaded sections below. It is recommended that for each program name you assign a unique identifier to help distinguish individual programs. This unique number can be any number of your choosing, but it should be simple and clear so that you and HUD can track tasks and results under the program and collect appropriate file documentation tied to this program.

- One way to number your programs is chronologically. For example, you could number your programs 2011-1, 2011-2, 2011-3 etc.
- Or, you may wish to number the programs based on type. For example rental 1, rental 2, homebuyer 1, homebuyer 2 etc. This type of numbering system might be appropriate if you have many programs that last over several years.
- Finally, you may wish to use an outline style of numbering. For example, all programs under your first eligible activity would start with the number 1 and then be consecutively numbered as 1.1, 1.2, 1.3 etc. The programs under the second eligible activity would be numbered as 2.1, 2.2., 2.3 etc.

APR: REPORTING ON PROGRAM YEAR PROGRESS (NAHASDA § 404(b))

Complete the shaded section of text below to describe your completed program tasks and actual results. Only report on activities completed during the 12-month program year. Financial data should be presented using the same basis of accounting as the Schedule of Expenditures of Federal Awards (SEFA) in the annual OMB Circular A-133 audit. For unit accomplishments, only count units when the unit was completed and occupied during the year. For households, only count the household if it received the assistance during the previous 12-month program year.

The useful life of the proposed units for new construction under the FY2016 NAHASDA grant is 20 years. The useful life of the proposed units for rehabilitation activities under the NAHASDA FY2016 grant will be established on a graduated scale based on the estimated dollar value or Total Development Costs; however, this will be no more than 20 years. During this time period the units constructed will be made available to eligible families and the cost for construction, rehabilitation and model activities will remain affordable. Upon completion of a detailed cost analysis of Total Development Cost, the useful life provisions may be further amended.

The Tribal and Indian Preferences can be located in the NHA's Public Rental Admissions, Occupancy, Collection, Grievance and Termination Policies, Section D (2)(3) and Section (E)(1)(2) of the Mutual Help Homeownership Opportunity Admission and Occupancy, Collection and Termination Policy, which provides: "Preference Rating. Eligible applicants who qualify for preference under the below categories shall receive priority over other applicants: a) Applicants who are displaced; b) Applicants who are living in substandard housing; and c) Applicants who are claiming local preferences. 6-29-15 TCRHCC Supports NN LEG. 0213-15 Request for rent subsidy for elders.pdf;

Dear Tribal Leaders,

I am writing in support of Legislation 0213-15, and I thank the Navajo Housing Authority (NHA) for their very hard work, and addressing the multitude of need in our communities. It is critical that the Navajo Nation address Elder Housing as a priority.

As an Administrator over a large Health System, we see many elders that need basic assistance. Our Navajo elders would do much better if they lived in a residence with utilities. As we all know, the Navajo way of life is more difficult the older we become; our children and grandchildren end up working off the Navajo Nation and are not always able to check on elder family members. Until our Nation becomes economically stable, we will not see our younger generations able to acquire jobs and/or housing and be present as much as is needed for our elder members.

A sustainable Elder Housing Program needs to be developed. By 2030, the number of elders over 65 years old will double on the Navajo Nation. Another statistics is 70% of adults over 65 years have a disability. All of the very-low income housing serving off-reservation Arizona elders were built by various development teams using HUD funds and all of the construction funding were awarded in tandem with long-term operating support (approximately 75-90% from HUD and 10-25% from the residents). This same program can be developed on Navajo.

We, respectfully request our Navajo Nation Leaders to support and develop a rent subsidy program for the Navajo Nation, and urge NHA Leaders to modify the FY16 IHP to make this a long sustaining program. Rent subsidies are critical to successful Elder housing across the Navajo Nation.

Kind Regards,

INTRODUCTION

The purpose of this report is to present information on how the age structure of the overall population and the composition of the older population in terms of age, sex, race, and Hispanic origin are expected to change over the next four decades.

Between 2010 and 2050, the United States is projected to experience rapid growth in its older population.¹ In 2050, the number of Americans aged 65 and older is projected to be 88.5 million, more than double its projected population of 40.2 million in 2010. The baby boomers are largely responsible for this increase in the older population, as they will begin crossing into this category in 2011.

The aging of the population will have wide-ranging implications for the country. As the United States ages over the next several decades, its older population will become more racially and ethnically diverse. Projecting the size and structure, in terms of age, sex, race, and Hispanic origin, of the older population is important to public and private interests, both socially and economically. The projected growth of the older population in the United States will present challenges to policy makers and programs, such as Social Security and Medicare. It will also affect families, businesses, and health care providers.

2008 NATIONAL POPULATION PROJECTIONS

Released in August of 2008, the national population projections are of the resident population, as well as demographic components of change (births, deaths, and net international migration), by age, sex, race, and Hispanic origin. The projections are based on Census 2000 and were produced using a cohort-component method. The components of change were projected into the future based on past trends. The projections cover the period 2000–2050.

Between 2010 and 2050, the U.S. population is projected to grow from 310 million to 439 million, an increase of 42 percent. The nation will also become more racially and ethnically diverse, with the aggregate minority population projected to become the majority in 2042.* The population is also expected to become much older, with nearly one in five U.S. residents aged 65 and older in 2030.

The 2008 National Population Projections, including summary tables, downloadable files, methodology and assumptions, and the press release, can be found at www.census.gov/population/www/projections/2008projections.html.

¹In this report, the "older population" refers to those aged 65 and older.

²This report discusses data for the United States, including the 50 states and the District of Columbia. It does not include data for Puerto Rico.

³The baby boomer generation consists of people born between 1946 and 1964.

* In this report, the minority population is considered to be everyone other than the non-Hispanic White alone population.

CHANGING AGE STRUCTURE

The age structure of the overall population is projected to change greatly over the next four decades (Figure 1). Much of this change is driven by the aging baby boomers and trends in immigration.

Figure 1 illustrates the importance of the baby boom generation in shaping the overall population. In 2010, the baby boom generation will be 46 to 64 years old.⁴ The echo of the baby boom is also evident in the 2010 population pyramid for the age groups near 20.⁵ By 2030, all of the baby boomers will have moved into the ranks of the older population. This will result in a shift in the age structure, from 13 percent of the population aged 65 and older in 2010 to 19 percent in 2030.

In 2010, 60 percent of the U.S. population will be aged 20–64. By 2030, as the baby boomers age, the proportion in these working ages will drop to 55 percent.

Immigration is expected to play an important role in how the age structure of the United States changes over the next four decades. The aging of the baby boom increases the proportion in the older age groups, but projected immigration tends to mitigate the impact. In other words, the country's aging is slowed somewhat by immigration of younger people.

In 2050, every age group is projected to be larger than it was in 2010. This is not the case between 2010 and 2030 or between 2030 and 2050. For instance, the number of men aged 50–56 and the number of women aged 46–56 in 2030 are projected to be smaller than those in the same age groups in 2010 (Figure 1). This is because large cohorts of baby boomers will be in these age groups in 2010 and by 2030, younger and smaller cohorts will have replaced them. Similarly, the number of women aged 72–75 is projected to be smaller in 2050 than it was in 2030 as the smaller than average birth cohort born in the late 1970s moves into these age groups.

⁴ The data shown in Figure 1 represent a July 1 population, and because the baby boom began roughly in July 1946, the start of the baby boom is seen for age 63 rather than age 64, as would be suggested by the difference in the years 1946–2010 (Hogan, Perez, and Bell, 2008, Who (Really) Are the First Baby Boomers?, in JSM Proceedings, Social Statistics Section, Alexandria, VA: American Statistical Association, pp. 1009–1016).

The number of people in the oldest-old age group is projected to grow from 5.8 million in 2010 to 8.7 million in 2030.⁶ In 2050, this group is projected to reach 19 million. Even as they approach the oldest old, the baby boomers will continue to have an impact on the age structure of the U.S. population. In 2050, those aged 85 and over are projected to account for 4.3 percent of the U.S. population, up from 2.3 percent in 2030.

Another way to examine the changing age structure of the population is to look at dependency ratios. Dependency ratios are an indicator of the potential burden on those in the working-age population. The total dependency ratio is projected to increase from 67 to 85 between 2010 and 2050, the result of a large increase in the old-age dependency ratio (Figure 2). The old-age dependency ratio sees a rapid increase between 2010 and 2030, from 22 to 35, as all of the baby boomers move into the 65 years and over category.

⁶ In this report, the term "oldest old" refers to those aged 85 and older.

2010 to 2050

After 2030, the old-age dependency ratio continues to increase slightly to 37 by 2050. The youth dependency ratio increases minimally between 2010 and 2030, from 45 to 48, and remains stable until 2050.

CHANGING AGE STRUCTURE WITHIN THE OLDER POPULATION

The age composition within the older ages is projected to change between 2010 and 2050. As the baby boomers move into the older age groups, beginning in 2011, the proportion aged 65–74 is projected to increase (Figure 3). The majority of the country's older population is projected to be relatively young, aged 65–74, until around 2034, when all of the baby boomers will be over 70. As the baby boomers move into the oldest-old age category, the age composition of the older population shifts upward. In 2010, slightly more than 14 percent of the older population will be 85 and older. By 2050, that proportion is expected to increase to more than 21 percent.

The aging of the older population is noteworthy, as those in the oldest ages often require additional care giving and support (see Table A-1 for more detailed data on the age distribution).

RACE AND HISPANIC ORIGIN⁷

While the older population is not as racially and ethnically diverse as the younger population, it is projected to substantially increase its racial and ethnic diversity over the next four decades. Additionally, while all of the race and ethnic groups will become older, the degree of aging that is projected to occur within each group varies greatly.

In terms of race, the share of the population that is White alone is projected to decrease by about 10 percentage points among those 65 years and over and by about 9 percentage points among those 85 years and over between 2010 and 2050. Meanwhile, all other race groups are projected to see an increase in their shares of these populations. The 85 years and over population is less racially diverse than the 65 years and older population, but it is projected to see a similar increase in diversity between 2010 and 2050.

Although the older population is not expected to become majority-minority in the next four decades, it is projected to be 42 percent minority in 2050, up from 20 percent in 2010. Among the 85 years and over population, 33 percent are projected to be minority in 2050, up from 15 percent in 2010.

Among those aged 65 and over in 2050, 77 percent are projected to be White alone, down from 87 percent in 2010. Within the same age group, 12 percent are projected to be Black alone and 9 percent are projected to be Asian alone in 2050, up from 9 percent and 3 percent, respectively, in 2010 (Figure 4).

The smallest race groups are projected to see large growth relative to their populations. Among the population aged 65 and older in 2050, the American Indian and Alaska Native alone population is projected to be 918,000, up from 235,000 in 2010, and the Native Hawaiian and Other Pacific Islander alone population is projected to be 219,000, up from 39,000 in 2010. The Two or More Races population is also projected to see relatively large growth among people in this age group, increasing from 278,000 in 2010 to 1.3 million in 2050.

Among those aged 85 and over in 2050, 81 percent are projected to be White alone, down from 90 percent in 2010. Within the same age group, 10 percent are projected to be Black alone and 6 percent are projected to be Asian alone in 2050, up from 7 percent and 2 percent, respectively, in 2010 (Table 1).

As with the 65 years and older group, the smallest race groups are projected to see large relative increases in the 85 years and older age group. Among those 85 years and older in 2050, the American Indian and Alaska Native alone population is projected to reach 180,000, up from 20,000 in 2010, and the Native Hawaiian and Other Pacific Islander alone population is projected to be 35,000, up from 3,000 in 2010. The Two or More Races oldest-old population is also projected to see a relatively large increase, from 29,000 in 2010 to 208,000 in 2050.

The proportion of the older population that is Hispanic is projected to increase quickly over the next four decades. In 2050, 20 percent of the population aged 65 and over is projected to be Hispanic, up from 7 percent in 2010 (Figure 5). The proportion of the oldest-old population that is Hispanic is also projected to increase by about 10 percentage points between 2010 and 2050.

In 2050, the non-Hispanic population aged 65 and older is projected to reach 71 million, up from 37.4 million in 2010, almost doubling. In comparison, the Hispanic population aged 65 years and older is projected to grow from 2.9 million to 17.5 million, a more than sixfold increase.

The 85 years and over population is projected to be 15 percent Hispanic in 2050, up from 5 percent in 2010 (Figure 5). The non-Hispanic population aged 85 and older is projected to nearly triple, from 5.5 million in 2010 to 16.2 million in 2050. In contrast, during this time period, the Hispanic population in this age group is projected to increase more than ninefold, from 305,000 to 2.9 million (see Table A-2 for more detailed data on race and Hispanic origin).

Although each race and ethnic group is projected to increase in the proportion aged 65 and over between 2010 and 2050, the percent 65 and over varies by race and Hispanic origin. Some groups will see increases of nearly 13 percentage points, while others will see increases of less than 3 percentage points.

The non-Hispanic White alone population is the oldest with 16 percent of its population aged 65 and over in 2010. By 2030, nearly one quarter of non-Hispanic Whites are projected to be aged 65 and over (Figure 6). At the opposite end of the spectrum, the Two or More Races population will continue to be the youngest population, with only a slight increase in the percentage of its population aged 65 and older, from 5.1 percent in 2010 to 7.8 percent in 2050. While the percent aged 65 and over will more than double for the Hispanic population between 2010 and 2050, it will continue to be a relatively young population with 13 percent aged 65 and older in 2050. This is comparable to the percent aged 65 and over for the total population in 2010. Two groups that see large increases in the proportion older in their populations are the Asian alone and the Native Hawaiian and Other Pacific Islander alone groups. By 2050, 22 percent of the Asian alone population is projected to be aged 65 and over making it the second oldest category. The Native Hawaiian and Other Pacific Islander alone population is expected to jump from 6.5 percent aged 65 and over in 2010 to 18 percent in 2050.

SEX RATIOS

Female life expectancy has long exceeded male life expectancy, resulting in women outnumbering men in the older age groups. While that trend is projected to continue over the next four decades, the gap between the number of women and men is expected to narrow. This narrowing is due to the more rapid increase in life expectancy for men that is projected over the next several decades. Among those 65 years and over in 2050, 55 percent are projected to be female, down from 57 percent in 2010 (Figure 7). This decline in the female share, or increase in male share, of the population is even more dramatic among the oldest old. Among those 85 years and over, 61 percent are

Percent Female for the Older Population by Age for the United States: 2010, 2030, and 2050

projected to be female in 2050, down 6 percentage points from 67 in 2010 (see Table A-3 for more detailed data on the sex distribution). The changing sex ratios at the older ages may have implications on the social and economic well-being of the older population. One implication would be on marital status and living arrangements of the older population. The changing sex ratios could also have an impact on the types of care that are available to the older population.

CONCLUSION

The population in the United States is projected to grow older over the next several decades. Much of this aging is due to the baby boom generation moving into the ranks of the 65 and older population. As the U.S. population grows older, the racial and ethnic composition of the older population is also expected to change. We expect to see an increase in the proportion of the older population that is Hispanic and an increase in the proportion that is a race other than White. As we near 2050, we expect that the oldest age categories will grow in terms of numbers and proportions. This changing age structure of the population will have an impact on both families and society.

DATA SOURCE AND METHODOLOGY

This report uses projections of the total U.S. population as of July 1 for the years 2000–2050. The universe is the resident population of the United States (50 states and the District of Columbia). The projections are based on Census 2000 and were produced using a cohort-component method, which uses the components of population change (births, deaths, and net international migration) to project forward. The assumptions for the components of change are based on time series analysis. Historical mortality trends were calculated using the National Center for Health Statistics' data on deaths and the U.S. Census Bureau's population estimates for 1984–2003. Fertility trends were calculated using the National Center for Health Statistics' births data and Census Bureau estimates of the female population. The time series included data from 1980 to 2003. Trends in net international migration were primarily based on data from the Immigration and Naturalization Service and the Department of Homeland Security on persons obtaining legal permanent residence, as well as Census Bureau population estimates for 1972–2002.

The methodology used to produce the projections used in this report is available at <www.census.gov/population/www/projections/methodstatement.html#_ftn1>.

All derived values were computed using unrounded data. In the text, figures, and tables, most whole numbers were rounded to the nearest thousand or million and most decimal numbers were rounded to the nearest tenth or whole number.

DATA ACCURACY

These projections are based on Census 2000 and may, therefore, contain nonsampling error due to potential enumeration errors such as differential undercoverage or overcoverage by demographic characteristics. Technical documentation for Census 2000 is available at <www.census.gov/prod/cen2000/doc/sf1.pdf>. Nonsampling error also exists as the assumptions for the components of change were based on time series analysis. Future changes in policy or other factors that might influence levels of the population components and their directions cannot be predicted. Thus if actual trends or levels in fertility, mortality, or international migration differ radically from the assumed trends and levels, the projected population will be less accurate.

PUBLIC RENTAL ADMISSIONS, OCCUPANCY, COLLECTION, GRIEVANCE AND TERMINATION POLICIES

SECTION III. APPLICATION PROCEDURES

- A. APPLICATION PROCEDURE. A family wishing to apply for the Public Rental Program must submit a written application form available at all NHA Housing Management Offices. The application shall contain all information necessary for the NHA to determine whether the family meets the eligibility requirements for admission. Verification of employment and all sources of income, (including appropriate documentation to substantiate the determination of total family income), family composition, and present housing conditions is required. Verification documents (e.g., birth certificates, social security cards, tax returns, marriage license, marriage/family profile, and verification of residence and non-assistance from other housing providers) are essential to substantiate the application and shall be made part of the record of each application along with all other documents relating to eligibility.

1. The filing of an application for a Public Rental unit by a family that is an applicant for a Mutual Help Homeownership or Section 8 housing operated by the NHA, shall not in any way affect the families status with regard to the Mutual Help Homeownership or Section 8 program. Such applicant shall not lose his/her place on a Mutual Help Homeownership or Section 8 housing waiting list until the applicant has been selected for a Public Rental unit and a Public Rental Dwelling Lease has been signed.
2. The application must be signed and dated by the applicant(s) with the date and time stamped and initialed by NHA staff when received.

B. VERIFICATION OF INFORMATION

1. Verification. All statements and information provided by the applicant/tenant in the application are subject to verification by the NHA during admission and recertification.
 - a. Applicants must provide proof of their statements when requested to do so by the NHA.
 - b. As a condition of admission or continued occupancy, the NHA shall require applicants/tenants and family members listed as household members 18 years of age or older to sign the Authorization for the Release of Information Form. The form will be used by the NHA to verify the applicant's information by any depository, private source of income, or federal, state, or local agency, to determine eligibility and monthly rental payments.

PUBLIC RENTAL ADMISSIONS, OCCUPANCY, COLLECTION, GRIEVANCE AND TERMINATION POLICIES

- c. Certification of the Public Rental application by the applicants is sufficient to allow the NHA to verify family composition, preference eligibility and housing need.
- d. The NHA shall require third party written verification from an employer or public agency, in the review of documentation provided by the family, such as benefits, and employment or other income.
- e. Any deductions to adjusted income claimed by a family must be supported by proper proof such as receipts and affidavits.
- f. The NHA shall require all documents prior to placing families on the waiting list.

2. Verification of the tenant's income shall be pursuant to the following:

- a. The NHA's Income Information form signed by the applicant authorizing the employer to release the tenant's income information;
- b. The NHA's Public Assistance grant information form signed by the applicant authorizing the Agency to release all his/her income information;
- c. A copy of the most current Income Tax Return for self-employed persons and all persons whose earnings are irregular;
- d. A personal statement from applicant giving information on all income.

C. CERTIFICATION OF APPLICATIONS. Completed applications shall be certified by the NHA.

D. PREFERENCE. Preference in the selection of Tenants for new or existing rental units shall be made in the following order:

1. Transfer of Tenants. The recertification of a tenant provides an opportunity to review any changes in family size that may require a transfer to a larger or smaller dwelling unit. Families requiring transfer to meet the Occupancy Standards in Section IV will receive priority of available units over new applicants.

2. Preference Rating. Eligible applicants who qualify for preference under the below categories (see Preference Rating form *) shall receive priority over other applicants.

- a. Applicants who are displaced
- b. Applicants who are living in substandard housing.

PUBLIC RENTAL ADMISSIONS, OCCUPANCY, COLLECTION, GRIEVANCE AND TERMINATION POLICIES

- c. Applicants claiming local preferences.

Applicants will be rated in accordance with the Preference Rating system.

- 3. Applicants claiming preference shall be required to submit supporting from all sources. The preference status must be re-verified prior to selection for occupancy or when a Public Rental unit becomes vacant and available to confirm the applicant's qualification for the priority at the time of selection or availability of a Public Rental unit.
- 4. Meeting a Preference does not guarantee admission, but rather identifies priority groups for first consideration.

E. ELIGIBLE APPLICANTS. Each applicant shall be notified of his/her eligibility status.

- 1. Each applicant shall be personally interviewed and given written notice of their eligibility within fifteen (15) days of the determination. The notice shall include the following information.
 - a. A statement that the family has been determined eligible for the Public Rental Program.
 - b. If a unit is available for the family:
 - 1) Information that a unit is available, identifying the location, project number, and unit number;
 - 2) The number of bedrooms the unit has;
 - 3) The date the unit is available
 - 4) A statement that the applicant will be required to sign a Public Rental Dwelling Lease prior to occupancy, which will describe the family's duties and responsibilities;
 - 5) A statement that the notice is not a contract and does not mean that the NHA is legally obligated to provide housing to the tenant;
 - 6) A statement that the family will be required to attend Tenant Education sessions.
 - 7) An estimated monthly rental payment amount and deposits needed for occupancy.

PUBLIC RENTAL ADMISSIONS, OCCUPANCY, COLLECTION, GRIEVANCE AND TERMINATION POLICIES

- c. If a unit is not available for the family, a statement that the applicant will be placed on a waiting list and will be notified of an available unit when one becomes available.
 2. Eligible applicants shall be put on the Public Rental waiting list if no housing is available at the time of eligibility.
 - a. The NHA shall establish individual folders on applicants placed on the waiting list.
 - b. Applicants must renew their application between the months of November to January of each year. Renewal of application may be done by mail or in person.
 3. The NHA shall maintain all records of eligible applicants in a central location.
- F. INELIGIBLE APPLICANTS. Each applicant determined to be ineligible will be notified in writing within fifteen (15) days of the determination. The notice shall state the reason(s) for the applicant's ineligibility and will explain his/her right to request an informal conference with the Housing Director within ten (10) days from the date of receipt of the notice. The applicant shall be given an opportunity at the informal conference to. 1) Respond to the NHA's reasons for determining his/her ineligibility and 2) provide any other evidence of his/her eligibility, including any evidence that may overcome any discrepancies in his/her application. Upon review of all information presented at the conference, the Housing Director shall make a determination on whether or not the applicant is now eligible and inform the applicant of his/her determination within five (5) days of the conference.
- a. Applications declared ineligible shall be kept in the NHA's inactive files for one (1) year from the date of application.
- G. WAITING LIST. The NHA shall maintain one Public Rental waiting list of families who have been determined eligible for admission into the Public Rental Program. Eligible applicants will be placed on the waiting list according to: 1) preference rating; and 2) time and date of the initial application so long as such application was updated yearly.

Applicants on the waiting list shall have at least the following information on file:

- Name and address of applicant(s) and household members
- Social Security Numbers of all household members
- Census Numbers of all household members (if applicable)
- Family composition and bedroom size desired
- Total family income
- Date of Income Verification
- Qualification for preferences

PUBLIC RENTAL ADMISSIONS, OCCUPANCY, COLLECTION, GRIEVANCE AND TERMINATION POLICIES

1. Every January, each applicant on file will be notified in writing to update their application. At the time the NHA will reaffirm the applicant's eligibility and interest for housing.
2. The NHA waiting list shall remain open for new applicants. However deadlines may be set for submission and certification of applications for a particular housing development.
3. Applicants who fail to update their application either by mail or in person will lose their place on the waiting list and their file will automatically become inactive for lack of interest. Upon re-application, they shall be considered new applicants.
4. Any applicant on the waiting list who wishes to be removed from the waiting list shall submit a Notice in writing to the NHA.
