President Jonathan Nez
The Office of the President & Vice-President
The Navajo Nation
P.O. Box 7440
Window Rock, AZ 86515

Dear President Nez,

I am writing to express my interest for serving in the position as Member of Board of Directors with Navajo Engineering & Construction Authority (NECA). I am confident I possess a combination of education, knowledge, and work (business and governmental) experience to be considered for appointment to the board.

I'm confident I meet the qualifications and requirement of serving on the Board of Directors under the plan of operation for NECA. In my previous experience of serving on the board, I have shown my dedication by contributing, collaborating, and assisting in making decisions in the best interest of NECA. I'm confident I can be a valuable participant and representative to the board. In the experience I have had, I've shown the ability to work with members of the board and with NECA Management.

Thank you for your time and consideration as a possible appointee to the Navajo Engineering & Construction Authority Board of Directors. I can be contacted at _____ or by email at _____ for any further questions.

Sincerely,
