Dear Mr. Benally,

It is my pleasure to reappoint you to the Navajo Tax Commission. Your ongoing interest and role in promoting the tax base of the Navajo Nation, and assistance in the regulatory process as a member of the Tax Commission is commendable.

Your commitment to the Navajo People and your experience in the taxation program of the Navajo Nation and other Indian Tribes will be beneficial to the Navajo Nation moving forward.

Window Rock, Navajo Nation

RE: Appointment to Navajo Tax Commission

To Whom It May Concern:

My name is Moroni Benally, I am writing this letter to express keen interest in being re-appointed as a Tax Commissioner on the Navajo Nation Tax Commission. I have previously served as a Tax Commissioner from 2007 to 2012. As a result, I have become familiar with the processes and procedures of the Navajo Tax Commission.

I am currently finishing a Ph.D. in Public Policy and Management, and have a two Masters Degrees in Public Policy, one with an emphasis on public economics and the other with an emphasis on the science of economic and policy analysis. I fundamentally believe that a well-structured tax regime is key to a vital and healthy economy. As a tax commissioner I will bring the much needed economic analysis of proposed taxes for the Navajo Nation, and having studied the Navajo Nation economy, I am in a position to adequately assess the impact of a new tax on the unique features of the Navajo Nation economy.

I am from Sweetwater, Navajo Nation. I am finishing my doctoral work at the University of Washington in Seattle, but maintain my residence at Sweetwater. Further, I have taught undergraduate and graduate level classes in policy analysis, public management, courts and law, and political theory. This Fall, I will be teaching quantitative and economic reasoning to graduate students in the Tribal Governance program at the Evergreen State College in Olympia Washington.

Lastly, while my qualifications meet the requirements, I fundamentally believe in creating and developing a fiscal policy and regulatory regime that supports, sustains and grows the Navajo Nation economy now and in the future.

Please consider my request to be appointed to the Navajo Nation Tax Commission.

Sincerely,

Moroni Benally, MPP, PhC
