Mr. Steven S. Benally, President

Re: Native American Church of Navajoland is now known as Azeé Bee Nahaghá of Diné Nation

Dear Mr. Benally:

This letter serves as recognition from the Navajo Land Department that the Native American Church of Navajoland is now known as Azeé Bee Nahaghá of Diné Nation.

The Native American Church of Navajoland was established on June 11, 1966 as a non-profit organization. On December 12, 1989, the Navajo Tribal Council Advisory Committee approved a Revocable Use Permit for the Native American Church of Navajoland to establish a mission site in Chinle, Arizona. A valid Revocable Permit was then issued to the organization on April 3, 1992.

On August 2, 2003, the organization's Board of Directors changed the name of the organization from "Native American Church of Navajoland" to "Azeé Bee Nahaghá of Diné Nation." On February 12, 2013, the Navajo Nation Business Regulatory issued a Certificate of Amendment recognizing a change in name from the Native American Church of Navajoland, Inc. to Azeé Bee Nahaghá of Diné Nation, Inc.

An organizational name change is not equivalent to a transfer of permit, because the original organization maintains the same interest in the permit. Azeé Bee Nahaghá of Diné Nation holds all rights that the Native American Church of Navajoland was granted through their Revocable Permit.

As of the date of this letter, Azeé Bee Nahaghá of Diné Nation is current with all mission site dues and is validly incorporated in the Navajo Nation. Therefore, Azeé Bee Nahaghá of Diné Nation is interchangeable with the Native American Church of Navajoland and should be treated as such in all matters.

If you have any questions or concerns on this issue, please feel free to contact Vera Shurley at (928)871-6447.

From: Lena D. Arviso
Lena D. Arviso, Accounting Manager
Officer Services/Accounts Receivable/Cashiers Section
Office of the Controller

Date: December 4, 2017

Subject: Document No. 8967

The Office of the Controller/Accounts Receivable Section (OOC/AR) received the attached Revised 164 Mission Site Lease package for Azee Bee Nahagha of Dine Nation, Inc. There is already an approved Revocable Permit for this Mission site. In addition, the rental rate approved for this Mission site is $1,000.00 per annum.

Thus, should this Revised 164 Mission Site Lease package be processed as a modification or how is the department transitioning from the previous process of approving Revocable Permit to the current process according to the new leasing regulations. Is the department cancelling the approved Revocable Permit which was approved and/or signed by the Bureau of Indian Affairs?

If the Revised 164 Mission Site Lease package for Azee Bee Nahagha of Dine Nation, Inc. is approved as it is, there will be two Revocable Permits and two billings perform by Accounts Receivable Section. So, OOC/AR wants the department to clarify this new process.

In addition, is the department requesting for a procurement clearance for this site? If it is the billing was already performed by OOC/AR and there is an outstanding amount now.

Should you require other information, please contact me at (928) 871-6122. Thank you for your cooperation.
