3 §2502 Purpose

25
26 SECTION TWO. FINDINGS

27 A. The Navajo Townsite Community Development Corporation (“NTC”) is a nonprofit
28 corporation that was duly established in 1989 under the laws of the Navajo Nation.

29 EXHIBIT A. The U.S. Internal Revenue Service has verified that NTC is exempt from 30 federal income tax under 26 U.S.C. §501(c)(3). EXHIBIT B. NTC received a Certificate of

1 Good Standing under the Navajo Nation Corporation Code on December 7, 2021, issued by 2 the Navajo Nation Business Regulatory Department. EXHIBIT C.

3 B. NTC's purposes, among others, is to address the problems of the Navajo and Red Lake
4 Chapter communities, including the deterioration and vandalism of many structures located
5 in the area, and the resulting blight that negatively affects the entire area. See 6 www.navajotownsite.org.

7 C. NTC manages 53 old residential units in Navajo, pursuant to a Management Agreement
8 between the Navajo Nation and NTC that was entered into in March of 2002. EXHIBIT D.
9 These 53 units were once used as employee housing for the employees of the now-defunct
10 Navajo Forest Products Industry, and most are currently unoccupied, condemned, boarded 11 up, or fire-damaged. EXHIBIT E.

12 D. To assist NTC with its goal to significantly improve the Navajo and Red Lake Chapter
13 communities, NTC is requesting $500,000 from the Síhasin Fund for its proposed "Phase I
14 Project" that will consist of the thorough assessment, removal, and cleanup of the 53
15 dilapidated housing units. EXHIBIT E.

16 E. The NTC Board of Directors adopted Resolution No. NTCDC-21-13 which explains NTC's
17 request for the $500,000. EXHIBIT F.

18 F. To explain and justify its funding request, NTC has prepared a comprehensive white paper 19 titled: "Demolition of Blighted Housing Units within the Community of Navajo, New 20 Mexico" dated April 2021 and revised December 2021. EXHIBIT G.

21 G. NTC has also provided a Budget Breakdown for the $500,000 requested amount, as well as 22 photos showing a few of the old units that NTC will be demolishing. EXHIBIT H.

23 H. The Red Lake Chapter adopted Resolution No. RLC-01-22-02, dated January 19, 2022, 24 wherein the Chapter supports NTC's proposal and requests the Navajo Nation to approve the 25 $500,000 Síhasin funding request. EXHIBIT I.

26 I. Approval of the $500,000 as requested by NTC meets the criteria for Síhasin expenditures
27 as described in 12 N.N.C. §2502(A)(1), because NTC's proposed Project will facilitate 28 economic and community development in the Navajo and Red Lake Chapter communities.
29 In addition, the Project will involve the assessment, removal, remediation, and cleanup of 30 housing and commercial buildings, and appurtenant facilities and infrastructure.

12 thirds (2/3) vote of the full membership of the Navajo Nation Council.

14 Síhasin Fund Principal or Síhasin Fund Income, or a combination of both.

16 immediately returned to the Síhasin Fund Principal once NTC's expenditures for its proposed 17 Phase I Project are completed, or upon the reversion deadline in Section Three (E) below.

18 E. The $500,000 shall not lapse on an annual basis, which would otherwise occur pursuant to 19 12 N.N.C. §820(N). However, any Síhasin funds not spent or encumbered within twenty-
20 four (24) months of the effective date of this Act shall then revert to the Síhasin Fund
21 Principal, unless otherwise approved by the Navajo Nation Council.

4 agreement, memorandum of agreement, or other legal document establishing a project
5 schedule, payment or drawdown plan, fund management plan, or other relevant procedures,
6 has been agreed to by the Controller and is executed by NTC and the Navajo Nation.

7 C. The $500,000 in Síhasin funds shall be used by NTC strictly for its Phase I Project as 8 described in in the attached EXHIBITS E, G, and H. NTC shall be responsible for complying
9 with the Expenditure Plan detailed therein and with all provisions of the agreement described 10 in Section Four (B) above.

11 D. As a condition of the $500,000 in Síhasin funds, NTC shall allow the Navajo Nation full 12 access to its financial records related to the Síhasin funds NTC has received, for the purpose
13 of the Navajo Nation's review and audit of NTC's expenditures of the Síhasin funds.

Sihasin FundingPurpose: Assess, remove, abate, and/or demolish blighted, condemned, burned units*Amount Requested: $500,000

Background: There are 53 units currently uninhabited, condemned, boarded, and/or burned units scattered throughout the community of Navajo. These units are part of the original 118 units which were built by the former Navajo Forest Products Industries (NFPI) for employee housing. Under a Management Agreement, the Navajo Townsite Community Development Corporation (NTCDC) now manages these units for the Navajo Nation. NTCDC is requesting to use ARPA funds to assess 85% of the units (15% have been assessed already) to determine if units need to be abated for asbestos or lead and demolished or just directly demolished. The removal of these units will be in phases. This first phase (the funds requested in this application) includes removal of all burned units (11 units—noted in black within green boundary) and units along Cypress (highlighted in orange). Phase 2 and Phase 3 will target other units at a later date (but referenced here just for fuller understanding of the overall project).

Executive Summary

Navajo Townsite Community Development Corporation is a housing management entity operating in the community of Navajo, New Mexico which lies entirely in the Red Lake #18 Chapter. The community has a population of about 2,450 people and many live in subsidized public rental dwellings offered to the public by Navajo Townsite Community Development Corporation, Navajo Housing Authority, Sandstone Housing, and Gallup-McKinley County Schools throughout the community of Navajo, NM. Unfortunately, the community is underserved and impoverished which are plainly reflected with many long-term vacant, vandalized, and/or burned houses and other buildings throughout the community. Other homes have fallen into disrepair and are in dire need of renovation and/or replacement entirely. However, a glimmer of hope exists in that Navajo, New Mexico is within easy commuting distance of Fort Defiance and Window Rock, Arizona where many prosperous job prospects exist with entities such as the Tsehootsooi Medical Center, Navajo Tribal Utility Authority, Navajo Housing Authority, and the Navajo Nation government. Further, Navajo Townsite Community Development Corporation (NTCDC) finds itself in the encouraging position of immediate access to land though an existing land lease meant for the development of housing within the community of Navajo, New Mexico. This acreage of land has existing infrastructure of water, wastewater, and electricity. The careful planning and development of a new multi-family housing complex on the site will open a window to allow for consolidation and relocation of existing tenants, demolition, and re-development of the blighted areas of the community and eventually lead to new housing options for the community for a broad array of tenants and/or homebuyers of varying incomes levels. This in turn will create a healthy, sustainable and diverse community with potential to support more community and economic development opportunities within the town of Navajo, New Mexico. A phased approach to remove the blighted, condemned, and dilapidated homes will cost nearly $2.52M in total.

Introduction

Navajo Townsite Community Development Corporation (NTCDC) is a small 501(c)(3) community development non-profit business located in Navajo (Navajo Nation), McKinley County, New Mexico. Created in 1989, the small non-profit primarily focuses its operations on housing management; in fact, there are three existing housing management programs titled as: NAHASDA Public Rentals, NAHASDA Homeownership, and NTCDC Public Rentals. NTCDC manages twenty-five (25) Native American Housing Assistance and Self-Determination Act (NAHASDA) Public Rental units and fifteen (15) NAHASDA Lease-to-own Homeownership units that were built in the last 10-15 years for low- and moderate-income families. There were 117 NTCDC public rentals which are approximately 50-60 years old and in need of renovation and/or demolition and rebuild. However, over time many have been deemed unsafe to live in and now only 65 are occupied/rented. The annual revenue from these three housing programs averages about $490,000; however, expenses average about the same each year as well.

The organization is run by a 5-member Board of Directors, Executive Director, Associate Director, Bookkeeper/Payroll Manager, Resident Intake/Occupancy Manager, Administrative Assistant, Lead Maintenance Technician, and 3 Additional Maintenance Technicians. Some areas of expertise of the current make-up of the Board of Directors include government leadership, housing management leadership, as well as finance and investments. Recent changes to the executive leadership now include an Executive Director with education and experience in community development, community planning, organizational administration, program management, supervisory experience, and grants writing, administration, and management. The Associate Director has more than 30 years of experience in housing maintenance, program management, and administration.

The Navajo Townsite Community Development Corporation aspires to become a leader in community development within the small community of Navajo, NM. The town of Navajo has a rich history that begins when the Navajo Tribal Council, in the late 1950's, established the Navajo Forest Products Industry (NFPI), one of the first enterprises of the Navajo Nation. NFPI flourished from the 1960's through the 1980's, providing jobs to hundreds of Navajos from across the Navajo Nation; as a result, NFPI built many homes to accommodate the influx of new employees/residents/families to the town of Navajo. In the late 1980's NFPI Board of Directors worked to establish NTCDC to help manage the employee housing units and trailer parks; hence NTCDC was incorporated in 1989 under the Navajo Nation. Unfortunately, the mid-1990's saw the abrupt closure of NFPI by the Navajo Nation. NTCDC, being a wholly separate non-profit entity, carried on and in 1999 began the process of acquiring a Master Lease from the Navajo Nation. This Master Lease contains two areas denoted as Tract A and Tract B (see attachment B). In the late 2000's, NTCDC was able to secure NAHASDA grant funding through Navajo Housing Authority to build 25 public rental units and 15 lease-to-own homeownership units. These units were completed by 2012 and have been occupied since that time.

Concerns about Housing Issues in Navajo, NM

The community of Navajo, New Mexico (population approx. 2,450) is an underserved community in which the 52.8% is below the age of 25 and 5.6% is age 65 and older (retirement age). Economically speaking, the community of Navajo is impoverished and is disproportionately impacted as compared to other communities in New Mexico and the United States. According to the latest results of the American Community Survey, Navajo, NM's median household income is $21,500 whereas for New Mexico and the U.S. it is $49,754 and $62,843, respectively. Residents of Navajo experience significantly more poverty and unemployment as such the unemployment rate is 16.8% and New Mexico is at 6.7%. Additionally, the community is in the 92nd - 99th percentile for Demographic Indexes including minority, low income, populations under 5 years of age and linguistically isolated populations compared to the rest of U.S.

Of those within the local population who are employed (it should be noted that the community of Navajo shows about 48.7% of the population are within working ages of 20-65), 83.8% own a vehicle and commute an average of 26 minutes to work which appears consistent with industry employment options. Many of those who are employed work in various government (federal, state, county, or tribal) offices located in Fort Defiance and Window Rock, Arizona which are both approximately 13 to 18 miles in distance, respectively, from the community of Navajo, New Mexico. A significant portion of those employed work in the healthcare and education industries

(33.0%) such as the local school districts of Gallup-McKinley County Schools in New Mexico and Window Rock Unified Schools in Arizona and the Tsehootsooi Medical Center located in Fort Defiance, Arizona.

It is widely known “an estimated 34,000 homes are needed to address the Navajo Nation's chronic housing shortage” (Navajo Housing Authority). Certainly, the community of Navajo is not immune to this chronic issue. There is an estimated 400+ homes in the community of Navajo with 73.1% occupied as either rental or home-owned and a 26.9% vacancy rate, according to the latest 2019 American Community Survey. Unfortunately for Navajo Townsite Community Development Corporation, the 26.9% rate can be attributed to the many vacant and condemned units that NTCDC is responsible for managing. These homes (NTCDC Public Rentals) were initially built and managed by the former NFPI to house employees beginning in the late 1950's/early 1960's; therefore, we can estimate that these homes are between 40-60 years old. It is imperative to note that these homes are in dire need of repair, in fact, the homes that are beyond repair are slated as uninhabitable, at which point, they are boarded up and left vacant.

Boarding up and leaving a unit vacant results in a snowball effect of issues for the community. The first issue being, the boarded up vacant homes are old and most likely built with asbestos and lead paints, thus, simple demolition and rebuild become impossible rather these houses need proper abatement, demolition and disposal which have increasingly greater costs with each year. Secondly, the vacant homes are attractive for vandalism, locations for transients and/or young people to shelter or “party” or for scavengers looking to strip the houses for copper wiring and exposing themselves to the environmental hazards mentioned previously. Thirdly, the utilities are shut off to the abandoned, boarded up homes so there are no electricity, water or wastewater utilities and particularly in the winter, the unauthorized inhabitation of these houses can mean transients might build a fire to keep warm or in the case of several houses, vandals have intentionally or accidentally set fire to a vacant house. Fourthly, some of these old houses which were recently sampled by NTCDC were found to have Asbestos Containing Material present in the interior wall texture, ceilings, and for some in the floor tiles and are an environmental danger to the community at large when the burned houses release the asbestos fibers into the air. Over the years, there are 11 houses that have been set on fire and are now in varying states of destruction throughout the community. Another 30+ abandoned homes are boarded up and vacant. It is a matter of time before those homes are set ablaze too. This can be dangerous for neighboring houses being in such close proximity to one of these vacant homes because there is a risk of damage from a fire to their rental homes and other property. Further complicating such events is the response time by the local fire department, McKinley County Fire, which is a volunteer unit; as such they are not at the fire station around the clock, so a blaze at one of the abandoned houses can burn hot and happen very quickly in some instances.

On a community wide level, these boarded up and abandoned homes are very disheartening to see daily, further contributing to the general despair and depression within the community. The 2016 Tsehootsooi Medical Center Community Health Needs Assessment noted that “A community's health also is affected by the physical environment. A safe, clean environment that provides access to healthy food and recreational opportunities is important to maintaining and improving community health.” Further, residents informed that they were afraid to exercise outdoors (walking, jogging, biking, etc.), “the barriers include stray dogs, rattle snakes, gangs, drunken individuals, and unsafe drivers.” And exercising beside the road is not a safe place to exercise especially in the evenings because of the general dangerous state of many of the houses in their neighborhoods. It also should be noted that “... 36.7% of the population indicating that they don’t have adequate social/emotional support, there will be higher rates of negative behavioral health outcomes... evident... when suicide is highlighted.”

Internally, Navajo Townsite Community Development loses revenue with every house that is deemed uninhabitable and vacant. At present, NTCDC’s revenue ranges from $485,000 to $500,000 per year; however, expenses also range at about just the same. Below is a graph of revenue and expenses from the past 3 years showing there is almost no profit and nearly all revenues gained are used to cover operating expenses. Therefore, NTCDC finds it nearly impossible to generate enough profit to cover costs to demolish and/or thoroughly renovate these homes.

EXPENSES AND REVENUE 2017-2020

Furthermore, NTCDC currently spends an average of $61,250 per year on repairs and small renovation costs on these older public rentals. The following graph will also demonstrate renovation and repair costs to these homes over the past 3 years. Note: NTCDC Public Rentals are the majority of repair/renovation costs (79%) when compared to the NAHASDA Public Rentals (11%) and NAHASDA Homeownership Units (10%). At a certain point, these repair costs would outweigh the costs to continue to rent out these properties.

Year	2018	2019	2020
NTCDC Public Rentals	$66,487.84	$51,076.44	$66,195.55
NAHASDA Public Rentals	$9,015.64	$8,795.00	$8,527.01
NAHASDA Homeownership	$8,509.47	$7,353.63	$6,935.16
Total	$84,012.95	$67,225.07	$81,657.72

Renovation & Repair Costs by Program 2018-2020

Solutions to address housing in Navajo, NM

Navajo Townsite Community Development Corporation is seeking funding for:

Solution. The demolition, remediation, and/or renovation or rebuild of burned out, condemned, vacant, and inhabited old homes (NTCDC Public Rentals) which number about 117 in total.

Navajo Townsite Community Development Corporation would like to remove the debris and foundation of the 11 burned units (these are houses 2 houses located on Cypress Street, 1 house located on Pinon Place, 3 units on Birch Place, 2 units on Maple Place, 1 unit on Balsam Court, and 2 units on Lone Pine Drive). All the houses were sampled for asbestos and 4 units are found to have detection of asbestos. There are also an additional 31 homes that are currently boarded up and are long-term vacancies due to being uninhabitable. These are homes of varying size (2-, 3-, or 4-bedrooms) with attached or detached storage sheds and garages and carports. Sampling of two 4-bedroom units has resulted in detections of Asbestos Containing Material (ACM) and will require formal asbestos abatement of the houses prior to demolition.

The demolition and removal of these blighted homes is important to the social, emotional, physical and environmental welfare of the community. "Blight is a cancer, ... If you don't get rid of blight it just keeps spreading and keeps spreading and keeps spreading. It will kill a neighborhood. It will absolutely kill it." (Shank, Hana, "Blight is eating American cities. Here's how Mobile, Alabama, stopped it", Fast Company, June 2019). NTCDC certainly doesn't want our little community to die. However, we acknowledge that the community has echoed concerns, frustrations, and anger in countless Red Lake #18 Chapter meetings, community meetings, and through online social media platforms. A resolution is provided in Attachment C supporting the removal of the blighted and condemned homes throughout the community of Navajo. And while, NTCDC agrees that the removal of these blighted buildings is very much needed, the costs to remove blight is exorbitantly high in our relatively remote location. The average costs in

New Mexico and Arizona to abate asbestos ranges from $20,000 to $30,000 for a single 1,500 square foot home. Further, the NTCDC homes range in square footage from 972 square foot for a 2-bedroom house to 1,700 square feet for a 4-bedroom house. By these estimates, asbestos abatement alone may cost higher than $1M! Additional fees apply for demolition, disposal, and hauling costs for the rest of the house.

Navajo Townsite Community Development Corporation proposes the following Phases for the removal of blight.

Solution 2 Phase 1: Abate and demolish (including remove concrete foundations) all 11 burned units in and around the community of Navajo, New Mexico. Abate and demolish the remainder of condemned, vacated houses (13 units) that are located throughout the community of Navajo, NM. Abate and demolish the 19 condemned (boarded) houses along Cypress Place (see map). Mostly 3- and 4-bedroom houses, the sizes of the houses range from 1,152 sq. ft., 1,296 sq. ft., to 1,792 sq. ft. In total, there are 11 burned units, 13 vacant condemned unit scattered throughout the community and 19 condemned units along Cypress Place for a total of 43 units needing immediate abatement and/or demolition.

Burn Out Units: And estimated cost of $20,000 per unit to abate and demolish is $220,000 for all 11 units. However, there are 6 units found to not have asbestos containing material and may be prioritized in this phase since asbestos abatement is not necessary. Initial estimates to demolish and properly dispose of the 6 non-asbestos containing units is approximately $70,000.00 or about $11/square foot per unit. Four units were determined to have ACM and must be abated prior to demolition. Estimates for the abatement of these buildings is approximately $21,160 per unit. Additional costs may be added to demolish and properly dispose of remaining materials from these units.

Number of Units	Costs to abate burned units (ACM present) $20/sq. ft.	Costs to demolish burned Units (no ACM) $11/sq. ft.	Total
6		6,336 sq. ft.	~$40,000.00
5	4,032 sq. ft.		$50,000.00
Total Cost Phase 1 to remove Burned Units			$90,000.00

An additional cost to perform a traditional ceremony to “cool” the land where these burned units sit must also be performed by a traditional “Medicine Man” or practitioner at an estimated fee of $5,000 for all the burned unit throughout the community.

Cypress Place Condemned Units: Abate and demolish the 19 condemned (boarded) houses along Cypress Place (see map). Mostly 3- and 4-bedroom houses, the sizes of the houses range from 1,152 sq. ft., 1,296 sq. ft., to 1,792 sq. ft.

VACANT UNITS (Boarded/Condemned)
Number of Bedrooms	Number of Units	Square Footage Total
3-bedroom	12	13,824
4-bedroom	7	10,064
Total	19	23,888

Cypress Place Units	Square Footage	Estimated Abatement Cost @ $17/sq.ft.
Vacant	23,888	$410,000.00

Prior to demolition, these homes will need to be sampled and tested for asbestos and lead. An estimated fee of $32,000 should cover these costs. Total costs for Cypress Place demolition of vacant homes is $509,760.

Solution 2 Phase 2: Scattered Vacant/Condemned Units throughout Community: These are:

CURRENT VACANT UNITS
Unit # by location	Number of Bedroom	Square Footage
Balsam Court 101	3	912
Balsam Court 105	3	912
Balsam Court 107	2	724
Birch Place 305	2	936
Birch Place 311	3	1,134
Mahogany Circle 107	2	724
Maple Court 204	3	1,120
Maple Court 206	3	1,120
Maple Place 203	3	1,080
Maple Place 208	2	936
Maple Place 210	2	936
Maple Place 211	2	936
Mulberry Place 307	3	1,080
Total Square Footage		12,550

These units would need to be tested to determine if ACM is present and if asbestos abatement would be necessary. Sampling these units is estimated near $25,000. In any case, the cost to abate these vacant homes would be about $251,000. In total this phase would require $276,000.00.

There are currently 9 houses on Cypress Place that are occupied by families with long-standing ties to the community. These residents will need to be relocated into other locations. Once the homes on Cypress Place are vacated the homes can be tested for asbestos and abated and/or demolished. They are currently occupied in the units as follows:

OCCUPIED UNITS
Unit # Cypress Place	Number of bedrooms	Square Footage
101	3	1,152
104	3	1,152
108	3	1,152
118	4	1,296
120	3	1,152
126	3	1,152
128	3	1,152
129	4	1,296
131	4	1,296
Total Square Footage		10,800

Costs to abates and demolish these units that are currently occupied on Cypress Place:

Units	Square Footage	Estimated Abatement Cost @ $20/sq.ft.
Occupied	10,800	$216,000

Additional costs to test for asbestos in the remaining homes may range up to $20,000.00.

Once the occupied houses are vacated and all units along Cypress Place are demolished and cleared; NTCDC will pursue acquisition of land leases and funding to build more housing and other community and/or economic development opportunities including the assessment and upgrade of existing utilities. The location may be ideal for mixed-use development (residential, commercial, office, and possibly even light industrial/manufacturing). Currently, NTCDC is pursuing assistance for a Market Analysis of Navajo Route 12 that runs from Lupton, Arizona through Round Rock, Arizona and meanders between New Mexico and Arizona. The Market Analysis would examine the potential for tourism-related economic development and other opportunities along Route 12. Navajo Route 12 is the main thoroughfare in Navajo, NM. Additionally, Route 12 that runs through Navajo, NM is part of the Arizona Department of Transportation's "Dinetah Among the People Scenic Road" and was proposed to be part of New Mexico's "Trail of the Ancients Scenic Byway" at one time. Navajo, New Mexico is situated in a visually stunning location surrounded by sandstone bluffs, igneous rock formations, a lake, and mountains. The potential is there.

Solution 2 Phase 3: The remainder of the NTCDC managed public rentals are currently occupied where many of these residents are long-time community members or are second generation community members. Thus, NTCDC believes it is important to consider how we work with these tenants in relocation alternatives, if any.

There are 64 units (mostly 2- and 3-bedroom units) and one Guest House (hogan). The units and sizes are listed in the Appendix. These units, once vacant, will need to be tested for ACM and Lead to determine if proper abatement, demolition, and disposal is necessary on the units. There are 43 2-bedroom units and 22 3-bedroom units in total. The estimated cost to sample and analyze these homes for asbestos and lead could range as high as $115,000. If these units are found to contain asbestos, then the costs to abate would run as high as $1,107,080. Potential additional demolition and disposal costs could take costs even higher. However, this phase estimates are approximately $1,222,080.

Project Budget

Solution. The demolition, remediation, and/or renovation or rebuild of burned out, condemned, vacant, and inhabited old homes (NTCDC Public Rentals) which number about 117 in total.

Phase	Estimated Cost Per Phase
Phase 1	$500,000
Phase 2	$236,000

The community of Navajo, NM has pulled together a team of leaders to address issues. The leadership of the chapter, various corporations and the concerned community members continue to improve the quality of life for their residents. These individuals take pride in their community and want that pride to be instilled in the children, youth, adults and elders. This community wants to clean up the 53 old, unsafe housing structures that riddle their community. Fifty-three structures, is an eye sore for a community that is trying to build an economic base and become a self-sufficient community.

Our organization works in this community. The leadership of the Navajo Community has a sincere approach and a never-ending desire to improve their community. We, Animal Rez-Q Inc, urge the 24th Navajo Nation Council to support legislation #0049-22.

To whom it may concern:

Please accept this letter of support for Legislation 0049-22 for $500,000 for the removal of blighted units (Phase I) in Navajo, New Mexico (Red Lake #18 Chapter). This legislation and funding are very much needed in our community.

I've lived in this community for most of my life and I remember when the mill was still in operation and our little town was a great little place to live. We had a recreation center, swimming pool, laundromat, small medical clinic, dental clinic, and library here. The homes were nice, our streets were maintained, and small parks here and there offered some family gathering spaces for people. Unfortunately, the local mill closed and with it, the community seemed to take a downward spiral as well. Streets wore down and filled with potholes, the recreation center was closed, abandoned and eventually burned down, and many of the houses that housed the employees of the sawmill began to deteriorate. Today there are many houses that are burned, boarded up, and filled with graffiti. It gives this overall impression of sadness, a place where crime happens a lot, and just an all-round sense of despair. I've researched that our environment has a great impact on our mental and emotional senses. Now imagine our children who see this deterioration everyday as they walk to school where we tell them to learn, do better, lead healthy lives yet when, as a community we do not do even that for them. Or how we talk about honoring our elders; how it is honoring our elders when we ask them to live in fear next to one of these blighted units where vandals or transients come to "party" or do other illegal activities? It's not right.

Before I became Executive Director of NTCDC, I often wondered why these blighted homes were not cleaned up or renovated. Having worked here for a year now, I see how complicated the issues of fixing or tearing down these homes are. I've worked the past year with my Council Delegate Wilson Stewart, Jr., to understand the relationship and why we are looking to the Navajo Nation to help fix these issues. I've put together a paper, conducted some research into costs, and have some plans for the future to make these locations prosperous once again. The point I am trying to make is that we're not just asking to tear down these homes, but rather it is a first step in turning our community around with more housing options, community and economic development, and plans to help our community grow. I think we're ready.

I hope you will support this legislation and help our community become prosperous, vibrant, and healthy once again.

Sincerely,

Good afternoon,

My name is Justin Morgan and I am a former resident of Navajo New Mexico. I have driven through there recently and I have seen many houses that are damaged. I'm asking to support legislation that removes these blighted houses. They pose a threat to overall safety. No one does the maintenance so often times they are burned, vandalized and pilfered.

Thank you for your time,

To: comments <comments@navajo-nsn.gov>;

Good Afternoon,

I am in support of Legislation No #0049-22, for the cleanup of old residential units in my community of Navajo, NM.

These run down, torn, dilapidated units continue to be a depressing sight for sore eyes of our beautiful, precious community. My siblings and I are very proud that our paternal side of our family is the Red Lake Community. We grew up here and one-by-one we have all moved our families back to enjoy the benefits our community has to offer. We want our community to continue to thrive and be welcoming for generations to come. It's sad that it was once booming with the old sawmill was still operating, but it can be so again, but we first need to get rid of the old stuff that has no use.

We don't want these abandoned structures to be inviting places to do things that are not good for our community.

I hope that funds are approved and allocated for needed cleanup. We try our best, like during Earth Day to clean up the roadside and community and around our homes, please help us in making a major difference in getting rid of these gross unwanted trash and rundown buildings.

Thank you.

Please remove the ugly deserted buildings in Navajo, NM. They lend themselves to rapes, bootlegging and murders within the community. We must protect the Youth and elderly. Even the ordinary citizens need protection from this mayhem that occurs here. Also fix the roads! They are big enough to fall into and seriously injure people and cars. Thank you. Genevieve Jackson

Position/Title: Lifelong Red Lake #18 Chapter Community Member and Resident

I, Pauline J. Garnenez, am in favor of LEGISLATION NO: 0049-22 sponsored by Honorable Council Delegate Wilson Stewart (Red Lake #18, Fort Defiance, Sawmill, and Crystal), and request the support of the Resources and Development, Budget and Finance, and Naabik'íyáti' Committees to approve LEGISLATION NO. 0049-22.

As a lifelong resident and an active community member of Red Lake #18 Chapter, I have witnessed the formation of the former NFPI under the administration of Tribal Chairman Paul Jones and Scott Preston during the 1950s. The creation of jobs by the mill allowed our town to thrive with new housing development by Navajo Townsite Community Development which was created in partnership with NFPI. Through the years, our community enjoyed a brand new recreation center, a grocery store, laundromat, arcade, children's library, gas station; and a new elementary and new high school for our residents and children. Lifelong friendships were made among my generation and among our children. It was a wholesome and lively community. However, the times have changed and the mill closed down. As a result, lifelong residents like myself, witnessed a gradual decline in the appearance of our town and living conditions of the housing at its worst. Driving through the town of Navajo is not a pretty sight with so many damaged, burnt-out, and dilapidated houses which displays a negative sense of feeling to anyone living in our community or travelers passing through.

Right now, under the leadership of the 24th Navajo Nation Council and the direction of the current NTCDC management, our community has a rare opportunity to make a positive change. We need our current leaders to provide continued financial support the way the Jones-Preston Administration supported the goal to start the NFPI back in the 1950s. We need RDC, BFC and NABI to approve this legislation of $500,000.00 from the Sihasin Funds for the Assessment, Removal, and Cleanup of Old Residential Units in the Community of Navajo, New Mexico and to approve the related Expenditure Plan in Accordance with 12 N.N.C. § 2505(A). As an elder, I look forward to seeing these changes take effect soon while I'm still alive and see our community return to a healthy and safe environment. We need a community that we can all be proud of. Thank you.

Ya'ah'teeh shi ke', I am in support of Legislation 0049-22 to remove and remediate the blight of old homes from the era of Navajo Forest Products Industry thriving years. The homes were of NFPI employees that changed hands via management agreement with the Navajo Nation to NTCDC. With this responsibility the homes are owned by the Navajo Nation and managed by NTCDC.

Since then, the homes have aged and in some instances were abandoned by previous tenants. As the organization tried to process the blighted homes over the years the cost has accelerated leaving the initiative unattainable by the business organizations. To address the growing community and its need to improve its surroundings and prosper the legislation was initiated to address the cleanup of the homes and move forward to a healthy community for its generations to come.

I recommend full support to ensure healthy communities for the residents and leadership of Navajo, New Mexico. Ahxe'hee.
