20 Section Three. Terms and Conditions of Mission Site Permits with regard to review
21 and termination of the Mission Site Permits

- 22 A. The Navajo Nation Terms and Conditions for Mission Site Permit, FORM Mission Site
23 10/01-2014 at Paragraph Number 5 states:
24 “5. This Permit shall be reviewed every five (5) years to reevaluate the rent and 25 compliance with the terms and conditions.”
26 B. The Navajo Nation Terms and Conditions for Mission Site Permit, FORM Mission Site
27 10/01-2014 at Paragraph Number 15 states:
28 “15. The Navajo Nation may terminate the permit for violation of any of the terms and 29 conditions stated herein. In addition, the permit shall be terminable in whole or part by 30 the Navajo Nation or authorized representative for any of the following causes:

- a. Failure to comply with any terms and conditions of the permit or of applicable laws or regulations;
- b. Non-use of the permit; and
- c. The use of the land subject to the permit for any purpose inconsistent with the purpose for which the permit is granted.”

Section Four. Findings

A. The Resources and Development Committee has approved several Mission Site Permits for various religious institutions throughout the Navajo Nation. These Mission Site Permit resolutions have included the approval of Mission Site Permit Terms and Conditions.

B. The Mission Site Permit Terms and Conditions include a provision for a five-year review. For example, the Terms and Conditions for the Red Lake Grace Bible Church, Resolution RDCA-10-17 (with its Exhibit F, the Terms and Conditions) is attached as Exhibit 1.

C. The Terms and Conditions of RDCA-10-17’s Exhibit F states that “This Permit shall be reviewed every five (5) years to reevaluate the rent and compliance with the terms and conditions.”

D. There is uncertainty as to whether this “review” is to be performed by a Division of Natural Resources department or whether the Resources and Development Committee is to conduct the “review.”

E. The function of reviewing to reevaluate rent and compliance with the terms and conditions is an administrative function and should be performed by the Navajo Nation Land Department. The Resources and Development Committee is not an administrative body rather it is a policy making body.

D. If the Navajo Nation Land Department determines that the rent should be amended, the proposed amendment would be presented to the Resources and Development Committee through legislation. In addition, “If any missionary or mission group shall fail to pay yearly rental fees due, by December 30, prior to the year for which such fees

1 are due, the mission site permit granted such missionary or mission group shall
2 automatically terminate.” 16 N.N.C. § 1164.

- 3 F. If the Navajo Nation Land Department determines that the terms and conditions of the 4 mission site permit are not complied with, the terms and conditions state that the permit
5 may be terminated. A proposed termination of the mission site permit would be
6 presented to the Resources and Development Committee through legislation. Terms
7 and Conditions, Paragraph 15; 16 N.N.C. § 1152.

8
9 Section Five. Approval

- 10 A. The Resources and Development Committee of the Navajo Nation Council hereby 11 clarifies that the Terms and Conditions Paragraph 5 requirement to review a mission
12 site permit every five (5) years to reevaluate the rent and compliance with the terms
13 and conditions is an administrative responsibility.

- 14 B. The Resources and Development Committee of the Navajo Nation Council hereby 15 amends the Terms and Conditions of Mission Site Permits such that:

16 “This Permit shall be reviewed every five (5) years by the Navajo Nation Land
17 Department to reevaluate the rent and compliance with the terms and conditions.”
18

19 Section Six. Directive to Navajo Nation Land Department

20 The Navajo Nation Land Department is hereby directed to develop regulations for the 21 five-year reviews of Missions Site Permits to reevaluate the rent and compliance with 22 terms and conditions. These regulations are to be presented for approval to the 23 Resources and Development Committee 30 days after this resolution has been signed
24 by the Resources and Development Committee Chairperson, Vice-Chairperson or Pro
25 Tem Chairperson.

By acceptance of the grant of the permit, the Permittee covenants and agrees never to contest or challenge the legislative, executive or judicial jurisdiction of the Navajo Nation on the basis that such jurisdiction is inconsistent with the status of the Navajo Nation as an Indian nation, or that the Navajo Nation government is not a government of general jurisdiction, or that the Navajo Nation government does not possess full police power (i.e., the power to legislate and regulate for the general health and welfare) over all lands, persons and activities within its territorial boundaries, or on any other basis not generally applicable to a similar challenge to the jurisdiction of a state government. Nothing contained in this provision shall be construed to negate or impair federal responsibilities with respect to the land subject to the permit or to the Navajo Nation.

25. The terms and conditions contained herein shall extend to and be binding upon the successors, heirs, assigns, executors, administrators, employees and agents, including all contractors and subcontractors, of the Permittee, and the term "Permittee," whenever used herein, shall be deemed to include all such successors, heirs, assigns, executors, administrators, employees and agents.
