21 § 1038. Civil assessments

22 Individuals violating the prohibitions in § 1031 or § 1037 of this Act shall be subject to civil
23 assessments. Civil assessments shall be imposed by the Resources and Development Committee
24 of the Navajo Nation Council (hereafter referred to as the "Resources and Development
25 Committee"), in accordance with procedures adopted by the Resources and Development
26 Committee expressly for this purpose. The Resources and Development Committee shall adopt
27 such procedures within 90 days of the adoption of this Act.

28 A. Violation of the provisions of § 1031 or § 1037 of this Act by any person who does
29 business on the Navajo Nation shall be grounds for withdrawal of the privilege of doing business
30 within the Navajo Nation. The Resources and Development Committee shall consider whether or

1 not to recommend to the Navajo Nation Council that any individual found to have violated §
2 1031 or § 1037 shall lose the privilege of doing business within the Navajo Nation.

3 ~~B. Any non-Indian who visits or inspects cultural resources on Navajo lands without a valid~~
4 ~~Class A permit shall be committing trespass. Such individuals determined to be in trespass after a~~
5 ~~hearing before the Resources Committee of the Navajo Nation Council, shall be assessed a civil~~
6 ~~forfeiture of not more than one hundred dollars ($100.00) for the first offense and not more than~~
7 ~~five hundred dollars ($500.00) for each subsequent offense. For the purposes of this part, each~~
8 ~~visit to or inspection of a cultural resource on Navajo lands shall be considered a separate~~
9 ~~offense. The Resources Committee may, at its discretion, recommend to the Navajo Nation~~
10 ~~Council that any person found to be in trespass be excluded from the Navajo Nation.~~

11 Any non-Indian alleged to have committed any offense enumerated in 19 N.N.C. §1037
12 shall be subject to civil assessments administered by the Resources and Development
13 Committee. In no event shall such a civil assessment permit incarceration of a non-Indian or 14 permit the imposition of a criminal fine against a non-Indian.

15 ~~C. Any non-Indian who engages in cultural resources inventory activities on Navajo lands,~~
16 ~~except under the authority of a valid Class B permit shall be committing trespass. Any individual~~
17 ~~determined to be in trespass after a hearing before the Resources Committee, shall be assessed a~~
18 ~~civil forfeiture of not more than one thousand dollars ($1000) for each offense. For the purposes~~
19 ~~of this part, each inventory on Navajo lands shall be considered a separate offense. The~~
20 ~~Resources Committee shall consider whether or not to recommend to the Navajo Nation Council~~
21 ~~that any individual found to have violated this prohibition be excluded from the Navajo Nation.~~

22 Procedure. Civil assessments under this section shall be conducted in accordance with the 23 Resources and Development Committee's procedures for civil assessments. The non-Indian civil 24 defendant shall be afforded all the heightened protections available to a criminal defendant under
25 those rules including, but not limited to, the more stringent burden of proof beyond a reasonable 26 doubt.

27 ~~D. Any individual within Navajo lands who alters, collects, damages, defaces, destroys,~~
28 ~~excavates, removes or sells cultural resources or who collects ethnographic data without a valid~~
29 ~~Class C permit, or as permitted under the exceptions detailed in § 1033, or who engages in~~
30 ~~activities in violation of the terms and conditions of a valid permit shall be liable, after a hearing~~

1 ~~before the Resources Committee, to the Navajo Nation for civil damages as determined by the~~
2 ~~Resources Committee as follows:~~

3 Nothing in this section shall be deemed to preclude exercise of criminal jurisdiction over
4 any person who, by reason of assuming tribal relations with the Navajo people or being an "in 5 law" or hadane or relative as defined by Navajo common law, custom, or tradition, submits
6 himself or herself to the criminal jurisdiction of the Navajo Nation.

7 E. Civil Assessments. Upon a finding that a non-Indian committed any of the enumerated
8 offenses in §1037, the Resources and Development Committee may impose any of the following
9 civil assessments in any combination deemed appropriate by the committee:

10 1. Assessment of Actual Damages. The Resources and Development Committee
11 shall impose the civil assessments based upon actual damages in accordance with 12 "Standards for Assessing Damages to Cultural Properties" that the Resources and 13 Development Committee shall adopt expressly for this purpose. The "Standards for 14 Assessing Damages to Cultural Resources" shall include, but need not necessarily limit 15 consideration to:

- 16 a. Full costs of restoration of the cultural resource;
17 b. Enforcement and administrative costs associated with the 18 civil action;
19 c. Costs of disposition of cultural resources, including as appropriate, costs
20 of curation in perpetuity;
21 d. Costs associated with documentation, testing and evaluation of the 22 cultural resource in order to assess the characteristics of the cultural resource and 23 plan for its restoration; and
24 e. Costs of any additional mitigation measures the Resources and 25 Development Committee deems appropriate to implement.

26 2. Assessment of Treble Damages. In addition to the actual damages, the 27 Resources and Development Committee may, at its discretion, assess damages of up to 28 three (3) times the amount of the actual damages.

29 3. Seizure of Equipment and Cultural Resources. The ~~existing~~ resource enforcement
30 officer shall seize all cultural resources in the possession of any individual cited under §

1 1031 of this Act, together with any other property used for or related to the violation in
2 the possession of the individual cited, as the officer may deem necessary to obtain
3 payment of any civil assessment.

4 4. Forfeiture of Cultural Resources and Property. After hearing before the 5 Resources and Development Committee:

6 a. Any cultural resources obtained in violation of this Act shall be
7 forfeited to the Navajo Nation;

8 b. Any other property seized in accordance with § 1038(D)(3), shall be 9 released to the owner upon timely payment of any related civil assessments; and

10 c. Any seized property shall be forfeited to the Navajo Nation if the 11 assessment has not been paid within 15 days of the hearing at which the civil 12 assessment was levied or pursuant to this Act, whichever is later. Any such 13 forfeiture shall be limited to the amount of the civil assessment. Any property
14 remaining after forfeiture of property up to the value of the assessment shall be 15 returned to the owner.

16 5. Exclusion. The Resources and Development Committee may file for an 17 exclusion order in accordance with 17 N.N.C. § 1901(B).

18 6. A civil fine.

19 7. Civil forfeiture for specific violations:

20 a. Trespass as defined in 19 N.N.C. §1037(A)(1). Any non-Indian
21 convicted of trespass shall be assessed the following:

22 i. First Offense. Civil forfeiture of not more than one hundred
23 dollars ($100).

24 ii. Second or subsequent offense. Civil forfeiture of not more
25 than five hundred dollars ($500).

26 iii. Exclusion. The Resources and Development Committee
27 may file for an exclusion order in accordance with 17
28 N.N.C. § 1901(B).

1                    b. Failure to obtain the necessary permits as defined in 19 N.N.C.
2                    §1037(A)(7). Any non-Indian convicted of trespass shall be assessed the 3                    following:

- 4                    i.            Civil forfeiture of not more than one thousand dollars
5                    ($1000) for each offense.
6                    ii.          Exclusion. The Resources and Development Committee
7                    may file for an exclusion order in accordance with 17
8                    N.N.C. § 1901(B).

9            EF. Civil assessments imposed under this part shall be reserved solely for the purposes of 10 restoring damaged cultural resources and for meeting the purposes of this Act and shall be 11 deposited in the Historic Preservation Fund Management Plan Revolving Account for 12 disbursement in accordance with Navajo Nation budgetary procedures.

13           FG. Any individual assessed by the Resources and Development Committee pursuant to §
14 1038 of this Act shall have the right to appeal the decision of the Resources and Development
15 Committee to the Navajo Nation District Court as follows:

16                    1. Any appeal must be filed in writing with the Navajo Nation District Court
17                    within 30 days of notification of the action of the Resources and Development
18                    Committee;

19                    2. The review by the Navajo Nation District Court shall be limited to:

- 20                    a. Ensuring that the appellant received due process of law; and 21                    b. Ensuring that any rights the individual may have under the Navajo
22                    Nation Bill of Rights and the Indian Civil Rights Act (25 U.S.C. §1301– 23                    ~~1341~~ 1304) were observed; and

24                    3. Consideration by the Navajo Nation District Court shall be limited to review of 25 the administrative record created before the Resources and Development Committee
26 during the hearing before it.

1       Section Four. Historic Preservation Fund Management Plan

2       The Navajo Nation Historic Preservation Department shall develop a Historic Preservation
3 Fund Management Plan. The Navajo Nation Historical Preservation Department shall submit the 4 Historic Preservation Fund Management Plan to the Resources and Development Committee and
5 the Budget and Finance Committee for approval within six months of enactment.

6       Section Five. Codification

7       The provisions of the Act which amend or adopt new sections of the Navajo Nation Code
8 shall be codified by the Office of Legislative Counsel. The Office of Legislative Counsel shall 9 incorporate such amended provisions in the next codification of the Navajo Nation Code.

10       Section Six. Savings Clause

11       Should any provision of this Act be determined invalid by the Navajo Nation Supreme Court
12 or the District Courts of the Navajo Nation, without appeal to the Navajo Nation Supreme Court,
13 the remainder of the Act shall remain the law of the Navajo Nation.

14       Section Seven. Effective Date

Carolyn R. West, Attorney
Office of Legislative Counsel

DATE: April 1, 2016

SUBJECT: OLC Service Request Number 16-061-1: An Action Relating to Law and Order, Resources and Development, Naabik'íyáti' Committees and Navajo Nation Council; Amending Navajo Nation Code, Title 19: Navajo Nation Cultural Resources Protection Act

As requested, I prepared the above-reference proposed resolution and associated legislative summary sheet. Based on existing law, the resolution drafted is legally sufficient. However, as with all legislation, the proposed resolution is subject to review by the courts in the event of a challenge. You are encouraged to review the proposed resolution to ensure this is drafted to your satisfaction.

The Office of Legislative Council recommends the appropriate standing committee(s) reviews based on the standing committees powers outlined in 2 N.N.C. §§ 301, 401, 501, 601 and 701. Nevertheless, "the Speaker of the Navajo Nation Council shall introduce [the proposed resolution] into the legislative process by assigning it to the respective oversight committee(s) of the Navajo Nation Council having authority over the matters for proper consideration. 2 N.N.C. § 164(A)(5).

If you are satisfied with the proposed resolution, please sign as "Primary Sponsor" and submit to the Office of Legislative Services where the proposed resolution will be given a tracking number and sent to the Office of the Speaker for assignment.

If the proposed legislation is unacceptable to you, please contact me at the Office of Legislative Counsel and advise me of the changes you would like to make.
