TRACKING NO. 0004-17

AN ACTION

RELATING TO HEALTH, EDUCATION AND HUMAN SERVICES AND NAABIK'ÍYÁTI'; DEMANDING THAT THE BUREAU OF INDIAN EDUCATION
AND THE SOLICITOR'S OFFICE SHARE WITH THE NAVAJO NATION THE SOLICITOR'S ANALYSIS AND INTERNAL DISCUSSIONS AND DELIBERATIONS ON PLANS TO REORGANIZE THE BUREAU OF INDIAN EDUCATION

Section One. Authority

1. The Health, Education and Human Services Committee (HEHSC) is a standing committee of the Navajo Nation Council. It is empowered to review and recommend resolutions regarding certain matters, including health, education and social services. 2 N.N.C. §§ 164 (A)(9), 400 (A), 401 (B)(6)(a) (2012); see also CO-45-12.

2. The Naabik'íyáti' Committee of the Navajo Nation Council, among other duties and responsibilities, "coordinate[s] all federal, county and state programs with other standing committees and branches of the Navajo Nation government to provide the most efficient delivery of services to the Navajo Nation. 2 N.N.C. §701(A)(4).

Section Two. Findings

1. The Bureau of Indian Education (BIE) states as its mission, "to provide quality education opportunities from early childhood through life in accordance with a tribe's

1 needs for cultural and economic well-being, in keeping with the wide diversity of Indian
2 tribes and Alaska Native villages as distinct cultural and governmental entities. Further,
3 the BIE is to manifest consideration of the whole person by taking into account the 4 spiritual, mental, physical, and cultural aspects of the individual within his or her family
5 and tribal or village context." www.bie.edu.

6 2. There are currently plans to reform and reorganized the BIE. The Navajo Nation is 7 concerned that these plans for reform and reorganization are not being shared with Indian 8 tribes, the major stakeholders under all educational programs managed and operated by 9 the BIE. The Navajo Nation must be consulted on all plans for reform and all efforts in 10 reorganizing the BIE. Certainly, any reform and reorganization of a program established
11 for the benefit of Indian children impact trust responsibilities owed by the federal 12 government. Similar requests for information have been made by the National Indian 13 Education Association. See attached Exhibits A, B, C and D.

14 3. A governing principle of the Department of the Interior's policies on Tribal 15 Consultation is stated as:

16 "Consultation is a deliberative process that aims to create effective collaboration and 17 informed Federal decision-making. Consultation is built upon government-to-government
18 exchange of information and promotes enhanced communication that emphasizes trust, 19 respect, and shared responsibility. Communication will be open and transparent without 20 compromising the rights of Indian Tribes or the government-to-government consultation
21 process. Federal consultation conducted in a meaningful and good-faith manner further
22 facilitates effective Department operations and governance practices. To that end, Bureaus
23 and Offices will seek and promote cooperation, participation, and efficiencies between 24 agencies with overlapping jurisdiction, special expertise, or related responsibilities
25 regarding a Departmental Action with Tribal Implications. Efficiencies derived from the 26 inclusion of Indian Tribes in the Department's decision-making processes through Tribal 27 consultation will help ensure that future Federal action is achievable, comprehensive, long-
28 lasting, and reflective of Tribal input."

1 Section Three. Demanding Solicitor's Analysis and Information on Internal
2 Discussions on Plans to Reorganize the Bureau of Indian Education

3 1. In regards to all plans for reforming and reorganizing the Bureau of Indian Education,
4 the Navajo Nation requests that the Bureau of Indian Education comply with all policies
5 on Tribal Consultation as mandated by the Department of the Interior.

6 2. Consistent with the federal government's trust responsibilities, and pursuant to Tribal
7 Consultation policies, the Navajo Nation demands that the Bureau of Indian Education
8 share with the Navajo Nation all plans to reform and reorganize the Bureau of Indian 9 Education, including any internal discussions and deliberations on the subject matter.
10 The Navajo Nation further demands copies of the Office of the Solicitor's Analysis on 11 plans to reorganize the Bureau of Indian Education.

Dear President Begaye,

Dear Ms. Barney Nez,

I write to update you on the outcome of a resolution that Ms. Angela Barney Nez submitted at the National Indian Education Association's (NIEA) Annual Convention in Reno, NV last October, Resolution 2016Eg02, "Relating to the Legal and Policy Issues Concerning the Reorganization of the Bureau of Indian Education(BIE) to Portions of its Implementation."

The Resolution called on NIEA to renew our request for a thorough legal and policy review of the Bureau of Indian Education (BIE) reorganization and to make sure BIE is accountable for serving Native students optimally through its organizational structure.

Attached you will find the letter NIEA sent to Secretary of Interior Sally Jewel requesting the legal analysis and deliberations that the BIE has undergone in the course of its reorganization efforts under its Blueprint for Reform (Reform). NIEA specifically noted in our request concerns that the Reform will only succeed if it is solidly founded on the trust relationship and an inclusive, cooperative framework of tribes and local stakeholders. We also called on the Department of Interior to enter into negotiated rulemaking with tribes.

We are also enclosing the letter from the BIE and Department of Interior's Office of the Solicitor that responds to NIEA's request. The response states that the BIE and the Solicitor's Office will not share the Solicitor's Office analysis and internal deliberations. The Secretary's letter also sought to address some of the concerns that we raised in our letter regarding consultation, the need for BIE to serve Native students well, and Congressional oversight.

NIEA still believes that the release of the Solicitor's opinion is necessary and has filed a Freedom of Information Act request for its release. While we have not yet received the response, we will review it as soon as it arrives and follow up to make the case for tribal involvement in this critical matter.

Thank you for your leadership and for your continued commitment to making sure that BIE reorganization serves Native students. NIEA will continue to work on this issue and will keep you updated appropriately as to developments.

Sincerely,

NATIONAL INDIAN EDUCATION
Advancing Excellence for All Native Students

October e5, e016

The Honorable Sally Jewell, Secretary
U.S. Department of the Interior
1e49 C Street NW
Washington, DC e0e40

Re: Request for the Release of Bureau of Indian Education (BIE) Reform Analysis

Dear Secretary Jewell,

On behalf of the National Indian Education Association (NIEA), the largest and oldest Native organization representing over 2,500 Native educators, students, teachers, parents, and tribal leaders, we thank you for your leadership and support on Native education. NIEA looks to the Department of Interior (DOI) as an extension of the federal government charged with fulfilling the federal trust responsibility to tribes. This includes ensuring that Native students are provided an equal opportunity to be academically successful, particularly those attending Bureau of Indian (BIE) funded and operated facilities.

NIEA has cautiously supported the reorganization efforts of the BIE's Blueprint for Reform (Reform). However, as efforts to reorganize the BIE move forward, they must be done with vigilance and be mindful of the established trust responsibility that exists between tribes and the federal government. Through treaties, federal law, and U.S. Supreme Court decisions, the federal government has a moral and fiduciary obligation toward parity in access and equitable resources to Native education. The Reform will only succeed if BIE continues to move forward with a solid foundation of the trust relationship and an inclusive, cooperative framework of tribes and local stakeholders.

From the vantage point of ensuring that the Reform proceeds in a manner that upholds its statute requirements, NIEA renews its respectful request for an analysis on the Reform from the Solicitor's Office. Specifically, we would like an inquiry on whether the Reform complies with and is reflective of laws P.L. 95-651: An Act to Extend and Amend Expiring Elementary and Secondary Education Programs, and for Other Purposes and P.L. 100-297: Tribally Controlled School Grants Act of 1988. Both of which require the Secretary to enter into negotiated rulemaking with tribes.

NIEA membership supported and passed Resolution 2010-07 "Assessment of the Bureau of Indian Education U.S. Department of Interior" over five years ago. Our organization and membership have been awaiting the release of the analysis – and, with the Reform entering the second phase, our membership was clear at our 2016 Annual Convention, through passage of Resolution 2016-E-02 "Relating to Legal and Policy Issues Concerning the Reorganization of the Bureau of Indian Education (BIE) to Portions of its Implementation," that we must restate our request and express our concern about any continuous rollout until the analysis is completed and publicly released.

The BIE Reform process, as well as the attention that Native youth and education are receiving, has the potential to make a meaningful impact in the lives of Native students and their communities. We cannot miss this opportunity. Working together, we are confident that we can build the collaborative relationships necessary to strengthen tribal self-determination in education. NIEA will be sharing our support and guidance for the BIE Reform with Congress and tribal leaders.

Sincerely,

Yatibaey Evans
President
