Mr. Shirley,

I am submitting my letter of interest to be appointed to the Navajo Nation Telecommunication Regulatory Commission. My passion is to pursue telecommunications regulatory and development opportunities that require technical expertise in telecommunications and computer technologies, leadership and peer collaboration that exemplifies my knowledge, skill and abilities.

My past experience includes an array of duties and jobs that required vast knowledge of technology operations and providing solutions to the information technology sector. I also have past experience of 12 plus years with the Navajo Nation Telecommunications Regulatory Commission. The majority of my experience has been with information technologies, computer hardware and software systems. I am bringing my information technology expertise and leadership to NNTRC and to provide an impact to the NNTRC commission.

I am enthusiastic about forwarding my interest to be involved in the Begaye-Nez administration and their platform for the telecommunications industry. If additional documents or information is necessary, you may contact me at cellphone number

Thank you.

Sincerely,

Bobby Begaye

Dear Human Resources Review Team,

I am submitting my resume for Navajo Nation Telecommunications Regulatory Commission's Executive Director position and possibly the General Services Division Director. I have been a commissioner with NNTRC for twelve years and profoundly confident that I continue and enhance the business of telecommunication regulations of the Navajo Nation. I have over twenty five years of information technology experience and have had the opportunity in implementing software and technology projects for the Navajo Nation. I am also interested in the General Services Division Director position as it reflects my past job experiences in Fleet management, Information Services and Asset Management while my background will impact the division immediately.

I am keenly interested in a change for improved Navajo Nation business processes with technologies being the tool of success. I do speak our Dine language and proud of it.

Please inform me if further information is needed or your consideration of my interest, I can be reached at my cellphone number,

/s/ Bobby Begaye
