RH and the Corporation are each a "Party" and collectively the "Parties" herein. If necessary and applicable, on or before the Effective Date, the disinterested members of the Corporation's Board of Directors (the "Board") will approve a final report by a qualified independent consultant engaged by the Board confirming that all of the payments made by the Corporation under this Contract, taken as a whole, are fair and reasonable, which will be attached hereto Exhibit A and incorporated herein by reference herein (the "Code Section 4958 Report").

RECITALS

- A. WHEREAS, the nature of the Corporation's business requires, from time to time, the services of entities and/or persons who are not employees of the Corporation;
- B. WHEREAS, RH possesses experience and skills which Corporation desires to utilize in furtherance of its business;
- C. WHEREAS, the Corporation by Board action on or about July 21, 2017, expressed its desire and agreement to avail itself of the professional services available from and offered by RH pursuant to this Contract, and such other services as the Board may delegate to RH and RH may agree to perform from time to time (collectively, the "Consulting Services"); and
- D. WHEREAS, RH is willing to provide the Consulting Services in a manner that will not constitute or create a conflict of interest, violation of fiduciary duty, or appearance of impropriety, all on the terms and conditions stated herein.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the foregoing recitals and for other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and adequacy of which are hereby acknowledged by the Parties, the Parties agree as follows:

1. Term and Effect of Contract. The terms of this Contract are effective as of the Effective Date and will expire on September 30, 2022; provided, however, that this Contract will automatically renew for successive two (2) year terms unless the Party that does not intend to renew provides written notice to the other Party of such intent no later than 180 days prior to the expiration of the then current term of this Contract (the "Term").

2. Board Authority and Control. The full authority and ultimate control of the Corporation shall at all times remain exclusively with the Board. The Board shall retain all authority placed in it by law and its bylaws, as may be amended from time to time, and shall retain such other authority as shall not have been specifically delegated by it to RH as an independent contractor pursuant to the terms of this Contract. The Board shall retain the full responsibility for compliance by the Corporation with all applicable federal, tribal, state, and local laws, including, without limitation, compliance with federal, tribal, and state laws relating to fraud, false claims, and similar claims of abuse or wrongdoing by hospitals and other healthcare providers, compliance with the Federal Stark Law, 42 U.S.C. §1395nn, et seq., compliance with all applicable laws and regulations concerning the confidentiality of personal health information, and compliance with the Office of Inspector General's "Model Compliance Guidelines for Hospitals."
3. Scope of Services. Without limiting the generality of the Board Authority and Control described in Section 2 above, and subject to the terms and conditions of this Contract, RH agrees to assist the Corporation with certain services related to the operations of the Corporation as reasonably requested by the Corporation. RH represents that it has the qualifications, experience, and ability to properly perform the services. All of the services to be performed by RH will be as agreed between RH and the Board. RH will be required to report to the Board concerning the services performed under this Contract. The nature and frequency of these reports will be left to the discretion of the Board.
  - A. Prior to execution of a contract approved pursuant to the Indian Self-Determination and Education Assistance Act ("ISDEAA"), P.L. 93-638 as amended, 25 U.S.C. §§ 450, 450a, et seq. (the "ISDEAA Contract Approval"), it is contemplated that the Consulting Services will include:
    1. Start-Up. Advice and assistance to the Corporation in connection with its start-up operations and referrals for corporate counsel to the Corporation.
    2. Fund Raising. Assist with fund raising activities, which may include start-up or pre-award costs under the ISDEAA, loans and/or donations to the Corporation for working capital purposes, including payments to RH pursuant to the terms of this Contract. RH will not be paid any remuneration beyond the remuneration for Consulting Services set forth in this Contract based on the success of fund raising activities.
    3. Governmental Approvals. Assist in (a) securing approval from the IRS with respect to the Corporation's IRC Code Section 501(c)(3) status, (b) negotiating and securing ISDEAA Contract Approval, and (c) securing any clearance required from the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services.
    4. Other. Provide such other Consulting Services as RH and the Corporation may mutually agree upon from time to time.

B. Upon receipt of ISDEAA Contract Approval, RH shall specifically have the responsibility and commensurate authority, subject, where applicable under the terms of this Contract, to the direction and prior approval of the Board, the written policies of the Board and budgets approved by the Board as hereinafter provided, for the following activities:

1. Medical Staff: Medical and Professional Matters. The Corporation's medical staff shall be organized and shall function in accordance with bylaws approved by the medical staff and all laws and regulations applicable to the Hospital under the ISDEAA Contract or otherwise. All matters requiring professional medical judgment shall remain the responsibility of the Corporation's medical staff and allied health professionals. RH shall have no responsibility whatsoever for such medical judgments, although RH may consult with the medical staff and the Board, as deemed appropriate by RH from time to time.
2. Authority and Responsibility of RH. Subject to the terms and conditions of this Contract, RH shall have the right and commensurate authority and responsibility, express or implied, to oversee the administrative and business services as are necessary and appropriate for the day-to-day business operations of the Corporation. RH agrees to utilize its experience and knowledge in providing such oversight to the Hospital in providing advice and recommendations to the Board. Any powers not specifically delegated or granted by the Board to RH will remain with the Board. In the absence of oral or written direction or written policies of the Board, the Board authorizes RH, on the Board's behalf, to exercise RH's reasonable business judgment in such oversight activities. RH shall specifically have the responsibility and commensurate authority, subject, where applicable under the terms of this Contract, to the direction and prior approval of the Board, the written policies of the Board and budgets approved by the Board as hereinafter provided, for the following activities:
  - a. Personnel Administration. RH, acting on behalf of and as agent for the Corporation, shall be responsible for overseeing the recruitment, hiring, promotion, disciplining, and firing of (i) Corporation key executives who report to RH, including without limitation the Chief Executive Officer, the Co-Chief Executive Officer/Administrator, the Chief Medical Director, the Chief Financial Officer, the Chief Operations Officer, and the Chief Nursing Officer (collectively, the "Key Executives") and (ii) other healthcare consultants to assist the Corporation's executives, directors, and managers (such Key Executives and healthcare consultants are collectively referred to as "RH Personnel") in accordance with the Board-approved policies of the Corporation and applicable law. RH shall have the right to place and replace RH Personnel at the Corporation with independent contractors and professional consultants for RH or employees of RH. RH shall identify any and all such RH Personnel, all of whom shall be, in RH's reasonable business judgment, fully qualified and able to perform all of other duties of the particular position. The Corporation shall pay to RH the cost of the services of any such RH Personnel based on the fair market value of their services. The Corporation shall not solicit or hire any such RH Personnel to work directly for the Corporation as an employee or an independent contractor during the Term and for one (1) year thereafter without the prior written consent of RH, and, if any RH Personnel is hired or engaged by the Corporation without RH's prior written consent at any time until one year after the expiration or other termination of this Agreement, the Corporation shall pay at the time of hire or engagement to RH an amount equal to lost net revenue suffered by RH for a period of one year as calculated by RH in its reasonable business judgment and consistent with any applicable rate sheet, or, if such person or entity were not employed or engaged by RH for the full year prior to the time of such hire or engagement, such lost net revenue to which RH would have otherwise been entitled for a full year as calculated pursuant to any applicable rate sheet.

RH shall have the right to supervise any member of the staff of the Corporation to further the administrative and business services of the Corporation as are necessary and appropriate for, including without limitation physician recruiting, onboarding, retention, and assisting the medical staff with its physician credentialing and privileges process, taking into consideration the qualifications, performance or misconduct of such staff members and the staffing requirements of the Corporation necessary for quality patient care; provided, however, that RH's supervisory authority shall not extend to any aspect of any staff member's professional medical judgment or medical actions unless such judgment or actions are found to constitute medical malpractice, gross negligence, or willful misconduct, in which case RH may impose appropriate discipline, up to and including termination of such staff member. RH will use commercially reasonable efforts to recruit and train replacements for resident Key Executives in advance of the expiration of this Contract.

b. Accounting and Financial Records.

- i. Accounting Procedures. RH shall be responsible for overseeing the establishment and administration of accounting procedures and controls, in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, and overseeing the establishment and administration of systems for development, preparation and safekeeping of records and books of account relating to the business and financial affairs of the Corporation (the originals to remain at the Corporation).

- ii. Budgets. RH shall submit to the Board for approval (which approval shall not be unreasonably denied, withheld, or delayed) the following budgets covering the Corporation's operations for the next fiscal year:
  1. Capital Expenditures. A capital expenditure budget outlining a program of capital expenditures for the next fiscal year.
  2. Operating Budget. A projection of cash receipts and disbursements based upon the proposed operating and capital budgets, together with recommendations as to the use of projected cash flow.
- c. Collection of Accounts. RH shall oversee the issuance of bills for services and materials furnished by the Corporation, including acting as the Corporation's agent to bill third party payors (including Government payors) and the collection of accounts and monies owed to the Corporation, including the responsibility to enforce the rights of the Corporation as creditor under any contract or in connection with the rendering of any service in accordance with Board-approved policy.
- d. Cost Reports. RH shall oversee preparation of the Corporation's annual Medicare cost reports. The Corporation, however, shall have the ultimate responsibility for the submission of its cost reports, and any such cost reports shall be approved by the Board and signed by the Chairperson of the Board.
- e. Payment of Accounts and Indebtedness. RH shall oversee the payment of payroll, trade accounts, amounts due on short and long-term indebtedness, taxes and all other obligations of the Corporation; provided, however, that RH's responsibility under this paragraph shall be limited to the exercise of reasonable diligence and care to apply the funds collected in the operation of the Corporation to its obligations in a timely and prudent manner.
- f. Depositories for Funds. RH shall oversee the maintenance of accounts, including certificates of deposits, in such banks, savings and loan associations and other financial institutions as the Board may from time to time select with such balances therein (which may be interest bearing or non-interest bearing) as RH shall from time to time deem appropriate. All such bank accounts shall be maintained in the name of the Corporation, and checks withdrawing funds from said bank accounts in said depositories shall be signed only in a manner determined from time to time by the Board.

- g. Contracts Management. Subject to any applicable legal and regulatory requirements, RH may negotiate, enter into, terminate, delegate, and administer all contracts to discharge the scope of services required in the Board-approved capital expenditure and operating budgets. Contracts with an annual cost in excess of $150,000 that are not included in the annual capital expenditure and operating budgets shall be subject to prior Board approval, which approval shall not be unreasonably denied, withheld, or delayed.
- h. Indian Self-Determination and Education Assistance Act Contract. RH shall annually oversee preparation of the Corporation's Indian Self-Determination and Education Assistance Act contract proposal and/or Annual Funding Agreement with the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services. The Corporation, however, shall have ultimate responsibility for the execution of any such contract, and any such contract shall be approved by the Board and signed by the Board's President or Chairperson, at the direction of and acting for the Board.
- i. Special Counsel. Whenever RH in its sound business judgment determines that it is necessary to retain special counsel on a specific legal matter to assist RH and represent the Corporation in such a matter, RH shall have the authority to retain such special counsel on such terms and conditions as RH in its sound business judgment deems reasonable. RH shall invoice to the Corporation the cost of such special counsel's legal services and expenses, and the Corporation shall pay any such invoice upon receipt of same.
- j. Protected Health Information. In the course of its business, Corporation receives, maintains, and/or discloses Protected Health Information ("PHI") that is subject to protection under the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996, the HIPAA Amendments issued pursuant to the Health Information Technology for Economic and Clinical Health (HITECH) Act of 2009, and the 2013 Omnibus Rule. RH, in the course of providing services to Corporation, may receive, disclose, store, transfer, or dispose of PHI received from or on behalf of Corporation. Corporation and RH are subject to the provisions of HIPAA, HITECH, and the Omnibus Rule, and are required to protect the privacy and provide for the security of PHI. Concurrently with the execution of this Contract, RH agrees to enter into an agreement with Corporation for the protection of PHI in the form set forth in Exhibit C to this Contract.

3. Tribal Organization Status, Licensing, Certification, Provider Relations, and ISDEAA contract.

- a. Licensing. It shall be the Corporation's sole responsibility to keep and maintain its operating licenses under the laws of the State of Arizona and to ensure that all Corporation services comply with all applicable provisions of federal, tribal, state, and local statutes, rules and regulations. RH shall assist and cooperate with the Corporation's efforts to ensure that its licenses and certifications are maintained in good standing.
- b. Certification. The Corporation will obtain Medicare Certification, and it shall be the Corporation's sole responsibility to obtain, keep and maintain in good standing its Medicare Certification and to ensure that all Corporation services comply with all applicable provisions of federal, tribal, state, and local statutes, rules and regulations. RH shall assist and cooperate with the Corporation's efforts to obtain, keep and maintain in good standing its Medicare Certification.
- c. Accreditation. If RH deems it necessary or desirable to obtain accreditations from one or more accredited agencies, RH will use its reasonable business judgment to recommend such accreditations to the Board and, subject to Board approval, select the appropriate accredited agencies. It shall be the Corporation's sole responsibility to obtain, keep and maintain in good standing any and all such accreditations. RH shall assist and cooperate with the Corporation's efforts to obtain, keep and maintain in good standing any and all such accreditations.
- d. Provider Relations. The Corporation shall conduct all of its relationships with providers, including its medical staff, in full compliance with all applicable laws and regulations. The Corporation covenants and agrees that prior to admitting a new member to the medical staff or entering into a new agreement with a contractor, the Corporation will conduct appropriate credentialing of those providers, including, but not limited to, taking steps to determine whether those providers have ever been included on the OIG's "exclusion list" of providers sanctioned or excluded from participation in a federal or state or tribal healthcare program.

- e. It shall be the Corporation's sole responsibility to comply with any ISDEAA and related contracts with the Department of Health and Human Services and with all pertinent provisions of all laws and regulations applicable to the Hospital.
4. RH Compensation. RH shall invoice the Corporation pursuant to its current Rate Sheet, a copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit B. RH may provide discounts to the Corporation in its discretion, and, upon one hundred and eighty (180) days' notice to the Corporation, may revise upward or downward such Rate Sheet from time to time consistent with Fair Market Value; and the most current revised Rate Sheet shall be deemed to have replaced Exhibit B to this Contract. The Corporation agrees to pay RH compensation for its Consulting Services pursuant to paragraphs 4(A)-(C) and (E), below; all money owed under any prior agreement with RH; and all third-party charges incurred by RH for services rendered to the Corporation. RH will invoice the Corporation for its Consulting Services and all third-party charges - e.g., supplier, legal, accounting, architecture, engineering and other outside consultants, on a bi-weekly basis ("RH Invoices"), and the Corporation shall promptly pay RH Invoices upon receipt. Any RH Invoices dated prior to ISDEAA Contract Approval that are not timely paid will accrue interest at the rate of ten percent (10%) per annum and be due and payable immediately upon ISDEAA Contract Approval; provided, however, that, to the extent the Corporation is insolvent at the time of or at any time after ISDEAA Contract Approval, then all unpaid RH Invoices will continue to accrue interest at the rate of ten percent (10%) per annum and be immediately due and payable to the extent that payment of such invoices will not cause the Corporation to become or remain insolvent. Each and every payment to RH under this Contract is to be made by direct deposit to RH at an address (which may include a particular bank, account number and routing number) to be provided to the Corporation upon the Corporation's receipt of funding. RH may change its Bank Account and/or Routing Number by providing written notice of such change(s) to the Corporation at the address and by the means stated in Section 10 hereof.
- A. Base Compensation. For each Corporation fiscal (calendar) year (the "Fiscal Year"), the Board shall pay base compensation to RH in accordance with the Executive Management and Consulting Services Rate Sheet included in the then current Code Section 4958 Report (the "Base Compensation"). For the avoidance of doubt, for purposes of this Section 4.A., to the extent that this Contract expires or terminates for any reason, the Corporation will pay to RH any unpaid Base Compensation through the date of expiration or termination within within 30 days after receipt of invoice. Notwithstanding any such expiration or termination, RH shall be authorized, subject to any subsequent reconciliation requested by either the Corporation or RH, to collect any unpaid Base Compensation from any Corporation funds under RH's control, including any escrow or contingency funds that may be established.
  - B. Incentive Fee. The Board shall pay an annual incentive fee to RH of six percent (6.0%) of the operating costs of the Hospital (the "Annual Incentive Fee") for each Fiscal Year during the Term, as such Term may be extended by the Corporation and RH. The Annual Incentive Fee for each Fiscal Year will be paid by the Corporation to RH as follows: (a) seventy percent (70%) of the Annual Incentive Fee for a Fiscal Year shall be paid in twenty-six (26) equal installments, with each installment included in the bi-weekly invoices submitted by RH to the Corporation, and (b) if the Board determines that RH's performance is at least satisfactory for such Fiscal Year, the remaining thirty percent (30%) of the Annual Incentive Fee for the Fiscal Year shall be paid in one lump sum within 30 days after receipt of invoice. For the avoidance of doubt, for purposes of this Section 4.B., to the extent that this Contract expires or terminates for any reason, the Corporation will pay to RH any remaining unpaid Annual Incentive Fee for a Fiscal Year, which payment will be made in one lump sum within within 30 days after receipt of invoice. Notwithstanding any such expiration or termination, RH shall be authorized, subject to any subsequent reconciliation requested by either the Corporation or RH, to collect any unpaid Incentive Fees from any Corporation funds under RH's control, including any escrow or contingency funds that may be established.

C. Retention Payments. To further incentivize RH to continue its provision of Consulting Services to the Corporation during the Term, the Corporation will pay to RH annual retention payments (each, a "Retention Payment" and collectively, the "Retention Payments") in an amount equal to the annual average of the total compensation that RH would have received if this Contract had or has remained in effect for a period of four (4) Fiscal Years (the "Retention Payment Amount"), as follows:

1. With respect to the first Fiscal Year of the Term, the Corporation will pay twenty-five percent (25%) of the Retention Payment Amount to RH within 30 days after receipt of invoice;
2. With respect to the second Fiscal Year of the Term, the Corporation will pay twenty-five percent (25%) of the Retention Payment Amount to RH within 30 days after receipt of invoice;
3. With respect to the third Fiscal Year of the Term, the Corporation will pay twenty-five percent (25%) of the Retention Payment Amount to RH within 30 days after receipt of invoice; and

With respect to the fourth Fiscal Year of the Term, the Corporation will pay twenty-five percent (25%) of the Retention Payment Amount to RH within 30 days after receipt of invoice. (For purposes of this Section 4.C., the sum of the amounts described in clauses 1, 2, 3 and 4 of this Section 4.C. is referred to as the "Total Retention Payment Amount"). For the avoidance of doubt, for purposes of this Section 4.C., to the extent that this Contract expires or terminates for any reason prior to completion of the fourth Fiscal Year, the Corporation will pay to RH the Total Retention Payment Amount, less any Retention Payment Amount previously paid by the Corporation to RH, which payment will be made in one lump sum within 30 days of such expiration or termination occurred. Notwithstanding any such expiration or termination, RH shall be authorized, subject to any subsequent reconciliation requested by either the Corporation or RH, to collect any unpaid Retention Amount Payments from any Corporation funds under RH's control, including any escrow or contingency funds that may be established; provided, however, that, in the event that this Agreement is terminated for any reason prior to the completion of the Fourth Fiscal year and that the Corporation disagrees with RH's estimation of the proper Total Retention Payment Amount as reflected in RH's presentation of its calculations to the Corporation, RH and the Corporation agree to have a nationally recognized business/economics firm on RH's approved Rate Sheet and selected by RH in its reasonable business judgment to determine within 60 days of such termination the appropriate amount, which shall be binding on both RH and the Corporation. In such event, the cost of such expert services shall be borne equally by the Corporation and RH.

- D. No Severance Payment on Expiration or Termination. The timely payment by the Corporation to RH of the Total Retention Payment Amount will constitute the Corporation's full satisfaction of its obligations under Section 4.C., and the Corporation shall have no further obligation to make any other severance or termination payments to RH under Section 4.C.; provided, however, that, for the avoidance of doubt, all RH Compensation under Sections 4.A., 4.B., and 4.E. will be due and payable in accordance with the terms of this Section 4.
- E. Discretionary Performance Fee. From time to time during any Fiscal Year during the Term, the Board may consider, in its sole and absolute discretion, the Board's payment of a performance fee to RH that is consistent with the then current Code Section 4958 Report during any period in which RH operated under extraordinary circumstances, exhibited outstanding merit, or delivered exceptional performance and results (the "Discretionary Performance Fee"). For the avoidance of doubt, payment of any Discretionary Performance Fee under this Section 4.E. will be made in one lump sum within 30 days after receipt of invoice following the Board's approval of the Discretionary Performance Fee. Notwithstanding any such termination, RH shall be authorized, subject to any subsequent reconciliation requested by either the Corporation or RH, to collect any unpaid Discretionary Performance Fee at or after that time from any Corporation funds under RH's control, including any escrow or contingency funds that may be established.
- F. Section 409A of Internal Revenue Code. The payments and benefits provided hereunder are intended to be structured in a manner to avoid the implication of any penalty taxes under Section 409A of the Internal Revenue Code, as amended (the "Code"). Notwithstanding any provision in this Contract to the contrary:
1. If any payment under this Contract is determined to be subject to Section 409A of the Code, this Contract shall be interpreted and administered so that such payments comply to the fullest extent possible with Section 409A of the Code. The payment (or commencement of a series of payments) of any nonqualified deferred compensation (within the meaning of Section 409A of the Code) to RH upon expiration or termination of this Contract shall be delayed until such time as RH has also undergone a "separation from service" as defined in Treas. Reg. 1.409A-1(h), at which time such nonqualified deferred compensation (calculated as of the date of the expiration or termination of this Contract) shall be paid (or commence to be paid) to RH as scheduled in this Contract as if this Contract expired or terminated on the date of RH's ultimate "separation from service."

2. Any payment otherwise required to be made to RH hereunder at any date as a result of the expiration or termination of this Contract shall be delayed for such period of time as may be necessary to meet the requirements of Section 409A(a)(2)(B)(i) of the Code (the "Delay Period"). On the first business day following the expiration of the Delay Period, RH shall be paid, in a single cash lump sum, an amount equal to the aggregate amount of all payments delayed pursuant to the preceding sentence and any remaining payments not so delayed shall continue to be paid pursuant to the payment schedule set forth herein.
3. Each payment hereunder shall be deemed to be a separate and distinct payment for purposes of Section 409A of the Code.
4. To the extent that any right to reimbursement of expenses or payment of any benefit in-kind under this Contract constitutes nonqualified deferred compensation (within the meaning of Section 409A of the Code), (i) any such expense reimbursement shall be made by the Corporation no later than the last day of the taxable year following the taxable year in which such expense was incurred by RH, (ii) the right to reimbursement or in-kind benefits shall not be subject to liquidation or exchange for another benefit, and (iii) the amount of expenses eligible for reimbursement or in-kind benefits provided during any taxable year shall not affect the expenses eligible for reimbursement or in-kind benefits to be provided in any other taxable year; provided that the foregoing clause shall not be violated with regard to expenses reimbursed under any arrangement covered by Section 105(b) of the Code solely because such expenses are subject to a limit related to the period the arrangement is in effect.
5. D&O Insurance. The Corporation agrees to provide RH with D&O insurance covering any actions or omissions of RH and RH Personnel with coverage limits not less than $5,000,000 per claim or occurrence. Such insurance shall have adequate "tail" coverage to protect RH and RH Personnel from any claims made after the expiration or termination of this Contract for any actions or omissions alleged to have occurred prior to expiration or termination of this Contract. The Corporation also agrees to pay for RH's directors and officers their errors and omissions insurance and professional liability insurance with like coverage limits and tail coverage.
6. Breach, Remedies, and Expiration or Termination of Contract. All of the obligations, covenants, representations, and duties of the Parties hereunder are material terms of this Contract.
  - A. Expiration of Contract. To the extent that this Contract expires, the Corporation will pay to RH the sum of all unpaid Retention Payment Amounts (collectively, the "Total Unpaid Retention Payment Amount"), together with all other amounts due to RH including under Sections 4.A., 4.B., and 4.E. of this Agreement (the Total Unpaid Retention Payment Amount plus such other amounts due being the "Amount Due on Expiration or Termination") in one lump sum within 30 days after receipt of invoice after such expiration occurred. Notwithstanding any such expiration, RH shall be authorized, subject to any subsequent reconciliation requested by either the Corporation or RH, to collect the Amount Due on Expiration or Termination from any Corporation funds under RH's control, including any escrow or contingency funds that may be established.

B. Termination of Contract by the Corporation. In the event that the Corporation terminates this Contract for any reason with or without cause, the Corporation will pay to RH the Amount Due on Expiration or Termination in one lump sum on or before within 30 days after receipt of invoice after such termination occurred or, in RH's sole discretion, the Amount Due on Expiration or Termination shall be due and payable in two lump sum payments. The first such payment shall be seventy-five percent (75%) of the Amount Due on Expiration or Termination and shall be paid seven (7) days prior to any expected termination. The second such payment shall be twenty-five percent (25%) of the Amount Due on Expiration or Termination and shall be paid seven (7) days after the final termination date. Notwithstanding any such termination, RH shall be authorized, subject to any subsequent reconciliation requested by either the Corporation or RH, to collect the Amount Due on Expiration or Termination from any Corporation funds under RH's control including any escrow or contingency funds that may be established

C. Termination of Contract by RH. In the event that RH terminates this Contract for any reason with or without cause, the Corporation will pay to RH the Amount Due on Expiration or Termination in one lump sum within 30 days after receipt of invoice after such termination occurred. Notwithstanding any such termination, RH shall be authorized, subject to any subsequent reconciliation requested by either the Corporation or RH, to collect the Amount Due on Expiration or Termination from any Corporation funds under RH's control, including any escrow or contingency funds that may be established.

D. Notice and Cure. Notwithstanding any contrary provision or the operation of law, this Contract shall not be terminated because of a breach by Corporation or RH of any of the terms, provisions or conditions contained herein unless and until the non-breaching party has given the breaching party written notice of any such breach and such breach has not been cured within a period of thirty (30) calendar days after receipt of such notice of such breach.

7. Office Equipment, Furniture, and Services. As soon as practicable after the ISDEAA Contract Approval, the Corporation shall rent to RH adequate office space, furniture, and equipment for fair market value for use by RH while performing its duties at the Corporation. In addition, the Corporation shall provide such technical, secretarial, and other support personnel as RH shall require from time to time. If such space, furniture, equipment, or support personnel supplied to RH by the Corporation is found inadequate by RH, RH shall so inform the Board and request that such inadequacy be corrected. If the request is not voted upon by the Board within a reasonable time or the inadequacy is not corrected by the Board, then RH shall have the option to purchase such assets or services and bill the cost of same to the Corporation; provided, however, that such purchases shall be reasonable under the circumstances in RH's sound business judgment.

8. Independent Contractor. In performing the Consulting Services, it is understood and agreed that RH is acting as an independent contractor only. RH is not to be considered an employee of the Corporation for any purpose. RH may not be physically present at all times at the Corporation, and will provide services as deemed necessary at the RH corporate office location. This Contract does not require RH to perform work exclusively for the Corporation, and the Corporation does not dictate the time of performance by RH under this Contract. The Corporation will not combine business operations with RH rather than maintaining these operations separately. This Contract does not prevent RH from pursuing other ventures, including submitting proposals in response to future requests for proposals. In addition, services provided by RH and RH Personnel to any other hospital, or service by RH Personnel on any other hospital's or other corporation's Board of Directors shall not constitute a violation or any conflict of any duty to the Corporation.
9. Assignment. Neither RH nor the Corporation may assign any rights, duties or interests in this Contract to any other person or organization without the prior written consent of the other party.
10. Notices. Any notice required or permitted to be given under this Contract shall be sufficient if in writing and if sent by certified mail (return receipt requested) as follows:

11. Records. RH shall keep records of all services performed under this Contract and provide copies of such records to Corporation upon expiration or termination of this Contract, or as requested by Corporation.
12. Non-Disclosure of Confidential Information. This Agreement shall be kept in the strictest confidence by both RH and the Corporation, except to the extent it is required for auditing, accounting, or legal purposes or to comply with an unappealable, final order of a court or governmental agency with jurisdiction. RH agrees to use its reasonable business judgment to protect from disclosure and hold in confidence any and all proprietary information, and other matters owned by the Corporation and brought to RH's attention (collectively the "Information") by the Corporation during the course of this Contract, whether in written or oral form. Without the prior written consent of the Corporation, RH agrees not to use the Information for any purpose other than the performance of services to be provided by RH under this Contract, except to extent that RH, in its reasonable business judgment, determines any other use of the Information to be appropriate. However, RH shall not be so restricted where (i) Information is now or becomes public through no fault of RH, or (ii) RH already had Information in its possession from its own work prior to the date of execution of this Contract, or (iii) RH received Information from a third party on a non-confidential basis and not derived from the Corporation with an obligation to preserve confidentiality, or (iv) use of such Information is necessary or desirable to refute or defend against any allegation of negligence or wrongdoing by RH, RH Personnel, or counsel engaged by RH. Similarly, confidential and/or proprietary information of RH (including processes, formulas, rate sheets, discounts, personnel-related information, data, reports, summaries, documents, photographs, financial information, RH attorney work product, and/or industry data not generally available and which may provide RH with a competitive advantage) may be disclosed to the Corporation in the course of RH's performance of its duties, and the Corporation shall use its reasonable business judgment to protect from disclosure and hold in confidence any and all of RH's confidential and/or proprietary information, and shall not use or disclose such information for any purpose unless (i) such information is now or becomes public through no fault of the Corporation, or (ii) the Corporation already had such information in its possession from its own work prior to the date of execution of this Contract, or (iii) the Corporation received such information from a third party on a non-confidential basis and not derived from RH with an obligation to preserve confidentiality, or (iv) use of such information is necessary or desirable to refute or defend against any allegation of negligence or wrongdoing by the Corporation, the Corporation's Board or personnel, or counsel engaged by the Corporation.

13. General Provisions. The following general provisions shall apply to this Contract:
- A. Entire Contract. This Contract contains the entire understanding between the Parties and entirely supersedes as of the Effective Date hereof any prior understandings and contracts between them respecting the subject matter of this Contract; provided, however, that this paragraph shall not extinguish the Corporation's prior debt to RH under any previous agreement between the Corporation and RH, which debt is hereby ratified by the Corporation as presently due and owing to RH.
  - B. Binding Effect. This Contract shall extend to and be binding upon the Parties hereto, their successors and assigns. This Contract may not be altered except by a contract addendum or amendment in writing signed by both Parties hereto.
  - C. Separability. Any provision of this Contract which is prohibited or unenforceable in any jurisdiction shall, as to such jurisdiction, be ineffective to the extent of such prohibition or unenforceability without invalidating the remaining provisions hereof, and any such prohibition or unenforceability shall not invalidate or render unenforceable any such provision in any other jurisdiction. If any provisions of this Contract, or the application of such provision to any person or circumstance, shall be held invalid, the remainder of this Contract, or the application of such provision to persons or circumstances other than those as to which it is held invalid, shall not be affected thereby.

- D. Governing Law. This Contract shall be deemed to be executed in the state of Arizona and shall be construed in accordance with the laws of that state without regard to the principles of conflict of laws or other rule of law that would result in the application of the law of any jurisdiction other than the state of Arizona.
- E. Counterparts. This Contract may be executed in several counterparts and all so executed shall constitute one Contract, binding on the Parties hereto even though both Parties are not signatories to the original or the same counterpart.
- F. Headings. The headings of this Contract are for convenience of reference only and shall not define or limit any of the terms or provisions hereof.
- G. Waiver. Failure of either Party at any time to require performance of any provision of this Contract shall not limit the Party's right to enforce the provision, nor shall any waiver of any breach of any provision be a waiver of any succeeding breach of that or any other provision or a waiver of the provision itself or any other provision.
- H. Indemnity. The Corporation agrees to indemnify, defend and otherwise hold harmless RH from and against any and all claims, demands, damages or costs for personal injury, death or property damage arising out of RH's performance of its obligations under this Contract, except that the Corporation shall have no obligation to indemnify RH from claims based on gross negligence or intentional misconduct by RH as determined by an unappealable judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction, or any criminal conviction (including the acceptance of any plea of nolo contendere) of RH and/or RH officers or other key employees, arising out of or related to the services provided by RH pursuant to the terms of this Agreement. By way of example and not limitation, the Corporation expressly agrees to indemnify, defend and otherwise hold harmless RH from and against claims, demands, damages, or costs for personal injury, death, property damages, or contract damages brought by any person, including without limitation any current, future or former employee(s) of the Corporation against RH under any contract, tort, or other theory arising out of or related to the services provided by RH pursuant to the terms of this Agreement, and including any and all laws governing employer/employee relations or procurements, including but not limited to claims brought before the Office of Navajo Labor Relations, the Navajo Nation Labor Commission, or the courts of the Navajo Nation under the Navajo Preference in Employment Act and the Navajo Business Opportunity Act. RH agrees to indemnify, defend and otherwise hold harmless the Corporation from and against any and all claims, demands, damages, or costs, whether under a contract, tort or other theory, for personal injury, death or property damage arising out of the performance of RH's duties hereunder and proximately caused by the gross negligence or willful misconduct of RH and/or RH officers or other key RH employees.

- I. Arbitration. Except for actions brought to obtain injunctive relief, if at any time during or after the term of this Contract any dispute, difference, or disagreement shall arise upon or in respect of this Contract, any breach hereof, or the meaning and construction hereof, every such dispute, difference, and disagreement shall be referred to a single arbitrator agreed upon by the Parties, or if no single arbitrator can be agreed upon, an arbitrator or arbitrators shall be selected in accordance with Title 12, Chapter 9, Article 1, Arizona Revised Statutes and such dispute, difference, or disagreement shall be settled by arbitration in accordance with that Article, and judgment upon the award rendered by the arbitrator may be entered in any court having jurisdiction thereof.
- J. Attorney's Fees. In the event an arbitration, suit or action is brought by any Party under this Contract to enforce any of its terms, or in any appeal therefrom, it is agreed that the prevailing Party shall be entitled to reasonable attorney's fees to be fixed by the arbitrator, trial court, and/or appellate court.
- K. Presumption. The Parties hereto are sophisticated business entities represented by counsel. Both Parties were involved with the drafting and the negotiations leading to this Contract. Therefore, this Contract, or any section thereof, shall not be construed against any Party due to the fact that said Contract or any section thereof was drafted by said Party.
- L. Cultural Sensitivity. RH will use its best efforts to observe Native American cultural sensitivities in fulfilling its obligations under this Contract.
- M. Further Action. The Parties hereto shall execute and deliver all documents, provide all information, and take or forbear from all such action as may be necessary or appropriate to achieve the purpose of this Contract.
- N. Good Faith, Cooperation and Due Diligence. The Parties hereto covenant, warrant, and represent to each other that each shall perform its obligations under this Contract to the other cooperatively and in good faith, and with honesty in fact.
- O. Parties in Interest. Nothing herein shall be construed to be to the benefit of any third party nor is it intended that any provision shall be for the benefit of any third party.
- P. Signatures Authorized. Each individual signing this Contract on behalf of a corporate entity represents and warrants that he or she is authorized to execute this Contract on behalf of such entity. The Corporation represents and warrants that this Contract has been duly approved by the attached resolution of the Corporation's Board of Directors, and that such resolution is in full force and effect as of the date set forth below.

Subject: Consulting Contract between Four Corners Regional Health Center and Razaghi Healthcare Four Corners Health Center LLC given the condition established by the Naabik'iyáti' Committee

I consulted with the Office of Legislative Counsel and asked for a review of the Consulting Contract ("Contract") signed by Four Corners Regional Health Center and Razaghi Healthcare Four Corners Health Center LLC. The Office of Legislative Counsel concluded that the scope and terms of the Contract fail to meet the conditions established by the Naabik'iyáti' Committee in Resolution NABIO-59-18.

Resolution NABIO-59-18 approved the Four Corners Regional Health Center as a designated tribal organization through a revocable designation "for a period of five years for the purposes of contracting with the United States Indian Health Service and to negotiate and enter into Title I, Indian Self-Determination Act (P.L. 93-638, as amended) contracts and subject to the continuing compliance with the requirement that management shall be all internal and not contracted out to any other entity." Resolution NABIO-59-18, Section Three. Approval.

The Office of Legislative Counsel determined that the Contract is to conduct management functions. Therefore, the Contract fails to meet the conditions established by Naabik'iyáti' Committee Resolution, NABIO-59-18.

Re: Legislation No. 0316-19

Four Corner Regional Health Center, Inc. ("Four Corners") wishes to address Legislation No. 0316-19 (the "Bill"), a measure that would strip Four Corners of its tribal organization status and its ability to take over the operations of the Red Mesa Clinic, now operated by the Indian Health Service ("IHS"). Four Corners believes the Bill is misplaced, based upon outdated information, and is in opposition to the will of the people and Navajo Self-Determination.

On October 25, 2016, at a meeting of the Shiprock Service Unit Health Board and Dziłth-Na-O-Dith-Hle Health Center Board, the Navajo Area IHS announced that it would be downsizing and structuring the advisory board for the Shiprock Service Unit. Many Chapter resolutions were passed expressing opposition to this move and, on March 23, 2017, the Naabik'iyati' Committee of the Navajo Nation Council adopted resolution NABIMA-19-17 expressly stating the Navajo Nation's opposition to the reduction and downsizing of the Health Board for the Northern Navajo Medical center.

Around that same time, the United States Office of Inspector General issued a number of reports critical of the IHS. (Indian Health Service Hospitals: Longstanding Challenges Warrant Focused Attention to Support Quality Care, October, 2016. Indian Health Service Hospitals: More Monitoring Needed to Ensure Quality Care, October, 2016. Vulnerabilities and Resulting Breakdowns: A Review of Audits, Evaluations, and Investigations Focused on Services and Funding for American Indians and Alaska Natives, December, 2017.)

Despite the Navajo Nation and its people's opposition, the Navajo Area IHS not only proceeded to reduce the size of the community-based health boards, it eliminated them from its health care facilities on the Navajo Nation, particularly in the Northern Agency. When the advisory boards went back to Council, it was suggested that they "go 638" and exercise Navajo Self-Determination over their own healthcare.

Four Corners formed as a direct result of those actions, concerns, and direction. Four Corners' board members are comprised of members of the advisory boards shut down by the IHS. Four Corners followed the protocol set forth by the Navajo Nation to obtain its Tribal Organization ("638") status in order to be able to contract with the IHS and exercise Navajo Self-Determination over the programs, functions, services, and activities ("PFSAs") currently being performed at the Four Corners Regional Health Center facility by the IHS of the United States government.

Four Corners worked tirelessly to obtain supporting Chapter resolutions from all of the chapters in the Four Corners service area, including the chapters and communities of Aneth, Mexican Water, Red Mesa, Teec Nos Pos, and Tolikan (Sweetwater). Four Corners' board members met with the leaders and members of those communities, describing their vision of what the quality of health care could be in their communities when Navajo are given the opportunity to exercise Self-Determination.

The Chapters were supportive of Four Corner's efforts and all approved separate resolutions expressing their support for Four Corners' efforts. Those supporting resolutions are included in back up documentation of Naabik'iyati' Committee Resolution NABIO-59-18. Four Corners understands the Chapters still support its efforts as demonstrated by letter of support that have been and are being submitted by Chapter officials in opposition to Legislation No. 0316-19. It is clearly still the will of the people that Four Corners have Tribal Organization status to contract with the IHS to provide the PFSAs currently being provided by the IHS at the Four Corners Regional Health Center facility.

After obtaining supporting resolutions from all of the Chapters to be served by Four Corners, Four Corners sought and obtained a resolution from the Health, Education and Human Services Committee ("HEHSC") of the 23rd Navajo Nation Council – Fourth Year, 2018, Resolution HEHSCJY-19-18. That resolution was passed on July 23, 2018, and recommended to the Naabik'iyati' Committee that Four Corners be given Tribal Organization status for the purposes of contracting with the United States Indian Health Service to enter into a Title I contract.

After obtaining HEHSC Resolution HEHSCJY-19-18, Four Corners went before the Naabik'iyati' Committee to obtain a resolution granting Four Corners' Tribal Organization status. After much discussion, and shortly before the vote to approve the resolution, a floor motion was made to amend the resolution to include a clause "that management shall be internal and not contracted out to any other entity..." The Naabik'iyati' Committee approved Resolution NABIO-59-18 by a vote of 14 in favor and 2 opposed on October 11, 2018.

As part of Four Corners' efforts, it, like most start up 638s, retained outside consultants to assist with the demanding and time-consuming process of obtaining Tribal Organization status. In 2017, Four Corners entered into an agreement with Razaghi Healthcare Four Corners Health Center, LLC. ("RH") That agreement provided that "[t]he full authority and ultimate control of the Corporation shall at all times remain exclusively with the Board." That agreement also included the potential for the Board to delegate certain day-to-day functions once a Title I contract was obtained.

However, because the Naabik'iyati' Committee added the clause "that management shall be internal and not contracted out to any other entity..." to Resolution NABIO-59-18, and Four Corners wished to be in full compliance with the Resolution, Four Corners promptly began to renegotiate its agreement with RH to remove all management functions, but retaining RH to provide consulting functions to Four Corners. On November 30, 2018, Four Corners and RH entered into a Consulting Agreement which replaced the earlier agreement.

The Consulting Agreement separated the services to be provided by RH into two phases. The first phase was for consulting services to be performed by RH prior to Four Corners' executing a contract with the IHS and the second phase was for services to be performed after a contract with the IHS was executed. To date, no contract with the IHS has been executed and only services for the first phase have been provided. Those services include:

1. Start-Up. Advice and assistance to the Corporation in connection with its start-up operations and referrals for corporate counsel to the Corporation.
2. Fund Raising. Assist with fund raising activities, which may include start-up or pre-award costs under the ISDEAA, loans and/or donations to the Corporation for working capital purposes, including payments to RH pursuant to the terms of this Contract. RH will not be paid any remuneration beyond the remuneration for Consulting Services set forth in this Contract based on the success of fund raising activities.
3. Governmental Approvals. Assist in (a) securing approval from the IRS with respect to the Corporation's IRC Code Section 501(c)(3) status, (b) negotiating and securing ISDEAA Contract Approval, and (c) securing any clearance required from the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services.
4. Other. Provide such other Consulting Services as RH and the Corporation may mutually agree upon from time to time.

As one can see, these services include no management functions.

On March 19, 2019, believing it had sufficiently revised its agreement with RH to eliminate management functions, Four Corners sought technical assistance from, and submitted the Consulting Agreement in a letter to, the IHS for confirmation that Four Corners' had eliminated all management functions from the Consulting Agreement.

Several months later, on June 10, 2019, a letter was sent from Daniel E. Tso, Chairperson, Health, Education and Human Services Committee to Four Corners' Chairperson. That letter relayed the Office of Legislative Counsel's opinion that the Consulting Agreement was to conduct management functions, although the letter did not inform Four Corners of the specific provision, if any, that was believed to not meet the conditions of Resolution NABIO-59-18.

Four Corners wished (and still wishes) to comply with Resolution NABIO-59-18 and once again began to renegotiate and amend its agreement with RH even further to ensure it is in full compliance with Resolution NABIO-59-18. To demonstrate its desire to comply with Resolution NABIO-59-18, Four Corners expressly included a recital clause in the amended agreement stating that "the Corporation and RH wish to amend the Contract to comply with the conditions established by the Naabik'iyati' Committee of the Navajo Nation Council".

Four Corners negotiated the removal from the Consulting Agreement all functions that could remotely be perceived or argued to be a management function. Its consultant agreed to the revisions.

On July 1, 2019, as part of Four Corners' effort to ensure its compliance with Resolution NABIO-59-18, Four Corners' counsel sent a draft of the proposed Amended and Restated Consulting Agreement to the Office of Legislative Counsel for review and comment, seeking confirmation that the new agreement would conform to the conditions of Resolution NABIO-59-18.

On July 3, 2019, the Office of Legislative Counsel sent correspondence informing Four Corners that it would not review the Amended and Restated Consulting Agreement for compliance with Resolution NABIO-59-18.

On July 20, 2019, Four Corners replaced the November, 2018, Consulting Agreement with RH with the Amended and Restated Consulting Agreement on July 20, 2019, a copy of which is attached to this letter. The Amended and Restated Consulting Agreement removed all provisions and language that could be remotely interpreted as permitting RH to perform any management functions on behalf of Four Corners.

On August 21, 2019, Four Corners' Chairperson provided _____ with a copy of the executed Amended and Restated Consulting Agreement which removed all provisions and language that could be remotely interpreted as permitting RH to perform any management functions on behalf of Four Corners. To best of Four Corners' knowledge, the Office of Legislative Counsel has not opined on the Amended and Restated Consulting Agreement.

Importantly, Four Corners wishes to go on record as stating that no management services have been provided to Four Corners under either the old Consulting Agreement, or the current Amended and Restated Consulting Agreement. Only consulting services have been provided by Four Corners' outside consultants. These outside consultants include RH, REDW, and Four Corners' outside legal counsel.

Without question, Four Corners has made every effort to comply with Resolution NABIO-59-18. It has twice amended its agreement with its outside consultant to bring that agreement into compliance with the Resolution. It has sought technical assistance from both the IHS and the Office of Legislative Counsel to ensure its agreement is in compliance.

Legislation No. 0316-19, posted on October 15, 2019, is based upon outdated information and the incorrect assumption that the old Consulting Agreement is in effect. The old Consulting Agreement is not in effect and was replaced by the Amended and Restated Consulting Agreement in July, 2019.

Finally, Four Corners believes all Navajo should work together to further the Navajo Nation's self-determination policy, fulfill the will of the people, and improve health care for all Diné. Legislation No. 0316-19 does the opposite by pitting Navajo against Navajo, which serves only to undermine these principles. For these reasons, Four Corners' urges the Council to vote against Legislation No. 0316-19.
