(Prime Sponsor)

TRACKING NO. 0003-19

AN ACTION

RELATING TO NAABIK'ÍYÁTI' COMMITTEE AND THE NAVAJO NATION
COUNCIL; RESCINDING CO-60-17

BE IT ENACTED:

Section One. Authority

- A. The Navajo Nation Council is the governing body of the Navajo Nation. 2 N.N.C §102 (A).
- B. Pursuant to 2 N.N.C. §164 (A)(9), a proposed resolution that requires final action by the Navajo Nation Council shall be assigned to the Naabik'iyáti' Committee before it is heard by the Navajo Nation Council.

Section Two. Findings

- A. In October 2017, the Navajo Nation Council passed Resolution CO-60-17 titled Amending "The Navajo Preference in Employment Act" at 15 N.N.C. §§ 603, 604(B)(8) to Provide For The Addition of Program Managers of The Executive Branch as a Class of Employees Exempt From the Just Cause Provisions of The Act. See CO-60-17 attached hereto as Exhibit A.
- B. Resolution CO-60-17 amended the Navajo Preference in Employment Act ("NPEA"), 15 N.N.C. §§ 603 and 604(B)(8) to include the addition of Program Managers as exempt from the just cause provision of the NPEA.

- 1 C. Resolution CO-60-17 was enacted by statute on November 6, 2017, after the Navajo
2 Nation President did not sign the resolution within the statutory 10 day period and the
3 effective date of CO-60-17 was one year after the Resolution became effective but 4 also became effective for all program manager positions as those positions became
5 vacant due to retirement, resignation, termination, promotion, layoff or transfer of the 6 persons occupying those positions.
- 7 D. The Navajo Department of Personnel Management has notified all programs,
8 departments and the Executive and Legislative Branches to revise the Personnel
9 Action Forms for all program managers defined by CO-60-17.
- 10 E. Resolution CO-60-17 has affected a large number of Navajo Nation employees and is 11 ripe for abuse by supervisors who are now free from the just cause requirement of the 12 NPEA and may freely terminate program managers potentially leading to a slow-
13 down in program services to Navajo citizens.

15 Section Three. Rescinding CO-60-17

- 16 A. The Navajo Nation hereby rescinds CO-60-17 titled Amending "The Navajo

- 20 B. As a result of this rescission, all program managers shall be regular status employees
21 of the Nation with all rights accruing to such employees under the Navajo Preference
22 in Employment Act and the Navajo Nation Personnel Policies Manual. The 23 Department of Personnel Management shall immediately take all steps necessary to 24 implement this legislation, including issuing new Personnel Action Forms for all
25 Program Managers reflecting that status.

AN ACTION

RELATING TO LAW AND ORDER, HEALTH, EDUCATION AND HUMAN SERVICES, NAABIK'ÍYÁTI' COMMITTEE AND THE NAVAJO NATION COUNCIL; AMENDING
"THE NAVAJO PREFERENCE IN EMPLOYMENT ACT" AT 15 N.N.C. §§ 603, 604
(B) (8) TO PROVIDE FOR THE ADDITION OF PROGRAM MANAGERS OF THE
EXECUTIVE BRANCH AS A CLASS OF EMPLOYEES EXEMPT FROM THE JUST CAUSE
PROVISIONS OF THE ACT

BE IT ENACTED:

- C. The Naabik'íyáti' Committee is a standing committee of the Navajo Nation Council. Pursuant to 2 N.N.C. § 164(A) (9), the committee reviews proposed legislation which requires final action by the Navajo Nation Council.
- D. The Navajo Nation Council enacts laws and sets policy for the Navajo Nation. 2 N.N.C. § 102.

SECTION TWO. FINDINGS

- A. Program managers of the Executive Branch of the Navajo Nation perform a crucial role in the implementation, efficiency and effectiveness of the programs of the Navajo Nation in a manner that insures a positive benefit to the Navajo People.
- B. The Navajo Nation Personnel Policies Manual describes the supervisory responsibilities of program managers as follows:
"Supervisors are responsible for utilizing and applying the personnel policies consistently in dealing with human resources issues. They are encouraged to seek advice from Department of Personnel Management and Department of Justice on the interpretation of the Personnel Policies Manual and in addressing employment issues. Supervisors are expected to provide leadership in implementing the policies and to set positive examples for employees. See Navajo Nation Personnel Policies Manual, Section I, A., Amended March 25, 2015.

- C. In order to hold program managers of each division within the Navajo Nation government accountable for the performance of their respective programs, there is a current need to make all program managers within the Executive Branch of the Navajo Nation professional at-will employees.
- D. The definition of at-will employee is when, "a supervisor can discharge an employee under this employment status for any reason at all or no reason at all, with or without notice; and the employee can leave (resign) at any time for any or no reason at all, with or without notice." See Navajo Nation Personnel Policies Manual, Section XXI, Amended April 12, 2016.
- E. The definition of "program manager" is "...anyone who has the authority to hire, terminate, discipline, or otherwise initiate personnel action. It is also intended to include all supervisors at higher levels, i.e. Department Managers, division directors." See Navajo Nation Personnel Policies Manual, Section XXI, Amended April 12, 2016.
- F. It is in the best interest of the Navajo Nation in order to improve overall program efficiency, effectiveness and accountability that all program managers serve at the pleasure of Navajo Nation Executive Branch Division Directors.
- G. It is in the best interest of the Navajo Nation to amend the Navajo Preference in Employment Act, at 15 N.N.C. §§ 603, 604 (B) (8), to provide that all program managers of the Navajo Nation Executive Branch be exempt from the just cause provisions of the Navajo Preference in Employment Act.

Background Information:

Resolution rescind CO-60-17 titled Amending “The Navajo Preference in Employment Act” at 15 N.N.C §§ 603, 604 (B) (8) to Provide for the Addition of Program Managers of the Executive Branch as Class of Employees Exempt from the Just Cause Provision of The Act.

Section Two – Findings:

B. The Navajo Personnel Policies Manual describes the Supervisor responsibilities of program managers as follows: “Supervisors are responsible for utilizing and applying the personnel polices consistently in dealing with human resources issues. They are encouraged to seek advice from DPM and DOJ on the interpretation of the Personnel Policies Manual and in addressing employment issues. Supervisors are expected to provide leadership in implementing the policies and to set positive examples for employees. Section I, A.

D. The definition of at-will employee is when, “a supervisor can discharge an employee under this employment status for any reason at all or no reason at all, with or without notice; and the employee can leave (resign) at any time for any or no reason at all, with or without notice.” Section XXI.

E. the definition of “Program Manager” is “anyone who has the authority to hire, terminate, discipline, or otherwise initiate personnel action. It is also intended to include all supervisors at higher levels, i.e. Department Mangers, Division Directors.” Section XXI

Recommendation One:

Define – Program Managers & Agency Level Supervisors

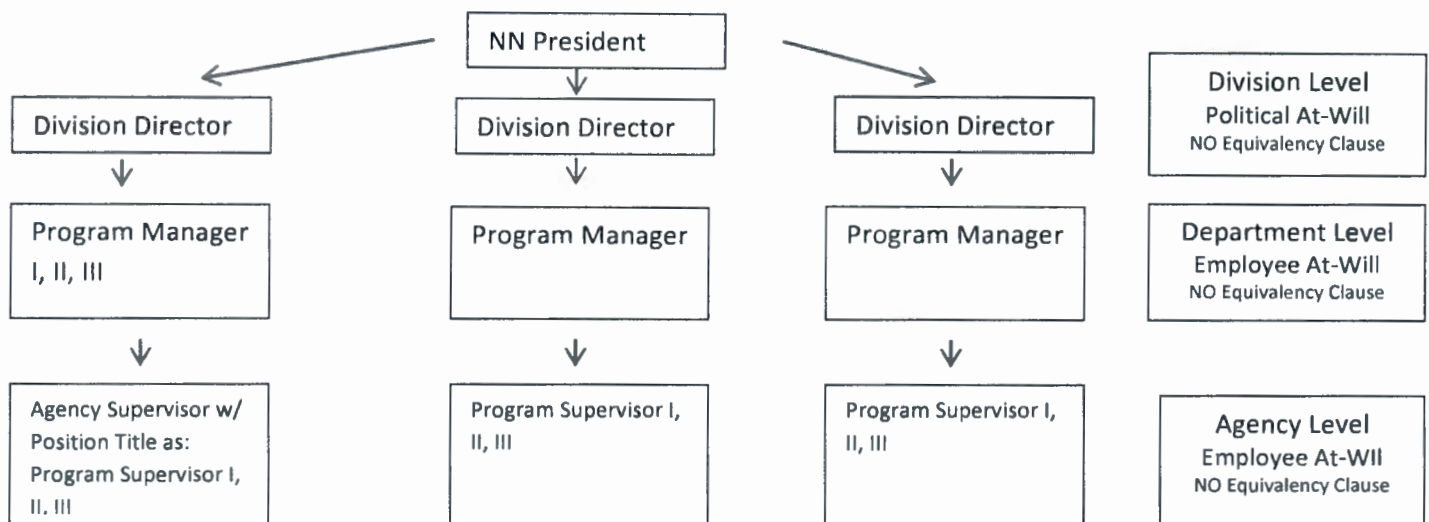

Navajo Nation Personnel Policies: It is defined that Program Manager is someone that has the authority to hire, terminate, discipline or otherwise initiate personnel action. Program Managers are the only position that has the authority to hire, terminate or discipline. Supervisors below the position of Program Mangers such as Agency Supervisors NOT all have the authority to hire, terminate or discipline.

I believe this is the main reason; the lower level supervisors are against the legislation CO-60-17 (PAW). Unfortunately, Program Manager Positions were at difference levels. Agency level supervisors are considered Program Manager when in fact they are not. Program Managers are the position below the Division Director. So, when legislation became effective, Agency level supervisors are considered in this legislation (PAW).

The Legislation specifically indicates, Program Managers that have the authority to hire, terminate and discipline. Agency level supervisors just recommend who they will hire, if discipline and terminate actions need to be taken, they consult with DOJ and the Program Manager. It is the Program Manager that signs all the needed documents to hire, terminate and discipline, not the Agency level supervisors.

The Legislation should have indicated Supervisors that have the authority to hire, terminate and discipline instead of “Program Managers” title. This is where the push back is from the lower level supervisors. They are looking at the “Position Title” not the definition where it indicates its authority level.

Navajo Nation Government, Human Resources Department needs to address the consistency of the position titles across the board. Example below:

The Department of Human Resources and President/Council can use the Reorganizational program to do “spill and fill” if they want to refill the Supervisor positions with new people that qualify. The Key here is the “Equivalency Clause” is eliminated if you want to get the best candidates for the supervisory positions.

Navajo Nation Organizational chart has different supervisory titles. It should be consistent across the chart. But, introducing a new organizational chart will allow the current employee that is affected to re-apply for the position. If they do not qualify, then a new employee is selected that does qualify. The key is No Equivalency clause for the supervisory positions.

Currently, you have people in Supervisory positions that have no educational background or were grandfathered in, supervising employees that have twice the educational credentials. These types of supervisors have no management skills and destroy the motivation of their subordinates and leave their program with no improvement or progression of improvement.

Recommendation Two:

D. The definition of At-Will employee is when, “a supervisor can discharge an employee under this employment status for any reason at all or no reason at all, with or without notice; and the employee can leave (resign) at any time for any or no reason at all, with or without notice.” Section XXI.

E. the definition of “Program Manager” is “anyone who has the authority to hire, terminate, discipline, or otherwise initiate personnel action. It is also intended to include all supervisors at higher levels, ie. Department Mangers, Division Directors.” Section XXI

Navajo Nation Personnel Policy: At-Will: (page 18)

There are two categories of at-will employees:

- a. Professional At-Will – employees are those who serve at the pleasure of the Attorney General, Chief Prosecutor, Executive Director of the Navajo Nation Washington Office, The Public Defender Commission, or other Official or employee as provided by Navajo Nation law (see Definitions, Section XXI for reference to the Navajo Nation Code). This designation does not include any employee who receives deferred compensation.
- b. Political At-Will - employees are those who serve at the pleasure of the President, the Navajo Nation Council, or the Speaker of the Navajo Nation Council. Political At-Will employees receive deferred compensation.

ADDITION:

- c. Employee At-Will - employees are those who are employed by the Navajo Nation Government in the supervisor capacity and have the authority to hire, terminate and discipline.

Basically, it will mean that ALL Supervisory positions will be At-Will positions. All supervisors will have the authority to hire, terminate and discipline.

Recommendation Three:

If the problem of the criteria which is “authority to hire, terminate and discipline” is included in the resolution, then there could be the simple creation of an Human Resources (HR) panels that can address hire, terminate and discipline.

- A. Interview Panel group (Hire) – a group of people that conduct an unbiased interview to hire individuals that are qualified for the position. Members of the panel will include Supervisor from the immediate office, DPM personnel, immediate Department personnel and one other current employee from the hiring office.

This will also eliminate the “it is not what you know but who you know” hiring practice complaint from unsuccessful candidates.

- B. Disciplinary Panel group (Disciplinary) – a group of people that will review the investigation and come to a consensus to administer a disciplinary action needed. Members of the panel will include, Current Supervisor, DPM representative, and NOLR. The Program Manager will administer disciplinary action.
- C. Termination Panel group (Termination) – a group of people that will review the investigation and come to a consensus to terminate the employee. Members of the panel will include, Current Supervisor, DMP representative, DOJ representative. The Program Manager will administer disciplinary action.

This will elevate the need for Agency Supervisors (Program Supervisors at Agency levels) to be Employee At-Will/Political At-Will employees.

Recommendation Four:

If the Navajo Nation truly believe in the best interest of the government to improve the overall program efficiency, effectiveness and accountability, do not include the equivalency clause in the Program Managers or any Supervisory positions. Often, you will see recycled individuals that do not have the educational credentials but yet occupies the highest level of supervisory position with poor management skills.

Current Navajo Nation Personnel Policy - Equivalency Clause: (page 23)

To establish job descriptions/classifications, programs must:

1. Establish minimum qualifications for a position, whether a certain number of years of experience, a specific education requirement, or both of qualification assessment; and
2. Establish preferred qualifications for a position, whether a certain number of years of experience, a specific educational requirement, or both in seeking the best qualified candidate.

Recommendation is re-write the Qualifications for Program Managers and Supervisors ONLY.

1. Establish best qualifications for a position, a certain number of years of experience, and a specific education requirement of qualification assessment; and
2. Establish preferred qualifications for a position, whether a certain number of years of experience, and a specific educational requirement in seeking the best qualified candidate.
3. No Equivalency Clause.

Recommendation Five:

There was a memorandum that was issued by Reycita Toddy, dated December 26, 2017. I sincerely believe when this memorandum was issued, Ms. Toddy should have met with all the positions that would have been effected. Instead, only the Division Directors and next level supervisors were involved in the discussion or the information was not disseminated to the next lower level supervisors. The communication breakdown from the Division Directors and Program Managers should take responsibility for causing the situation. As an employee under the Division of Human Resources, Ms. Toddy should have considered the best interest of the entire Navajo Nation employee. As an HR employee it is critical that you have a continuous stethoscope on the heart of the Navajo Nation government employees. They should be advocate for employees and create dynamic and diverse workplaces with engaged employees/customers. Instead our HR department has just become paper pushers. HR department needs to conduct 360° evaluations on ALL the supervisor positions. This can be outsource by HR. The final report then can be shared with ALL the supervisors (Agency supervisor, Program Supervisors, Division Supervisors, NN President). A determination can be made to release the employee if they are an At-Will employee.

Well, I have more to add but, I think this is about the right place to stop.

Re: CO-60-17 amendment proposal

Good morning Executive Director,

I believe that if a program manager is not succeeding, then that program manager should be removed after clearly demonstrating they are incapable of running a Navajo Nation program successfully. Just because you are hired into a tribal government management position should not mean it is a permanent position or that a manager should just do the bare minimum. It is also essential that managers, upon hire, understand the expectations expected from them in a higher income position. After hire, there seems to be a lack of communication thereby managers lose perspective of goals and eventually running programs into the ground

It is necessary for Navajo Nation government to hire competent managers. Ms. Crotty ran for council delegate to work for all Navajos and should endeavor as such. Keep CO-60-17 as-is on Navajo Nation.

To: comments <comments@navajo-nsn.gov>;

Good morning,

I am in full support of rescinding the legislative regarding Professional At Will (PAW); I feel it is misinterpreted by our administration, back in July we were informed of PAW and as Supervisors over agency office we were told by our Superior that we fall under one of the criteria. We disagreed, we read and understood that it only affects the Program Managers and not the agency level personnel. Our administration went beyond their capability to reclassify our position so we fit the criteria and subject us to a PCQ in that effort, demanding we sign the PCQ and had to reapply for our position in the process. It was not a choice we were demanded to comply and cooperate with the creation of the PCQ. Our superior presently has the same title as each one of us, it was a blessing that we all qualified for the new classified position however that didn't help our administrator who still has the title of Program Supervisor I.

With the PCQ she was to attach a reorganization structure she did without our knowledge and it was never passed by the council or whoever was supposed to approve any changes to a program. Everything was done in a manner of deceit to ensure we all were under PAW regardless of our job title and description, we don't have job descriptions for each position under this department. I strongly feel we don't fall under PAW but we were made to fit by changing our titles. This effort was made possible by our current PS1 Ms. Platero and Ms. LaVonne Tsosie; somewhere along the way the responsibility of disciplining our staff fell on us, financial responsibilities and personnel process, these responsibilities were always with the central administration in the prior years but once Ms. Platero started directing this department a lot of the weight has trailed down to the agency offices.

I feel PAW should only apply to the Central Program Managers, Directors etc...and not subject it to the agency level staff. We know this was intentionally done by our administrator because this gave her the upper hand to use this as a retaliation or a form of dismissal; as it is we are in the midst of micro management that needs someone to fully look into the matter and soon. Please rescind the PAW or apply it to those with such authority as described in the content and not extend it to the "grass root" level. We are always forgotten about, the demands of our superior become overwhelming at times causing due hardship. Thank you if I can be of further assistance or need more information please do not hesitate to call on me. Recommendation: that there be some form of assessment or investigation made for all those who fall under PAW and make accountability on lack of production or performance.
