RE: Associate Justice Appointment

Dear Judge Tsinigine,

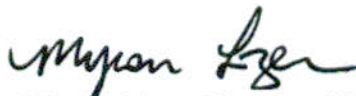

Thank you for your interest in serving as an Associate Justice for the Navajo Nation Supreme Court. Throughout its 60 years the Navajo Nation Supreme Court has had many fine Justices who paved the road in protecting the Nation's sovereignty, jurisdiction, and authority; it is a valued Navajo institution. We would like to ensure the Supreme Court carry on its role with well-qualified jurist who regard the court decisions of the past while guiding the Nation in the future.

We appreciate the time you spent with us talking about your interest and experience in the legal system. Your time as a District Court judge gives you the experience of knowing the issues brought by our People and the court's process and procedures that will help you in deciding cases that will guide the Nation in the future. Based on our discussion in which we talked about your life growing up on the Nation, your commitment to our Navajo culture and tradition, your educational experience in acquiring your college degree and law school degree, and your 11 years of work with the courts we believe you have the qualifications, the broad experience, and the fortitude to recommend your appointment as an Associate Justice of the Navajo Nation Supreme Court.

Our recommendation will be forwarded to the Navajo Nation Council for final action. We wish you the best. God bless you.

Sincerely,

Jonathan Nez, President

09-20--Appointment of Tina Tsinigine as Associate Justice--Navajo Nation Supreme Court

Good morning:

These comments represent my personal opinion and not those of any past or present employer or client.

The selection of the Hon. Tina Tsinigine to be an Associate Justice of the Navajo Nation Supreme Court is an excellent choice.

Judge Tsinigine has always worked tirelessly to bring justice to all Navajos and educate the Navajo Public on how to utilize the Courts of the Navajo Nation to resolve disputes. She certainly stands for and has worked to achieve "justice for all."

In addition, the approval of Justice Tsinigine's appointment will mean that the long-standing vacancy on the Supreme Court will, at last, be filled. This vacancy has impaired Navajo Justice and damaged the reputation of the Navajo Nation simply by its duration--even though Chief Justice Jayne and Associate Justice Shirley (with the assistance of District Judges appointed to serve with them on specific appeals) have certainly done all in their power to keep the Supreme Court functioning, even though it has not been a "full strength" for years.

I hope the Navajo Nation Council gives quick approval to Justice Tsinigine's appointment.

Its very imperative that confirmation be made on the probationary appointment of Honorable Tina Tsinigine as Associate Justice of the NN Supreme Court and through their hard work and perseverance such an appointment is for the betterment of the Navajo Nation itself as a whole. I am in support of the Legislation that Honorable Edmund Yazzie has sponsored. I have also had the privilege of working side by side with Mr. Yazzie as a former Police Officer with Ramah Navajo Police Department and he is well versed in Law Enforcement.
