JCC-02-19

RESOLUTION OF THE

JUDICIAL CONDUCT COMMISSION

RECOMMENDING TO THE NAVAJO NATION PRESIDENT THE PROBATIONARY APPOINTMENT OF NEOMI M. GILMORE AS NAVAJO NATION DISTRICT COURT JUDGE

BE IT ENACTED:

SECTION ONE. AUTHORITY.

A. Navajo Nation District Court Judges are selected by appointment and confirmation. See generally, 7 N.NC. §355. The Law and Order Committee of the Navajo Nation Council initially determines the qualifications of all applicants for judgeships. 2 N.N.C. §601(B)(7) and 7 N.N.C. §355(A). The names of those deemed qualified are forwarded to the President of the Navajo Nation for appointment. The appointments of the President are subject to Navajo Nation Council confirmation.
B. The Law and Order Committee has delegated the responsibility and authority to the Judicial Conduct Commission regarding the screening of applicants for and recommendation of probationary appointment of judges and justices of the Navajo Nation by Resolution LOCS-19-18.

SECTION TWO. FINDINGS.

A. To improve the quality and effectiveness of the justice system, the Navajo Nation Judicial Branch needs to have a fully seated judiciary; however, there are nine vacancies for Navajo Nation District Court Judge position.
B. While the Navajo Nation Code, Title 2, states that Navajo Nation President shall appoint District Court Judges "only from among those named in the panel submitted" by the Law and Order Committee, in order to address the Navajo Nation's immediate need for judges, the Judicial Conduct Commission contends that submitting one applicant to the Navajo Nation President is sufficient because of the dire need for judges.
C. The applicant took the writing test as required by Title 7.
D. The Judicial Conduct Commission conducted the interview of the applicant on July 1, 2019.
E. The Judicial Conduct Commission reviewed the applicant's qualifications for judicial appointment.
F. The Judicial Conduct Commission determines that Neomi M. Gilmore meets the qualifications for appointment as a probationary Navajo Nation District Court Judge and is qualified for the position of Navajo Nation Judge.

SECTION THREE. RECOMMENDATION FOR PROBATIONARY APPOINTMENT

A. The Judicial Conduct Commission recommends to the Navajo Nation President that Neomi M. Gilmore be appointed as District Court Judge, subject to the Navajo Nation Council's confirmation. 2 N.N.C. §601(B)(7)(2012)

SECTION FOUR. DIRECTIVE.

The Office of Human Resources shall immediately submit to the Navajo Nation President all documents provided by the applicant recommended for appointment. Confidential information within application documents shall remain protected except upon authorized disclosure by the applicant. 2 N.N.C. § 81 et seq. (2009)

CERTIFICATION

I hereby certify that the foregoing resolution was duly considered by the Judicial Conduct Commission at a duly called meeting at Twin Arrows Navajo Casino and Resort Conference Room, Twin Arrows, Navajo Nation (Arizona), at which a quorum was present and that same was passed by a vote of 2 in favor and 0 opposed this 30th day of July 2019.

RE: Judicial Appointment

Dear Ms. Gilmore,

Thank you for your interest in serving as a Navajo Nation judge. There are many fine Navajo judges who have come before you and we trust you will uphold the honor of the Navajo courts they have built over the decades. We appreciate the time you spent with us talking about your interest and experience in the legal system. Your wide-ranging work for and on behalf of the Navajo People give you the experience necessary for deciding the issues of our Navajo People. In addition, we appreciate your honesty and candor related to your qualifications; there are few who are willing to express such truthfulness and integrity for such an important position. Based on our discussion with you and review of your résumé it is our pleasure to recommend your appointment as a judge of the Navajo courts.

The recommendation will be forwarded to the Navajo Nation Council for final action. We wish you the best. God bless you.

Sincerely,

Jonathan Nez, President

Dear Ms. Lincoln:

I am a 2014 law graduate of the University of Idaho College of Law. I write this letter to emphasize my interest in a Judge position with your office. I was sworn-in into the Navajo Nation Bar Association in June 2015 and have been a member in good standing ever since.

In law school, I focused my studies in the Native American law program with a concentration in economic development. I am enrolled with the Navajo tribe and speak Navajo at a high level of proficiency but I am not a fluent Navajo speaker. I also bring a combination of five years of litigation experience from my previous positions as a tribal law counselor and legal assistant, and I am very adept at legal research. I am interested in this opportunity particularly because I want to sharpen my understanding of the Navajo Nation justice system, and help the people of the Navajo Nation. It is my understanding that the Navajo Nation Judicial Branch prioritizes Dine Fundamental law and I would love the opportunity to obtain practice perspectives from your office as well as integrate it within the laws of the Navajo Nation.

After law school, I worked for New Mexico Legal Aid honing skills by assisting men, women, and children petition the Navajo Nation courts for protection orders, as well as teaching these survivors of domestic violence advocate for themselves, and assist individuals with disabilities file cases within the Administrative tribunal. I currently work at the Navajo Nation Department of Justice providing legal services to 110 Chapters and the Administrative Service Center, a division within the Division of Community Development.

I attached my resume, letter of interest and application. I hope that my past work experience will meet your needs. I look forward to the opportunity to speak with you further. If you have any questions, feel free to contact me.

Sincerely,

s/Neomi M. Gilmore
