To Whom It May Concern:

I, Denise Johnson, am writing this letter in regards to re-enrollment to the Navajo Tribe. I am seeking re-enrollment to complete my process to obtain a homesite lease. I recently relinquished from the White Mountain Apache Tribe in February 2018.

The reason I relinquished from the Navajo Tribe was because the decrease in my Navajo Nation Scholarship in 2003. I was working toward an education in becoming a teacher. White Mountain Apache Tribe paid a large amount to my education. Now that I am a teacher serving in the ~~Navajo~~ Navajo Nation community. I would like to remain here and continue to teach Navajo students.

Therefore, my reenrollment to the Navajo Tribe would be beneficial to me, as well as our future students.

Thank you, Sincerely,

Re: Legislation 0240-19

Dear Navajo Nation Council and Sponsor Seth Damon,

I strongly disagree with this legislation (0240-19) and reinstatement of Ms. Denise Delilah Johnson because she is treating her census and identity as a game, going in and out of tribal enrollment here and there just to inherit monetary privileges given by different tribes. I understand the Navajo tribe is the largest Native American tribe but to go using other tribes for their money is immoral and disrespectful.

Thank you, Ms. Johnson for obtaining an education in teaching to help our Diné students but there are plenty of options out there that could have helped fund your tuition. I know our Navajo people have succeeded without having to relinquish themselves from their true identity.

There are other more important issues that should be brought before the Navajo Nation Council. If the Navajo Nation wasn't good enough then so be it.

Ahéhee
