Dear Honorable Yellowhair,

Please download and copy the attached Resolution for BMRB Rep for Kayenta Area. The individual, Philip Etsitty lives on Black Mesa inside the Peabody Lease boundary.

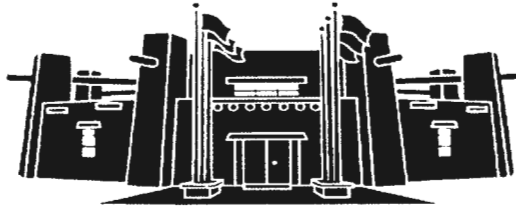

The document is PDF and I am unable to convert it on my computer at this time. BMRB appreciates your assistance in this matter. The legislation needs to be expedited because there has not been a BMRB meeting for the general public since last October 2020 due to lack of quorum. Please help BMRB continue their mission.

Thank you so much,

Fern Benally

Dear Navajo Nation Council,

I support the confirmation of Phillip Etsitty to the Black Mesa Review Board. Phillip is a lifelong resident of Black Mesa and is a community leader for decades. He served on the Black Mesa United-Dziljijii. Bee Ahota (BMU-DzBA), Inc Board of Directors and on the local mine union. I served on the BMU-DzBA Board with him and worked to advocate for the Black Mesa community for water, power, clean environment, educational opportunities and more. I have witnessed him advocate for his local mine union for jobs and speak prayers at the funerals. I believe Phillip is an excellent board candidate for BMRB for his leadership experience, familiarity of the Black Mesa community and his passion. Ahe'hee.
