PROPOSED NAVAJO NATION COUNCIL RESOLUTION
24th NAVAJO NATION COUNCIL – Third Year, 2021

Introduced by:

(Prime Sponsor)

Tracking No. 0257-21

AN ACT

RELATING TO LAW AND ORDER, BUDGET AND FINANCE, AND NAABIK'ÍYÁTI' COMMITTEES, AND THE NAVAJO NATION COUNCIL;
ESTABLISHING A REFERENDUM FOR DINÉ VOTERS TO DECIDE WHETHER TO INCREASE THE NUMBER OF NAVAJO NATION
COUNCIL DELEGATES FROM 24 TO 48, BEGINNING WITH THE NOVEMBER 2026 NAVAJO NATION GENERAL ELECTION

BE IT ENACTED:

SECTION ONE. AUTHORITY

A. The Law and Order Committee of the Navajo Nation Council is authorized to review and make recommendations to the Navajo Nation Council regarding proposed amendments to the Navajo Nation Code. 2 N.N.C. §601(B)(14).

B. The Budget and Finance Committee of the Navajo Nation Council is authorized to “coordinate and review all fiscal, financial and investment activities of the Navajo Nation and its enterprises, as well as other agencies, federal, state, regional and private, expending or seeking to expend funds within the Navajo Nation or for the benefit of the Navajo People.” 2 N.N.C. §301(B)(5).

C. The Naabik'iyáti' Committee of the Navajo Nation Council is authorized to review proposed

1 resolutions requiring final action by the Navajo Nation Council. 2 N.N.C. §164(A)(9).

2 D. The Navajo Nation Council, as the elected and governing body of the Navajo Nation, sets
3 policy for the Navajo Nation. 2 N.N.C. §102(A). Pursuant to 11 N.N.C. §403(A), the Navajo
4 Nation Council may refer a referendum for public vote.

6 SECTION TWO. FINDINGS

7 A. Currently, the Navajo Nation Council has a membership of 24 delegates. 2 N.N.C. §102(A).

8 The 24 number of delegates was previously established by an initiative vote of Diné voters.

9 B. Pursuant to the Navajo Nation Election Code, Navajo Nation laws may be enacted through 10 a public initiative or referendum by public vote. 11 N.N.C. §§401 et seq.

11 C. The Navajo Nation Election Code, at 11 N.N.C. §409(C), provides:

12
13 C. Legislation adopted by a referendum/initiative election shall be amended or repealed
14 only:

15 1. By the outcome of a vote on a subsequent referendum or initiative election concerning 16 the same subject matter as that of the referendum/initiative which originally adopted the 17 legislation; or

18 2. For a Navajo Nation-wide referendum or initiative election, by 3/4 vote of the full
19 membership of the Navajo Nation Council at a regular session of the Navajo Nation
20 Council.

21
22 D. The Navajo Nation Supreme Court has stated:

23 “Under Fundamental Law, the Navajo People, as well as the Council, may make laws for 24 the good of the community; the People’s authority to make laws is not delegated to them by 25 the Council [citing 1 N.N.C. §201 and §206]. The referendum and initiative processes are 26 modern acknowledgments of this authority [citing, 11 N.N.C. §§401, et seq.]. Such 27 authority is also acknowledged by the Diné leaders who approved the Treaty of 1868, who 28 agreed that future alienation of Navajo land required a three-quarters vote of the Navajo
29 People. Treaty of 1868 between the United States and the Navajo Tribe of Indians, June 1, 30 1868, Art. 10, 15 Stat. 667, 670. The Council may reasonably regulate the People’s authority

1 to make laws through setting qualifications for voters in such referenda and initiatives,
2 [citation omitted] but the ultimate power to govern the Nation always remains with the 3 People. There is no question that the People as ‘Navajo voters’ may amend this, or any other
4 law through the referendum or initiative process; ....” In the Matter of Two Initiative
5 Petitions Filed by Navajo Nation President Joe Shirley, Jr. 9 Nav. R. 200, 203 (Nav. Sup.
6 Ct. 2008).

7 E. According to the Navajo Supreme Court, “the People may reduce or increase the size [of 8 the Council]; there is no language in Section 102(A) to suggest otherwise.” Id., at 204.
9 The Supreme Court ultimately ruled: “[t]he Navajo Nation Council may not amend Section
10 102(a) independently; it must defer to the will of the Navajo People.” Id. at 204.

11 F. The Commission on Navajo Government Development (“CNGD”) was established by the 12 Navajo Nation Council to implement reforms necessary to ensure an accountable and 13 responsible government. See Resolution No. CD-68-89. The CNGD was established with 14 quasi-independent authority. 2 N.N.C. §970. Today, the purposes of the CNGD include
15 reviewing and evaluating aspects of the existing governmental structure of the Navajo
16 Nation, including central and local governments. 2 N.N.C. §971.

17 G. In Resolution No. NGD-0902-19 the CNGD recommends that the Navajo Nation Council
18 establish a referendum for Navajo voters on whether the Council should be increased from 19 24 to 48 delegates. EXHIBIT A.

20 H. To ensure the protection of the fundamental rights and freedoms of the Diné to participate
21 in their democracy, Diné voters should determine through referendum whether the size of 22 the Navajo Nation Council should be increased from 24 to 48 members. Diné voters should 23 be provided this opportunity at the November 8, 2022 Navajo Nation General Election.

25 SECTION THREE. ESTABLISHING A REFERENDUM FOR DINÉ VOTERS TO 26 DECIDE WHETHER TO INCREASE THE NUMBER OF NAVAJO NATION
27 COUNCIL DELEGATES FROM 24 TO 48

28 A. The Navajo Nation Council hereby establishes a referendum measure for Diné voters to 29 decide whether to increase the number of Navajo Nation Council delegates from 24 to 48.
30 If this measure is approved by the voters and enacted, it shall be effective beginning with

1 the Navajo Nation 2026 General Election.

2 B. Subject to the authority of the Navajo Board of Election Supervisors as set forth in 11
3 N.N.C. §403(A) and §407, the measure referred herein shall be placed on the November 8,
4 2022 Navajo Nation General Election ballot with the language to read as follows:

6 Official Title: REFERENDUM INCREASING THE NAVAJO NATION COUNCIL
7 FROM 24 TO 48 DELEGATES.

8 Descriptive Summary: This referendum gives Diné voters the opportunity to decide by 9 majority vote whether the number of delegates to the Navajo Nation Council should be 10 increased from 24 to 48, beginning with the November 2026 Navajo Nation General
11 Election.

12 Brief Statement of Legal Effect:

13 A. "YES" vote is in favor of increasing the number of delegates to the Navajo Nation
14 Council from 24 to 48, beginning with the November 2026 Navajo Nation General
15 Election. A "YES" vote will have the effect of amending Title 2 of the Navajo Nation
16 Code as set forth in the complete text of the legislation referred by this referendum 17 measure.

18 B. "NO" vote is against increasing the number of delegates to the Navajo Nation Council
19 from 24 to 48. A "NO" vote will have no effect on the current status of Navajo Nation 20 law, thereby allowing the current number of 24 delegates to remain as is.

21 Referendum Ballot Question: "Shall the number of delegates to the Navajo Nation
22 Council be increased from 24 to 48 delegates, beginning with the November 2026 Navajo
23 Nation General Election?"

24 _____ "YES" - the number of delegates shall be increased from 24 to 48

25 _____ "NO" - the current number of 24 delegates shall remain as is

26
27
28 SECTION FOUR. COMPLETE TEXT OF PROPOSED TITLE 2 AMENDMENT FOR 29 THE REFERENDUM

30 The Navajo Nation Council hereby refers the complete text of proposed legislation for the referendum to amend Title 2 of the Navajo Nation Code as follows:

---

Title 2. Navajo Nation Government

Chapter 3. Legislative Branch

Subchapter 1. Navajo Nation Council

* * * *

§ 102. Powers; Composition

A. The Navajo Nation Council shall be the governing body of the Navajo Nation and shall consist of ~~24~~ 48 delegates.

SECTION FIVE. REVIEW BY NAVAJO BOARD OF ELECTION SUPERVISORS

The Navajo Board of Election Supervisors shall review the proposed referendum measure for purposes of ensuring compliance with provisions of the Navajo Nation Election Code, including 11 N.N.C. §§ 401, 402 and 407.

SECTION SIX. VOTE REQUIRED

Pursuant to 11 N.N.C. § 406(A), the measure referred herein shall pass by majority of votes cast. See also, Nelson v. Initiative Committee to Reduce Navajo Nation Council, 9 Nav. R. 350, 358 (Nav. Sup. Ct. 2010).

SECTION SEVEN. APPORTIONMENT PLAN

If the referendum is approved, and upon certification of the voting results:

- A. The Navajo Board of Election Supervisors shall consult with the Office of the Speaker and the Department of Justice, and other consultants as appropriate, regarding the development of a Chapter apportionment plan for the 48-member Navajo Nation Council.
- B. A proposed Chapter apportionment plan based on a 48-member Council shall be prepared and timely submitted to the 25th Navajo Nation Council for its approval. Along with the proposed apportionment plan, all amendments to the Navajo Nation Code, which may be

1 necessary as a result of the adoption of the apportionment plan, shall also be presented to the 2 Navajo Nation Council for its approval.

4 SECTION EIGHT. CODIFICATION

- 5 A. The approved amendment shall be codified by the Office of Legislative Counsel.
6 B. The Office of Legislative Counsel is authorized to make any changes in the Election Code
7 that may be necessary as a result of the approved amendment and apportionment plan.

9 SECTION NINE. EFFECTIVE DATE

10 This Legislation of the Navajo Nation Council shall become effective pursuant to 2 N.N.C. §
11 221(B), subject to referendum vote as provided herein.
12

13 SECTION TEN. SAVING CLAUSE

14 If any portion of this Legislation, or the 2 N.N.C. amendment approved by the referendum
15 established herein, is determined invalid by the Navajo Nation Supreme Court, or by a District
16 Court of the Navajo Nation without appeal to the Navajo Nation Supreme Court, those portions 17 of this Legislation, or the referendum, that are not determined invalid shall remain the law of 18 the Navajo Nation.

RESOLUTION OF THE COMMISSION ON NAVAJO GOVERNMENT DEVELOPMENT

AN ACTION TO RECOMMEND TO THE NAVAJO NATION COUNCIL AND THE NAVAJO BOARD OF ELECTION SUPERVISORS TO APPROVE AND AUTHORIZE A REFERENDUM MEASURE ON WHETHER THE NAVAJO NATION COUNCIL SHOULD BE INCREASED FROM 24 TO 48 MEMBERS AS PART OF AN EFFORT TO INCREASE THE COUNCIL'S EFFICIENCY, ENHANCE DEMOCRATIC REPRESENTATION, IMPROVE PARLIAMENTARY PROCEDURES AND QUORUM, AND REDUCED THE OVER-COMMITTED SUB-COMMITTEE ASSIGNMENTS.

WHEREAS:

1. Pursuant to CD-68-89, the Navajo Nation Council established the Commission ("Commission") on Navajo Government Development including the Office of Navajo Government Development with quasi-independent authority to accomplish the Navajo Nation Council's project of instituting reforms necessary to ensure an accountable and responsible government; and
2. Pursuant to 2 N.N.C. § 971 (1994 as amended), the purpose of the Commission on Navajo Government Development shall be as follows: (A) To review and evaluate all aspects of the existing government structure of the Navajo Nation including laws, rules and regulations, practices, functions, goals and objectives of the central government as it relates to Chapters, and local communities and the relationship of Chapters and local communities and the relationship of Chapters and local communities to the central government; and
3. In 2009, the Navajo Nation Council was reduced from 88 to 24 Delegates by an initiative and as a result the Navajo Nation Council compressed the duties and responsibilities of 12 Standing Committees to five (5) Standing Committees; and
4. On January 14, 2016, the Naabik'íyáti' Committee of the 23rd Navajo Nation Council issued NABIIA-02-16: An Action Relating to Naabik'íyáti' Committee, Directing the Commission and the Office of Navajo Government Development to provide a report and recommendation on the effectiveness of the downsized Navajo Nation Council and the responsiveness of the Navajo Nation Council; and
5. The Naabik'íyáti' Committee of the Navajo Nation hereby directs the Commission on Navajo Government Development and the Office of Government Development to provide a recommendation on instituting reforms necessary to ensure an accountable and responsible government; and
6. The Report demonstrates that Council Delegates have limited time for constituency outreach and attending chapter meeting and thus an institutional change commands for an increase in the number of Council Delegates; and
7. The majority of respondents, both the people and officials, strongly support to increase the number of Council Delegates and when looking at the chapter officials' only survey results it shows a comparable thirty-percent favor to increase the Navajo Nation Council Delegates from 24 to 48 and, by putting the two highest percentages in combined perspective, the result of this process show that 60 percent of respondents favor a Council Delegate increase to 48 member; and

8. The Commission on Navajo Government Development as an oversight and the Office of Navajo Government Development as an administrative instrument conducted a methodical study on the downsizing of the Navajo Nation Council by examining the Navajo electorate and Chapter Officials, it provided the Commission a novel set of data with which to analyze both the effectiveness and the responsiveness of the Navajo Nation Council; and
9. Critical information has emerged from this study that will be useful for the Navajo Nation government and its citizenry across several spectrums, whether attempting to better understand Navajo Nation Council's responsibilities, their effectiveness on their job, defining if democratic representation was diminished and should the number of Council be increased is exclusively left up to the People of the great Navajo Nation.

NOW THEREFORE IT BE RESOLVED THAT:

1. The Commission on Navajo Government Development has previously accepted the 2016 Navajo People and Chapter Officials Survey, Effectiveness on the Reduced Navajo Nation Council, also known as "Efficacy Report;" and
2. The Commission on Navajo Government Development recognizes the need to increase Council's efficiency, enhance democratic representation, improve parliamentary procedures and quorum requirements, and to reduce the over-committed sub-committee assignment; and
3. The Commission on Navajo Government Development hereby recommends to the 24th Navajo Nation Council and the Navajo Board of Election Supervisors to approve and authorize a Referendum Measure to be placed before the Navajo electorate during 2020 the Navajo Nation Primary Election on whether the Navajo Nation Council should be increased from 24 to 48 members.

CERTIFICATION

I, hereby certify that the foregoing resolution was duly considered by the Commission on Navajo Government Development at a duly called meeting in Cow Springs, Navajo Nation (Arizona) at which a quorum was present and that same was passed by a vote of 6 in favor, 0 opposed, 2 and abstained, this 14th day of September, 2019.

Seth Damon, Speaker
Navajo Nation Council
P.O. Box 3390
Window Rock, AZ 86515

Dear Honorable Speaker Damon,

The Commission on Navajo Government Development plans to hold its next regular meeting on Saturday, September 14, 2019, at Cow Springs, AZ (Mrs. Sally Fowler residence, mother of Commissioner Dr. Henry Fowler).

Pursuant to Resolution No.: CS-54-17, Commissioner Fowler's term expires on September 15, 2019, and the Commission has agreed to hold their next meeting inside a traditional Navajo Male Hogan while honoring a traditional medicine bundle (Jish) as a guiding principle and away from Window Rock, AZ and, before Commissioner Fowler's term expires.

Pursuant to 2 N.N.C., § 974 (A)(2), "All meetings shall be held in Window Rock, Navajo Nation (Arizona) for the transaction of the Commission business. Meetings held elsewhere must be authorized by written permission of the Chairperson Intergovernmental Relations Committee."

The Commission intends to discuss "government reform" recommendations based on two back-to-back work sessions and there will be new business items to be considered. Therefore, please consider this letter as a formal written request to hold the Commission's next meeting away from Window Rock, Navajo Nation (Arizona).

Thank you for your consideration. If you have any questions, please contact Mr. Edward Dee, Executive Director, with the Office of Navajo Government Development at (928) 871-6378.

Sincerely,

Edison Wauneka, Council Delegate
The 24th Navajo Nation Council
Post Office Box 3390
Window Rock, AZ 86515

Dear Honorable Delegate Wauneka,

Yá'át'tééh! On September 14, 2019, the Commission on Navajo Government Development ("Commission") passed Resolution No. CNGD-0902-19: AN ACTION TO RECOMMEND TO THE NAVAJO NATION COUNCIL AND THE NAVAJO BOARD OF ELECTION SUPERVISORS TO APPROVE AND AUTHORIZE A REFERENDUM MEASURE ON WHETHER THE NAVAJO NATION COUNCIL SHOULD BE INCREASED FROM 24 TO 48 MEMBERS AS PART OF AN EFFORT TO INCREASE THE COUNCIL'S EFFICIENCY, ENHANCE DEMOCRATIC REPRESENTATION, IMPROVE PARLIAMENTARY PROCEDURES AND QUORUM, AND REDUCED THE OVER-COMMITTED SUB-COMMITTEE ASSIGNMENTS.

In January 2016, the 23rd Navajo Nation Council Naabik'íyáti Committee passed NABIJA-02-16, to examine the reduced Navajo Nation Council's effectiveness and responsiveness, so to initiate candid discussion regarding any government reform examination, whether the reduced Council should be reconsidered from 24 to 48.

The Office of Navajo Government Development undertook a thorough research and analysis covering a period of one-year regarding the reduced Navajo Nation Council and its effectiveness and responsiveness. The Report demonstrates that the drastic reduction of Council delegates (a 72% reduction) impacts the limited time for constituency outreach, diminished democratic representation, and a decline in local governmental activities. The Report also revealed the extensive reduction of Navajo lawmakers created an influx of compounding problems, e.g., vast decrease in democratic representation, a decreased of the parliamentary procedures, and an over-contracted and over-burden of committees.

Therefore, the Commission on Navajo Government Development took action in September 2019 to recommend to the Navajo Nation Council to consider a referendum measure to be placed on the upcoming November Election for the Navajo People to decide whether to increase Navajo lawmakers from 24 to 48.

The Commission and Office of Navajo Government Development request your assistance to sponsor a legislation to advance the Commission Resolution CNGD-0902-19.

If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact me at (928) 871-6378.

Sincerely,
